

Go Lions — Beat the Owls

the daily Collegian 25¢

Friday, Sept. 5, 1986
Vol. 87, No. 38 28 pages University Park, Pa. 16802
Published by students of The Pennsylvania State University ©1986 Collegian Inc.

John Shaffer fires a pass over the outstretched arms of Maryland's Sean Scott in last season's opening game. Shaffer has been given the nod to start when the Lions take on the Owls of Temple in this season's opener tomorrow night. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. in Beaver Stadium.

Season opener Shaffer to start against Temple

By MARK ASHENFELTER
Collegian Sports Writer

John Shaffer will open at quarterback for the football team when it faces Temple in the season opener tomorrow night at Beaver Stadium.

Head Coach Joe Paterno's announcement early yesterday ended months of speculation whether Shaffer would retain the spot or lose it to Matt Knizner.

But Paterno indicated that Knizner will see his share of playing time in the contest and that the starter could change again before the team faces Boston College Sept. 20.

"Both Shaffer and Knizner can do the job and do it well," Paterno said. "Knizner will play a lot."

Shaffer completed 103 of 228 passes for 1,366 yards last season as the team compiled an 11-0 record in the regular season. He threw for eight touchdowns, but was intercepted 10 times.

Knizner, who saw limited duty
Please see SHAFER, Page 14.

Activities highlight 100-year kickoff

By GORDON ZEÄNICH
Collegian Staff Writer

It will be more than just a football game when the 1986 Nittany Lions take on the Temple Owls in its 100th season tomorrow night.

Besides the game being the first night game played in Beaver Stadium's history, Lion fans can attend a number of pre-game activities before the 7 p.m. kickoff.

Head Football Coach Joe Paterno said the events commemorating a centennial of Penn State football should be a memorable experience for anyone who was ever involved with the Penn State football program.

"We'd like to have some fun. We want to make it something different. We want to make it a fun night. We scrimmaged under the lights last Friday night and it was kind of fun," said Paterno.

The program of special events will get underway at 1 p.m. with a free concert on Jeffrey Field featuring the music of the Tarnished
Please see ACTIVITIES, Page 14.

Police expecting increased traffic

By JAMES A. STEWART
Collegian Staff Writer

University police expect increased traffic problems tomorrow because of the first night football game against Temple University, but they say crowd control problems should be about normal.

Lt. Jack Orndorf of the State College Bureau of Police Services said borough police expect no serious problems other than those normally associated with game days.

"The only additional problem is having people come in early," Orndorf said. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

"There will be more people in town all day," he said. The additional time visitors spend shopping and sightseeing downtown will increase traffic throughout the day.

As with all home football games, University Drive and Park Avenue will be restricted to one-way traffic patterns before and after Please see POLICE, Page 14.

Gunmen seize jet in Pakistan

By IQBAL JAFFERY
Associated Press Writer

KARACHI, Pakistan — Four uniformed men stormed a Pan Am jumbo jet filled with nearly 400 people at Karachi airport early this morning and wounded an airport employee with machine gun fire, officials said.

Heavily armed Pakistani soldiers and commandos surrounded the plane and cordoned off the area of the tarmac where the Boeing 747 parked after arriving from Bombay, India. The plane's three-man cockpit crew managed to escape.

Pakistani army generals and top civilian officials were directing the security operation from the airport control tower.

The attackers, who demanded to be flown to Cyprus, fired machine gun bursts into the air when seizing the plane. They later opened fire at airport personnel and wounded a worker of Pakistan's Civil Aviation Administration who was near the plane, officials said.

Aviation sources said Pan American World Airways Flight 73 was en route from Bombay to Karachi; Frankfurt, West Germany; and New York. Pan Am officials in Karachi and the U.S. Consulate estimated about 380 passengers on board the plane.

Airline spokeswoman Pamela Hanlon had said earlier in New York that about 280 passengers were on board with 13 flight attendants.

Hanlon in New York said Americans were aboard, but she did not know how many. The flight was scheduled to arrive at Kennedy International Airport at 3:25 p.m. EDT today, according to the airline.

'The president has been informed and is being kept updated . . .'

—A White House spokesman

Hanlon said that about 5 a.m. today (9 p.m. EDT yesterday) four armed individuals, dressed as security guards, boarded the airplane and demanded they be flown to Cyprus.

The plane had landed to take on more passengers. It was not immediately known whether any new passengers had boarded the plane before it was seized.

The attackers told the cockpit crew, who had left the plane, to get back on board and prepare for take off, she said.

The men, wearing blue uniforms, drove out to the parked jet shortly after it landed, airport sources told the Associated Press. The men fired several shots into the air and then rushed up the stairs into the plane, said the sources.

One airport source, who like the others demanded anonymity, said the plane's crew managed to flee the aircraft after hearing the shots, but none of the passengers were able to get off.

U.S. Consulate officials said they were in touch with the U.S. State Department in Washington, but could give no other details. In Washington, State Department spokeswoman Deborah Cavin said she had no information on the situation.

Security forces at the airport went on immediate alert and personnel armed with machine guns and rifles quickly sealed off the area of the tarmac where the plane was parked for refueling.

Officials at the airport refused to say if they were in contact with the men in control of the plane, nor would they say if they had any idea who the men were or why they had seized the jet.

"We are aware of the reports and are monitoring the situation," said Peter Rousel, a White House spokesman in California with the vacationing President Reagan. "The president has been informed and is being kept updated on it by John Poindexter," the White House national security adviser.

friday

fyi

Cars parked in Lot 44 next to Beaver Stadium must be moved before 6 tonight in preparation for the football game or they will be ticketed and towed. Students can resume parking when normal traffic returns.

inside

Penn State may join efforts with the state legislature in order to form a new law school in Harrisburg. President Jordan testified to a state House committee about the law school on Tuesday. Page 24

index

arts.....23
opinion.....12
sports.....15
state/nation/world.....4

weather

This afternoon will finally see breaks in the clouds. High of 74. Tonight clearing is expected. By morning it will be cool as the temperature drops to 51 degrees. Tomorrow morning sunshine gives way to increasing clouds, high 71.

Game Forecast: It will be jacket weather with temperatures in the upper 60s at kickoff. Temperatures will fall, however, throughout the game to the low 60s by the time the Lions beats Temple. Heidi Sonen