

British youth worker wins gold in 100-meter dash

By ENRICO JACOMINI AP Sports Writer

STUTTGART, West Germany — Linford Christie, a 26-year-old youth worker from Jamaica, won the men's 100-meter dash yesterday, giving Britain its first gold medal in the European Track and Field Championships.

Christie overcame a slow start in scoring an impressive victory in 10.15 seconds. Steffen Bringmann of East Germany was second in 10.20 and Bruno Marie-Rose of France third in 10.21.

East Germany's Marlies Gohr won the women's 100-meter title in 10.91, for the first of two East German golds on the day.

Gohr matched the fastest time of the year which Evelyn Asford of the United States and East German Heike Drechsler had set at Moscow in July.

Anelia Nuneva of Bulgaria was a surprising second, although I am obviously pleased with Nelli Cooman of The Netherlands third in 11.08.

Drechsler, the world record holder in the women's 100-meter, gave the East Germans their second gold, leaping 23.1, 10.4 inches. Drechsler is expected to win three golds during the championships, adding the 200 and women's 400-meter relay to the long jump.

Galina Chistyakova of the Soviet Union was second at 22.34, and Helga Radtke of East Germany third at 22.74.

Chris Speier's run-scoring ground-er in the seventh accounted for the only Chicago run.

Cardinals 2, Braves 1
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Rick Mahler walked Terry Pendleton with the bases loaded in the eighth inning yesterday to force in the run that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Vince Coleman singled to lead off and took second on a wild pitch. Mahler, 11-14, who has lost nine of 10 decisions since June 30, intentionally walked Willie McGee. Tom Herr grounded out and Andy Van Slyke was intentionally walked to load the bases. Mahler walked Pendleton on a 3-2 pitch.

Todd Worrel, 8-9, got the final seven outs in relief of John Tudor, who left with a stiff left shoulder. Tudor allowed eight hits, walked four and struck out four.

St. Louis took a 1-0 lead in the first after McGee, who was activated from the disabled list earlier in the day, doubled with one out. After Herr walked, Van Slyke singled to score McGee.

Tudor picked runners off first in both the first and second and used a double play to ease past Bruce Benedict's leadoff double and Mahler's one-out single followed by a walk in the Atlanta fifth.

Dale Murphy started the Atlanta sixth with a leadoff triple to center field, and scored on a double by Bob Horner.

White Sox 3, Royals 1
CHICAGO (AP) — Ron Karkovice, playing in only his ninth game in the majors, hit a three-run home run to power Floyd Banister and the Chicago White Sox to a 3-1 victory last night over the Kansas City Royals. Banister, 6-10, allowed six hits in working his fourth complete game and helping the White Sox snap a five-game losing streak. Banister struck out five. Danny Jackson, 9-9, was the loser.

Philadelphia's Jeff Stone (4) crosses home plate to score the game-winning run in the Phillies' 2-1 victory over the Dodgers yesterday in Los Angeles. Stone was shaken up on the play but left the field a short time later under his own power.

Russ Morman and Ozkie Guillen singled to start the second inning and, with two out, Karkovice homered into the left field stands.

The Royals scored their run in the fourth on consecutive singles by George Brett, Hal McRae and Frank White.

Driesell earns support amidst criticism

By GORDON BEARD AP Sports Writer

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Athletic Director Dick Dull maintained his support of Lefty Driesell yesterday after the Maryland coach escaped a possible criminal indictment by a grand jury investigating the drug-related death of basketball star Len Bias.

"He's still our coach, and rightly so," Dull said. "I haven't wavered in my support of him throughout his experience. I never thought Lefty engaged in criminal conduct, and I think that was evident to the grand jury."

"We've had the criminal cloud over Lefty's head removed." Although the jury decided Tuesday not to return obstruction of justice charges against Driesell and two others for suggesting that Bias' dormitory room be cleaned after he collapsed, prosecutor Arthur Marshall was sharply critical of the verdict.

Marshall contended that Driesell knew drugs were involved within an hour of Bias' seizure June 19 but failed to tell police, look no action despite having knowledge that one or more players had a drug problem, and that the coaching staff was aware players were trying to circumvent drug tests.

While noting university officials had indicated a willingness to make substantial changes in the basketball program, Marshall suggested Driesell might not be long in such a program.

"The question is," he said, "whether you want to keep a coach who has been hired solely to win basketball games — hired at a very high price."

The prosecutor also contended that players were being "used" by Driesell and the university, with the emphasis on winning and moneymaking rather than education.

"It is an administrative matter, and beyond the scope of Mr. Marshall," Dull said, contending the investigation centered on only a small segment of Driesell's 17 years at Maryland.

Driesell, released at his summer home in Delaware, said: "I'm not interested in what he (Marshall) thinks. I don't have any comment."

A report from the grand jury on its findings, and two others from task forces appointed by university Chancellor John Slaughter, after Bias died of cocaine intoxication, may hold the key to Driesell's future at Maryland.

Slaughter, who has been noncommittal about Driesell's job performance, continued that stance in the wake of the grand jury decision. Asked if he would give Driesell a vote of confidence, Slaughter said: "No. I've got to wait (to receive) the report from the grand jury."

Dull pointed to the task force reports which will be made to the chancellor, adding: "We'll comply with whatever direction he chooses to take us."

Driesell, sports agent Lee Fenness, and Robert Wagner, Bias' former high school coach, all waived immunity granted to persons who testify before a grand jury investigating drug crimes. Marshall said they knew there could have been drugs in the room, he agreed with the grand jury's decision.

The prosecutor said the jury apparently concluded that the room had been cleaned before the advice was given "more out of a concern for the young men in question, rather than trying to obstruct justice."

Dick Dull

"It was stupid advice... wrong advice," Marshall said, "and should not have been given, but there were no corrupt motives involved."

Marshall said no indictments would be returned following the investigation of general conditions on the Maryland campus.
