

Defending Open champ eliminated by Turnbull

By BOB GREENE

NEW YORK — Veteran Wendy Turnbull of Australia pulled off one of the biggest shocks of the U.S. Open Tennis Championships last night, upsetting defending women's champion Hana Mandlikova 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

The victory sent the 33-year-old Turnbull, the oldest player left in the singles competition, into a quarterfinal match against seventh-seeded Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia.

"I guess when you're over 30 people start writing you off," Turnbull, who is playing in her 10th U.S. Open, said. "In 1977, she was runner-up to Chris Evert Lloyd and has been a semifinalist twice, the last time two years ago.

Earlier in the day, the two top seeds, Ivan Lendl and Martina Navratilova, were rolled into quarterfinals with straight-set victories.

Lendl, defending the title he won last year, moved into high gear in the second set as he eliminated 15th-seeded Brad Gilbert 7-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Second-seed Martina Navratilova's singles crown in four years, Navratilova crushed Argentina's Gabriela Sabatini, the No. 11 seed, 6-4, 6-2.

In other men's matches yesterday, No. 4 Stefan Edberg of Sweden gained a quarterfinal berth by stopping Dan Goldie 5-7, 6-2, 6-2, while Jimmy Connors eliminated Andrej Panjavec of the Soviet Union 6-0, 6-2, 6-3.

In the women's singles, No. 3 Pam Shriver, Navratilova's doubles partner, also won in straight sets, downing No. 15 Barbara Jordan 6-4, 6-4. The victory puts the close friends against each other in the today's quarterfinals.

All of the other women's winners, including Lloyd, a six-time winner of America's premier tennis event who is seeded second this year, had to go three sets to past victories.

Lloyd ousted No. 14 Catarina Lindqvist of Sweden 6-2, 6-2, 6-2, No. 9

Top-seeded Martina Navratilova serves to Gabriela Sabatini during their match yesterday afternoon at the National Tennis Center in New York. Navratilova defeated the Argentine 6-4, 6-2 to advance to the quarterfinals.

Pair of newcomers surprise Open field

NEW YORK — Todd Witsken and Gary Donnelly, two former collegiate players, are leading the latest American invasion at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

After the men's singles field was pared to 16 players, seven Americans remained, although the two biggest names — John McEnroe and Jimmy Connors — were sitting on the sidelines.

But Witsken and Donnelly, both making their first appearance in the 128-player tourney, surprisingly still were in the hunt for the title in this year's final Grand Slam tournament on the hard courts of the National Tennis Center.

"I really can't explain it," Donnelly said when asked how he had upset 13th-seeded Anders Jarryd of Sweden in the third round.

"I think after the first set he got better mentally," Lendl said of Gilbert. "He felt he has to win now three out of four (sets), and he knows I'm going to run forever."

"I'm hitting the ball solid. I feel good physically. I feel strong. I feel quick and I feel I'm not going to tire out," Lendl said.

Navratilova reeled off the first four games in her match with Sabatini. After the Argentine teen-ager took the serve and put the set back on serve. But Lendl, ranked No. 1 in the world, closed out the first set by breaking Gilbert in the 12th game at 30.

After that, it was all Lendl. He broke Gilbert's service twice in

Murray, Orioles snap Angels' win streak at 7

By The Associated Press

ANAHEIM, Calif. — Eddie Murray hit a three-run homer to cap a five-run third inning yesterday, leading the Baltimore Orioles to a 9-3 victory over California and ending the Angels seven-game winning streak.

Scott McGregor, 9-11, allowed 11 hits and raised his lifetime record against California to 19-7. Don Asch pitched the final inning.

Mike Witt, who started the game with an American League-leading 2.52 earned run average, allowed seven of Baltimore's runs in 6 2/3 innings and suffered his first loss since July 12. Witt, who also had a seven-game winning streak end, fell to 16-8.

Juan Benitez began the third with a walk before John Sherry doubled the ball for an error allowing Benitez to score and Shelby to go to third. After Fred Lynn walked, Cal Ripken singled for a 2-0 lead and Murray followed with his 14th homer.

Lynn's solo homer, his 22nd, made it 6-0 in the fifth.

and getting Ruben Sierra to hit into a double play.

The Red Sox then thiked the score to 6-2 with two runs in their half of the seventh. Crawford gave up consecutive two-out, pinch homers in the ninth to Oldie McDowell, No. 17, and Darrell Porter, No. 18.

