Pitching duel

NEW YORK — It was billed as a battle between two of baseball's best pitchers - Dwight Gooden of the New York Mets and Roger Clemens of the Boston Red Sox, hooking up in last Neither right-hander was on his by the time the game reached the Gooden, last year's National League Cy Young award winner, allowed eight hits and six runs in the five innings he worked, striking out

Clemens, 24-4 in the regular season but starting on three days' rest for the third straight time, was knocked out striking out three. He threw 81 pitch-was his second-shortest stint of the

The only time he came out earlier season, when he was struck on the right elbow by a line drive in the

"It's the third time I've worked on three days' rest and it kind of caught up with me a little," Clemens said.

pitches, 32 for balls 59 for strikes.

never was

By HAL BOCK

AP Sports Writer

Collegian Sports Writer

competition in Saturday's Homecom- yard touchdown plunge by fullback ing game vs. Syracuse, Penn State Steve Smith and better the Lions' old solation in the color of the 42-3 con- two yards. The old record was set by quarter for a friendly reminder: age of 44-yards per carry. Don't throw fruit on the field. (Rumor All totaled, Penn State finished the Valley stratosphere with strange the offensive line. PSU, pue "PAJOE, avil sabassam remarkably like the theme from The off the ball well. .

Top that off with a host of awkward outstanding game. I think you ought you may begin to get the picture.

• The No. 6 Lions returned to offense, while registering six sacks their three-part scoring strategy to and forcing four turnovers. take a seven-point lead just 2:25 into Orange quarterback Don McPhersion was a first-rate rushing perfor- Shane Conlan losing 44 yards in the winning touchdown with 57:35 re- combination in there. maining when fullback Tim Manoa "I don't know whether we handled bulled his way into the end zone from McPherson or not. It looked to me

11 yards out. The 39-yard scoring like we made some big plays but he lay from the line of scrimmar Blair Thomas stole the limelight late ing an intercepted McPherson pitch Shane Conlan (31) recorded one of six Lion sacks during Saturday's game at Beaver Stadium, Penn State held McPherson

Aside from the obvious lack of a sweep to the right to set up a onealumni can, at least, take some con- mark for long distance running by Bill Suter against Navy in 1894.

Thomas later carried the ball 38 • Team records fell like marsh- yards for a touchdown juking even mallows onto the field. (Nearly ev- the marshmallows in the end zone to ervone agreed, however, that records give Penn State a 35-3 lead. The two and marshmallows weren't nearly as big runs coupled with a two-yard rush bad as the tomato which prompted on his first carry of the ballgame officials to call time out in the second gave the sophomore a one-day averhas it the NCAA's official biologist day with 434 yards on the ground including Thomas's 132, Manoa's 96, Members of the Lions' six-week D.J. Dozier's 84 and 47 by third-string old sign club tried — albeit unsuc- safety turned runner Odell Wilson. cessfully — for nearly two quarters to Much of that success could be attribsignal alien spacecraft in the Happy uted to the strong play of the Lions on

"I thought they did an awfully good job most of the time," Head Coach • Penn State fans participated in Joe Paterno said after the game. Beaver Stadium's very first slow-mo- "They still had some spots where they were a little bit erratic, jumping • And the Blue Band unveiled a offsides, (picking up) penalties and brand new fight song which sounded what have you but overall they came passes, pitches, punts and runs and to start with the defense, not with the offense.' Still, even with that list of oddities, The play of the Penn State defense the Penn State team remained true to was, indeed, impressive as the Lions held Syracuse to 248 yards in total

I thought our defense played an son spent much of the day scrambling • The key to their offensive explo- from linebackers Don Graham and process and his leading receiver Scott • And an air-tight defense pro- Schwedes was confined to 13 yards on vided the spark which started the three catches. "We were very concerned about The three-part scoring strategy - Schwedes," Paterno said. "We put kick off, gain possession deep in ene- people around him as best we could my territory and zero in on the end without giving up too much in the way zone — gave the Lions the game- of the option game. But that's a tough drive was sparked by a Duffy Cobbs' had to throw with a lot of pressure on interception on the Orangemen's first him and I thought we mixed up our Manoa finished the day with 96 Cobbs was responsible for two of yards rushing, but his counterpart the Orangemen's four turnovers add- Syracuse quarterback Don McPherson (9) didn't throw in the towel, but he tossed the ball aside after Don Graham (53) and

N MATT HERB Collegian Sports Writer

Enough already, Just when you hought the sideshow was getting more interesting than the main attraction, the football team plays a game that should have come with a No-Doz warning label: Do not drive or operate heavy machinery while viewing So let's hear it for the sideshov

In the past two weeks the Lions spawned a minor controversy with their, shall we say, untaxing schedule. In a telephone pres conference with Head Coach Joe Paterno, one sportswriter complained that it consisted of "turkeys." Frank Purdue was not amused with the comparison.

