

Swimmen squeeze Syracuse

By MARY DEWEES

Orange juice... it's not just for breakfast anymore. The men's swimming and diving team proved this Friday night as it crushed the Orangemen of Syracuse, 68-46, in front of an enthusiastic crowd at the McCoy Natatorium.

"In what has become characteristic of the Lions' 40 season thus far, their opponents provided less of a challenge than expected. Syracuse followed in the footsteps of the University of Cincinnati and Ohio University, both top-notch teams that fell prey to the Lions earlier in their season.

The Orangemen, who had shaved several swimmers for a meet earlier in the week, were supposed to provide Penn State with some of its best competition so far, but fell short of any expectations. Even though a considerable number of Lion swimmers swam exhibition and in off-events, the team still managed to capture first place in eight of thirteen events. But Coach Peter Brown said most of the credit should be attributed to his team's better-than-expected performance rather than to the luckiest one given by the Syracuse team.

"They swam pretty well, but we swam a lot better than I thought we would," he said. "Really everybody did a nice job, I don't think there was anybody I was disappointed in."

Freshman sprinter Allen Brown also gave part of the credit for the win to the support of the large number of fans who gathered for the meet.

"I was really pleased with the large number of people we had and I hope it continues," he said. "I was really psyched when I saw the large crowd."

Another freshman, Bill Matz, who was a member of the winning 400-yard medley relay, said the team did especially well considering the work it had done in preparation to the meet to prepare for the tough challenge. He also said that the team expected Syracuse to be up for the meet, and rose to the occasion.

"I think we did really well considering we worked pretty hard this week and the team was really tired," he said.

"We expected them to be in pretty good spirits and ready to swim really fast. Coach was telling us you guys are really going to have to move, and I guess we got it together pretty well."

Several swimmers 'got it together' especially well, garnering places in multiple events. Sophomore Brad Jones took first place in both the 200-freestyle and 200 butterfly, while freshman Dave Raftery won the 500 freestyle and gave a winning effort in the 400 medley relay. Also in that relay was freshman Brian Smith, who won the 200 individual medley and unofficially the 200 backstroke exhibition.

Smith said that two factors may have combined to work to the team's advantage in Friday's meet: the fact that it was held in the evening, and that it was a single dual-meet (not combined with the women's meet).

"I swim a lot better in the evening, I like swimming in the evening," he said. "Also, the meet was run a lot faster than usual. I think the guys all swam great, and I think we'll do a lot better as the year goes on."

Other top swimming efforts were turned in by freshman Andy Eggleston in the 1,000 freestyle, senior Pete Greene in the 500 freestyle, freshman Randy Nixon in the 200 backstroke, and by veterans Jay Maloney and Guy Del Franco.

In diving, it was also Penn State's chance to shine, as it took two out of three places on both the one and three meter boards. Sophomore Bruce Eble stole the show as he finished within 20 points of national qualifying on both boards. He placed first on the three-meter with 289.5 points and second on the one-meter with 217.7 points.

Coach Brown was pleased with Eble's results and is looking to him as a staple in the team's future.

"Eble did a nice job, he's looking pretty sharp up there," Brown said. "I think in a few weeks when we really start to work it will be a good job for us."

Diving Coach Craig Brown was happy with the performances of all three of his divers: Eble, sophomore Mike Hoelscher, and freshman Steve Kutruff. Hoelscher captured first in both diving events and Kutruff finished fifth in the one-meter.

Swimwomen sweep a pair

"We swam well in our own pool, in front of their parents," he said. "This was a big step forward (as the season progresses)."

Krimmel spread out the individual glories by allowing everyone to compete in at least one event. There were, however, five individuals who won, or were part of a winning effort in two events. They include seniors Janeen Leesch and Kristin Whitner and freshman Kristen Elias, all members of the 200-yard individual medley team.

"We're very consistent," said Krimmel. "We had some outstanding performances."

In addition to the 200-yard medley relay, Leesch took first place in the 100-yard breast stroke, Elias took individual honors in the 100-yard butterfly and Whitner was part of the Lady Lion team which won the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Another member of the 400-yd freestyle relay team who also excelled individually was freshman Jeanne Wilkins. The Springfield, Va., native finished ahead of the field in 50-yard freestyle.

"We normally want to diving by the middle of the season, before we go home for Christmas," said Brown.

Freshman Beth Fahey finished just behind teammate Spiegel to win the three-meter board and, in the process, also impressed Brown.

"Beth is very consistent," he said of the Malvern, native. "She's a mature, competitor and tough mentally."