After having runners thrown out at the plate in each of the first two innings, the Red Sox scored three runs in an inning, a four-run eighth starter Edwin Correa, 8-12, to go in front for good in the third.

The Red Sox made it 4-2 in the fifth on a fielding error by Correa, a single by Rice and Baylor's fielder's choice grounder.

Blue Jays 5, Indians 4

TORONTO — Lloyd Moseby hit a bases-loaded single through a five-man infield in the ninth inning yesterday, securing Willie Upshaw's lead in the Toronto Blue Jays to their ninth consecutive victory, a 5-4 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

Ernie Whitt led off the second with a pinch single off Ernie Camacho, 2-3. Upshaw then sacrificed to Camacho, who threw the ball past first for an error. Moseby led off the third and Upshaw to second.

Pinch hitter Rick Leach was intentionally walked and, after Tony Fernandez scored, pinch runner Ron Shephard at home, Moseby jumped to left to score Upshaw.

"Toronto's Tom Henke, 9-3, pitched 2 1/2 innings of hitless relief with five strikeouts after starter Jimmy Key allowed nine hits through 6 2/3 innings.

Key's home run took turns hitting two batters in the first seven innings. Cliff Johnson started with his 15th homer off Greg Swindell in the first.

Ryan Castillo tied it in the second with his seventh homer and Cory Snyder gave the Indians a 4-2 lead in the fifth with his 18th.

Red Sox 6, Rangers 4

BOSTON — Tony Armas hit a three-run double and Jim Rice added a solo home run last night as the Boston Red Sox rallied for their third consecutive victory, a 6-4 decision over the Texas Rangers.

Left-hander Bruce Hurst, 9-7, who struck out nine, allowed five hits in the first three innings before settling down. Hurst yielded only two more hits before needing relief help from Steve Crawford after he gave up a double to Steve Buechele and a walk to Tony Harrah in the seventh inning.

Crawford making his first appearance since being disabled with a sore shoulder on July 18, ended the hit streak by retiring Scott Fletcher on foul pop and getting Ruben Sierra to hit into a double play.

The Red Sox then thiked the score to 6-2 with two runs in their half of the seventh. Crawford gave up consecutive two-out, pinch homers in the ninth to Oldie McDowell, No. 17, and Darrell Porter, No. 18.

After having runners thrown out at the plate in each of the first two innings, the Red Sox scored three runs in an inning, a four-run eighth starter Edwin Correa, 8-12, to go in front for good in the third.

The Red Sox made it 4-2 in the fifth on a fielding error by Correa, a single by Rice and Baylor's fielder's choice grounder.

Blue Jays' slugger Cliff Johnson congratulates Willie Upshaw after he scored the winning run in yesterday's game vs. Cleveland in Toronto. Upshaw scored on Lloyd Moseby's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the ninth to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 victory.

PHILADELPHIA — Von Hayes tied the game with a homer in the fifth inning, then hit a blooper RBI double in the eighth, giving Philadelphia a 5-4 victory over the San Diego Padres last night. The Phillies' pinch hitter, Howard Johnson drove in two more insurance with a bases loaded single to right.

After Danny Heep walked intentionally, Howard Johnson drove in two more insurance with a bases loaded single to right.

Wally Backman opened the eighth with a walk, took second on an infield out and after Gary Carter drew an intentional walk, Wilson singled to left for his fifth-game winning hit.

It was the fourth consecutive defeat for the Giants and the 11th in their last 15.

Mets starter Sid Fernandez struck out a career and National League season-high 14 in seven innings while allowing two runs on four hits and four walks. He struck out the side in the second, third, fifth and sixth innings.

Powers, 5-6, retired the first 17 batters en route to his first victory as a starter since May 2, 1983, when he beat Philadelphia with a complete game. The right-hander was making his third start since being moved into the Reds' injury-depleted rotation.

He lost his perfect game when Distafano, pinch-hitting for starter Mike Bielecki, hit a 1-1 pitch into the second deck in right field for his first homer of the season.

Powers struck out four and didn't give up a walk, facing just 19 batters before being removed for a pinch-hitter. He had made 229 consecutive relief appearances before being put in the starting rotation.

The Reds broke up a scoreless tie in the fifth when Power singled off Bielecki, 6-0, and scored on a fly ball by Kal Daniels that center fielder Barry Bonds misplayed into a triple. Buddy Bell singled to score Daniels.
