Who was there

Collegian would like to thank all of the participants for attending and making the April 18, 1986, reunion weekend a successful kickoff of the 100th year of student publications at Penn State.

You should remind any Collegianers you know about the 100th anniversary plans and send us names or names and addresses of people you think would be interested in receiving information.

Several Collegianers sent regrets that they could not attend the kickoff reunion they wrote to say they wanted to acknowledge their support for the anniversary celebration.

We heard from:

• Margory Cohen, c/o Adrian Studios, Pier 46B, San Francisco, Calif., writer, 1966-70 and feature editor, 1969-70.

• Norma Molinari, 505 Williams St., Duquesne, Pa.

• Katherine Holbrush Ramsey, 3100 Shore Drive, Virginia Beach, Va., reporter, women's editor, 1927-28.

• John Troan (Troanovitch), 1500 Cochran Road No. 504, Pittsburgh, editor, 1939.

• Lynne Malmel, 39 Pine Drive, Park Ridge, N.J., first graphics editor, 1977.

• Mary S. Henderson, 5155 Trumbull Court, Dunwoody, Ga., society-feature writer, 1951-52.

• William P. McDowell, 299 Harbour Drive, Apt. 104, Naples, Fla., 1936.

• James Souter, 2647 Bellows Drive, Wilmington, Del., advertising manager, 1969.

• Dick Smyser, 104 Osage Road, Oak Ridge, Tenn., managing editor, 1942-43.

• Dick Fisher, assistant copy editor, 1956-62.

• Anita M. McKelvey, 2109 Spruce St., 3R, Philadelphia, technical reporter, office manager, 1979.

William P. McDowell wrote, "We had a semi-weekly when I was there and my main job my senior year was to write a column, The Campuseer, once a week. I was listed as news editor.

"The other column, Old Mania, was written by the late Don Sanders, who wound up working for many years for The Associated Press in Washington, D.C. His widow, Jo, lives in Fort Myers, Fla.

"I was in journalism for 22 years, mostly with the Herald of Sharon, Pa. Then came public relations for Columbia Gas in Pittsburgh for 14 years. I taught journalism at two colleges in Pittsburgh before moving to Florida seven years ago.

"Collegian people I've been in contact with in recent years include Obie Oberholtzer, Harry Henderson, Vance Packard and Fran Turner Shaffer, all of the class of 1936; Phil Heisler of 1937 and Jim Beattie and John Brutzman, both of 1935."

David R. Jones, national editor at The New York Times, wrote, "As you may know, I was Collegian editor in 1954. But you may not be aware that my wife — the former Mary Lee Lauffer — was a 1955 journalism graduate who was managing editor of the Collegian that year.

"So our involvement with Collegian has been deep, and we truly wish we could be there. Perhaps you can extend our regrets to our fellow Collegian staffers."

Following is a list of Collegian alumni and friends who registered for and attended some or all of the activities during Collegian's reunion weekend.