"My times weren't as good as they were in Cincinnati, but I think I swam a better meet today," said the native of Haddon Heights, N.J. "This meet was a test of our determination, and, as a team we accomplished a lot, considering that we didn't rest at all for this meet."

Payton sprinted 40 yards for a touchdown and finished the game with 102 yards to match the mark of O.J. Simpson and Earl Campbell for seven consecutive 100-yard games in a National Football League season.

"Perry, the Bears' 300-pound defensive tackle who joins Chicago's offense in goal-line situations, lumbered onto the field after Steve Fuller had passed 50 yards to Willie Gault to the Atlanta one-yard line. Perry bulled into the end zone for his third TD of the season, the second on the ground.

Chicago's victory came a week after its 44-0 crushing of Dallas. The Bears hadn't posted two shutouts in a row since 1942. They have not allowed a single point in 10 successive quarters or a touchdown in the last 13.

"The defense couldn't play any better. The way our defense is playing, nothing is too hard and they're taking everything away from the other team," Coach Mike Ditka said.

He said he was "determined to see Walter get his seventh 100-yard game. I'm also determined to see him get his eighth and ninth. When his name goes down, I want it to stand alone."

The only other players in NFL history to run back two touchdowns in a game were Timmy Brown of Philadelphia in 1966 and Travis Williams of the Packers in 1967.

Chiefs 20, Colts 7
In Kansas City, the Chiefs put aside rumors that Coach John Mackovic would be fired and got their minds off the midweek drug-arrest of defensive end Mike Bell to end a seven-game losing streak.

Todd Blackledge threw a 22-yard scoring pass to Stephone Paige, Mike Pruitt scored on a 2-yard run and Nick Lowery kicked two field goals against Indianapolis.

Jets 16, Patriots 13
Kurt Sohn's 46-yard punt return set up Pat Leahy's 32-yard field goal 10:16 into overtime at Giants Stadium as the Jets improved their record to 9-3 and took a one-game lead over New England and Miami in the AFC East.

After each team had two possessions in overtime, Sohn took Rich Camarillo's punt and wheeled down the left side before being knocked out of bounds at the New England 15. The Jets went for the win on the first play and got it on Leahy's third field goal. Tony Franklin's 28-yard field goal for New England with 16 seconds remaining forced overtime.

Dolphins 23, Bills 14
Miami scored TDs on Dan Marino touchdown passes of 77 yards to rookie Ron Davenport and 155 yards to Dan Johnson and a fourth-quarter run by Tony Nathan, but it was a muffed punt by the host Bills that turned the game around.

Redskins 30, Steelers 23
The visiting Redskins turned Ken Jenkins' 65-yard kickoff return and a blocked punt by Otis Wonsley into two first-quarter touchdowns, then held off a Scott Campbell-led Pittsburgh rally to defeat the Steelers.

Browns 24, Bengals 6
In Cleveland, Kevin Mack ran for 117 yards and two touchdowns and veteran quarterback Gary Danielson, starting for the first time in seven games in place of rookie Bernie Kosar, threw a 72-yard touchdown pass to Clarence Weathers to give the Browns their victory over Cincinnati.

Bucs 19, Lions 16
Tampa Bay quarterback Steve Young, ineffective for three quarters of his NFL debut, engineered a 10-point, fourth-period rally to force overtime. Donald Igwebuike's fourth field goal of the game, a 24-yarder with 2:29 left in the extra session, beat the visiting Lions.

Oilers 37, Chargers 25
In Houston, Tony Zendejas kicked a 38-yard field goal with two seconds to play — his third field goal of the game — to cap a last-ditch drive by the Oilers. That drive included a 25-yard pass from Oliver Luck to Tim Smith and a 10-yard run by Steve McNair.

Saints 30, Vikings 21
Former USFL quarterback Bobby Hebert's first NFL touchdown pass, a 38-yarder to John Floy with 50 seconds to play, lifted the Saints past Minnesota.

Bears continue to barrel through NFL

By The Associated Press

The unbeaten Chicago Bears, led by thunderous Walter Payton, ponorously William "Refrigerator" Perry and an ominous defense, barreled to their 12th victory in a row and their second consecutive shutout, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 36-0 yesterday.

Payton sprinted 40 yards for a touchdown and finished the game with 102 yards to match the mark of O.J. Simpson and Earl Campbell for seven consecutive 100-yard games in a National Football League season.

"Perry, the Bears' 300-pound defensive tackle who joins Chicago's offense in goal-line situations, lumbered onto the field after Steve Fuller had passed 50 yards to Willie Gault to the Atlanta one-yard line. Perry bulled into the end zone for his third TD of the season, the second on the ground.