The Lions helped provoke vicious marshmallow blitzkrieg in the freshman section of the grandstands by urging students not to participate in just that Better they should have urged them not to take a flying leap from the top edge of Beaver Stadium if the team really wanted to put an end to it.

Penn State has been visited by the Yankee Clipper, Joe DiMag gio, who made a special gues appearance before the East Carolina game. And by the Centre County Clipper, Bill Clinger, who took his congressional re-election campaign to the skies above Beaver Stadium with airplane-bar ner advertisements.

In between, the Lions have olayed some football, but you'd nardly notice since most witnesses have bolted back to their tailgates by the end of the first alf anymore, by which time the Lions have usually taken a commanding lead.

For four weeks the Lions have aved second fiddle to what a usually the game's diversions as Please see TIDE, Page 11

Red Sox blast Mets for two-game lead

AP Baseball Writer

NEW YORK - The Boston Red Sox were big hits in New York and under-

With 18 base hits, two short of the record, the Red Sox completed a stunning sweep of the first two games of the World Series at Shea Stadium last night, beating the heavily favored Mets 9-3.

Home runs by Dwight Evans and Dave Henderson helped spoil the anticipated duel between 24-game winner Roger Clemens of Boston and 1985 Cy Young winner Dwight Gooden of New York and sent the Red Sox home with a lead that no one expected. "People are going to find out that we're a pretty good ballclub," said

Manager John McNamara, whose Red Sox battled to win the American League East, then came back from a three games to one deficit to win the playoffs against California. The Red Sox will go with righthander Oil Can Boyd, 16-10, in Game 3 of the best-of-seven-game Series tomorrow night against former Red Sox pitcher, Bob Ojeda, 18-5, a left-

City Royals of 1985, has rallied from two losses at home to win a World "They still have to beat us two more times," Mets Manager Davey Johnson said. "My club has played well in long streaks before, and I hope hander. Only one team, the Kansas we start one at Fenway." Neither Clemens nor Gooden lasted past the fifth inning while the hitters took over. The record for hits in a World Series is 20 by the 1921 New York Giants and the 1946 St. Louis

The image of underdog is one the Red Sox almost hate to lose. "I love to see an underdog win. We up three runs on five hits in his third shortest of the season for Clemens, many as five earned runs in a game lead off the Red Sox fifth. Evans

Game 5 playoff victory with a ninthplayoffs, were held to four hits in John Stefero of Baltimore. He was Spike Owen walked to start the Red bleachers, giving the Red Sox a 6-2 inning homer, hit a solo homer in the losing the first game 1-0, and Man-ejected from a game on July 30 at Sox third. Clemens bunted the first lead. fourth inning off Gooden, and Evans ager Johnson benched regulars Ray. Chicago after 4 2-3 innings. Clemens, pitch in front of the plate, and it was hit a two-run shot in Gooden's last Knight and Mookie Wilson in favor of who set a major-league record by fielded by Hernandez. Owen had bro-bottom half of the inning. With one inning, the fifth, as the Red Sox took a Howard Johnson and Danny Heep to striking out 20 batters in a game on ken back to first on the pitch, but out, Wally Backman walked on a 3-2 them, but they haven't told me yet," 6-2 lead. The Red Sox scored two try to get more offense. Johnson and April 29 against Seattle, struck out Hernandez rushed his throw to sec-pitch, and Hernandez followed with a he said. more runs in the seventh on five Heep went a combined 0-for-6. consecutive singles off Rick Aguilera The Red Sox scored three of their Boggs made several fine defensive play. to put the game away. Wade Boggs' runs in the third off Gooden, aided by plays at third base and Evans made a The throw was in the dirt in front of man to third. That was all for set by the New York Giants in 1921 score in the fourth when Gooden hit final 4 2-3 innings. and St. Louis Cardinals in 1946.

