12-The Daily Collegian Monday, Oct. 7, 1985 Robinson becomes winningest coach

AP Sports Writer The University of Iowa and Grambling State University have one thing in common — Eddie Robinson.

The 66-year-old Robinson reigns as the winningest coach in college football history today following Grambling State's 27-7 conquest of Prairie View A&M. And Iowa, the school where Robinson earned his master's degree in physical education, may have retained its No. 1 ranking thanks to a last-minute 35-31 victory over Michigan State.

In his 44th season as Grambling's coach, Robinson passed the late Bear Bryant by notching his 324th victory. "Whatever the record is, it belongs to Grambling," Robinson said of the predominantly black school in northern Louisiana. "You may talk about the record, but that's not the record. The record is 44 years at one school, one job and one wife. "We do the same things over and over. We try to win, and that's just about it. That's the name of it." The countdown was on when Grambling took a 20-0 halftime lead over Prairie View, Iowa, however, cut it a little finer. The Hawkeyes blew a 13-0 lead, fell behind Michigan State 24-13, went ahead 28-24, trailed 31-28 and finally pulled it out on quarterback Chuck Long's 2-yard naked bootleg with only 27 seconds left. "The slowest quarterback in the world can run that play and run it in from the 2-vard line." said Long, who also completed 30 of 39 passes for 380 yards and four touchdowns. "But I ran as fast as I could." But not fast enough to keep Coach Hayden Fry from a few anxious mo-"Chuck isn't all that fast," Fry said. "and when I noticed he hoisted the ball at the 3-yard line I just about had a heart attack.' Three members of the Associated Press Top Twenty weren't as fortunate as Iowa. Third-ranked Southern Methodist committed four turnovers and lost to Arizona 28-6, No. 5 Ohio
