hagen will find out the value of his right arm. "I had a one-year contract last year. It's up. I'll renegotiate this year," the Kansas City Royals' ace pitcher said yesterday after receiving a minivan as Sport Magazine's Most Valuable Player in the World Series.

"I expect I'll be sitting down and talking with the Royals the middle of the month, maybe the end of it," Saberhagen said. "I can imagine having a tough time negotiating. There could be problems, but I'd like to think there won't be. I have a good relationship with the Royals, they have a good one with me and my agent," Dennis Gilbert of Beverly Hills, Calif. Saberhagen beat the St. Louis Cardinals twice — 6-1 in the third game and 11-0 in the seventh — as the Royals staged the greatest comeback in Series history by winning the title after losing the first two games at home. In 18 innings against the Cardinals, Saberhagen's earned run average was 0.50. He struck out 10, yielded 11 hits and walked only one.