Umpire Jim Evans instructs Mets pitcher Dwight Gooden to remove a bandage from his left hand during Game 2 of the World Series last night. Gooden had his share of problems as the Red Sox were victorious, 9-3.

nings only twice this season, was fifth. straight outing on three-days rest. except for a 12-3 inning stint on Oct. 1 since Aug. 6 against the Chicago Cubs followed with a line homer to left that Henderson, the hero of Boston's The Mets, who hit just .189 in the when he was hit by a line drive by in a game that he won 7-6.

terback, carried the ball 67 times for a whopping 434 to play the whole game, but there's good running

Leading the way were Blair Thomas and Tim Ma- himself as the leader and patriarch of the Penn State noa, both of whom let everyone know they were not lost running backs. Dozier ran for 84 yards and a touch-the ball only three times for 132 yards — an average of yards and needs 99 yards to move past Lydell Mitchell baseman Keith Hernandez, winner of Clemens avoid more trouble. for himself with two out and two on, Gooden, meanwhile, gave up five Clemens, who went to third on the in the sixth.

Clemens, who failed to go five in- then chased Clemens with a run in the earned runs on eight hits before he Manager Johnson elected to let Good-"I love an underdog," Evans said. knocked out in the fifth after giving The 4 1-3-inning outing was the sixth. Gooden had not given up as then allowed a single by Jim Rice to three and walked four.

Boston's 18 hits were two hits shy of eight straight Gold Gloves. The Mets Relievers Steve Crawford and Bob runners were safe, and Boggs lined a Backman for the Mets' third run. the World Series single-game record scored twice in the third, failed to Stanley shut out the Mets over the double inside the left-field line to gled into right field, and Boggs scored the third run when Bill Buckner grounded a single between first and second — a ball that Hernandez normally handles.

The Mets scored their first runs of the Series in the bottom half of the inning, cutting the Boston lead to 3-2. Santana led off with an infield single | night's second game of the World off the glove of Clemens and finally | Series. handled over the second-base bag by shortstop Owen. Owen, who had five | game in the Red Sox' 9-3 victory, and errors in the playoffs, couldn't get the ball out of his glove, however, and Santana beat a weak throw to first. Trying to bunt, Gooden popped the ball up toward first base. Buckner, playing on two bad ankles and knees, made a sluggish dive for the ball but came up short, and Gooden hustled down the line with a single, sending

Santana to second. Lenny Dykstra sacrificed the runners ahead. Santana scored on a | in the fifth inning after allowing five hits, three runs and four walks and single up the middle by Backman, and Gooden came home on an infield out by Hernandez. Hernandez hit the $\frac{1}{1}$ es -32 balls and 49 strikes - and it ball sharply off Clemens' right leg, season in 37 starts. and it caromed to Boggs, who made a good play to throw out the runner. Gary Carter grounded out to Boggs to | was in his last start of the regular

Henderson, whose two-strike homer with two out in the ninth inning of Game 5 helped the Red Sox turn the playoffs around, led off the fourth nning with a homer on a 1-0 pitch from Gooden to make the score 4-2. Evans hit the first pitch from Gooden for a two-run homer in the fifth, an

'Maybe I'm trying to get a little too much extra out of my body. "My legs were a little heavy and inning that Gooden perhaps shouldn't my ball was up. I had good enough stuff to get them out, but I had to pace even have pitched Gooden's spot in the batting order myself a little more.' Gooden said a couple of pitches cost him, particularly home run balls to and runners at first and second, but Dwight Evans and Dave Henderson. was relieved by Aguilera to start the en hit. Gooden grounded out to first, "Evans got a pitch down in the strike zone," Gooden said. "Hender

"I don't think I had the best fastball f my career. My location was off." landed on the awning over the picnic Gooden said he was disappointed in the outing, in which he gave up a "I hope I get another chance at Both pitchers worked hitless ball ond, apparently to try to get a double bouncing single off the glove of secfor two innings. Gooden seemed to get ond baseman Barrett that sent Backrattled in the third when Boston Man-RBI double in the ninth ended the a rare throwing error by Mets first diving catch in right field to help the bag, and shortstop Rafael Santa- Clemens, and Carter greeted Craw- ager John McNamara complained na was unable to handle it. Both ford with a single to left that scored and plate umpire Jim Evans ordered Gooden to remove a band-aid. "I could have left it on, but he said I Crawford, who got the victory, got can't rub the ball with the hand the out of the inning and blanked the Mets

