

Students hoping to bounce the ball at the Pollock tennis courts will find faculty cars hogging half the space. The administration originally planned last spring to convert all the courts into faculty parking, but after meeting with student leaders they agreed to change only half the courts while reconditioning the others for student recreation.

religion mix? SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY: IMPACT ON PERSONAL FAITH

Was the world created in 7 days?

What do blackholes really mean? Do science and Everybody knows that modern science and technology drive out religious faith — or do they? Penn State faculty speak about their beliefs within our high tech society. Help for distinguishing what endures from what needs to be changed in a contemporary religious worldview
