Irish's Faust throws in the towel

By JOE MOOSHIL AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) - Gerry Faust, a high school winner who found only criticism and frustration at the college level, resigned vesterday as the losingest football coach in Notre Dame history after five seasons. The resignation is effective Saturday, after the Irish play No. 4 Miami at the Orange Bowl. Rumors had been circulating that Faust would not be retained after his five-year contract expired. But his announcement, made from South Bend, Ind., at the beginning of a weekly telephone news conference, came as a shock.

"It's best for me to resign now and give the university an opportunity to get another coach before recruiting starts next week," Faust said. "It's best for the university, best for me, best for my family. Faust's decision immediately sparked speculation on a possible successor. Minnesota Coach Lou Holtz, who has a son at Notre Dame, appeared to be the front-runner. Holtz, who formerly coached at Arkansas, recently said he wouldn't leave Minnesota for any coaching job except

Notre Dame. Other coaches whose names have surfaced as possible candidates include Virginia's George Welsh. Maryland's Bobby Ross, UCLA's Terry Donahue and Dick Vermeil, former coach at UCLA and of the NFL Philadelphia Eagles.

Faust, 50, owns a 30-25-1 record at this season after consecutive deweeks.

Those two defeats made him the seghian. losingest coach in Irish history. Faust stepped into that pressure- The Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, college. I'll look at that, I think I'm