Orangemen once again bury themselves with turnovers

Collegian Sports Writer

If you wanted the perfect example of a team throwing can't have turnovers," he said. "(We told them) if we had its gameplan out the window from the outset, an introducturnovers we're going to get beat and if we give them Syracuse almost defeated the football team last year "Call me a prophet, because we were embarrassed. but shot itself in the foot with a series of turnovers. So The football team was embarrassed, the coaching staff Dick MacPherson, the team's effervescent head coach, and most especially a proud tradition of Syracuse footspent the past two weeks preaching flawless execution to ball. It's a great program and a great school and we're watched in disbelief as the offense made a mockery of his the first damn play. sermons on the very first play from scrimmage. It was But the Orangemen regrouped after the inauspicious

Pete Giftopoulos who tipped the pass to teammate Duffy Penn State took the ball 72 yards in nine plays after a

Please see LIONS, page 11. to 156 yards in passing as the Lions moved on to a 42-3 victory.

enough turnovers they're going to embarrass you. embarrassed. If you can't play any better than that, Instead of collecting the dividends, however, he that's it. The turning point of the game started right on the first of many such mistakes and led to a 42-3 thrashing opening and played a steady defensive game until the final minutes of the half. The defense stopped the Lions Quarterback Don McPherson dropped back to pass and twice after McPherson fumbles in the first quarter, but it looked for Scott Schwedes, but instead found linebacker broke as the half expired.

Cobbs. Six plays after the interception the Lions had a 7-0 punt and made it 14-0 just four seconds before the Blue lead and MacPherson had the start of a migraine head- Band took the field. The score hurt, but MacPherson didn't think it was a killing blow at the time. Syracuse would turn the ball over three more times on "Anything that happens right before the half is a the afternoon, creating all sorts of problems. Besides tremendous uplift to one team and a downer for the stalling any momentum the offense was generating, it other," MacPherson said. "The nice thing was we had a forced the defense to spend more than half the game on chance to come in and regroup. I thought we'd be all the field. After the game a beleagured MacPherson right, now we're not all right because they go down and

Orangemen -

Syracuse finally got on the board 19 seconds into the any hopes Syracuse had of getting back in the game. the first down when faced with a fourth and seven. MacPherson made it clear the offense wasn't to blame for "I thought that was a very good call," he said "To at first half we did a damn good job against them." The highlight for the Orangemen in the second half was But McPherson, who was sacked six times, summed up a 71-yard quick kick by fullback Daryl Johnston. Mac- the mood of the Orangemen the best.

"I thought they did a great job of hanging in there and disappointed enough." with all the damn stuff that was going on around them." on the afternoon, said Penn State didn't do anything receiver Schwedes.

yards — an average of 6.7 yards per carry. The Lions backs.

scored all six of their touchdowns on the ground and Thomas, the sophomore from Philadelphia, carried 44 yards per carry — and a touchdown. He dazzled the Beaver Stadium crowd with a spectacular 92-yard run.

Thomas burst up the right sideline, juked a couple of Syracuse defenders and, thanks to a Ray Roundtree block, scampered to the goal line. Many thought

Thomas scored, but the officals marked the ball on the

"I think the opportunity just came for me," Thomas up field. We just happened to pick up the blocks. I was

The record-breaking run broke the old Penn State

Manoa, the senior from Pittsburgh by way of Tonga, his two touchdowns on Penn State's first possession, mistakes. I'm just having fun this year."

mark of 90 yards by Bill Suter against Navy in 1894.

adding that he was fortunate to get the call.

just thinking about getting in.'

same chance to make the play earlier in the game, offensive explosion.

fourth quarter, but Tim Vesling's 31-yard field goal only MacPherson was referring to the Penn State scoring made the score 28-3. MacPherson knew the outcome was drive that started the second half — and effectively broke decided by that time and didn't even consider going for least get some points on the board — because we'd been playing tough in the first half," he said. "(Especially) But the two unhappiest people in the Syracuse lockerroom had to be the duo that was supposed to win the game Outside linebacker Roger Remo, who had five tackles for the Orangemen - quarterback McPherson and ace

"My main goal, when I first came in was to help turn "They played power football, came right at us and the program around so much that we could compete with more or less said 'Stop us,' " Remo said. "I think in the Penn State and beat them," Schwedes said. "My main goal was to beat them and we just didn't do it."

Pherson said the surprise play established his club's field "I'm numb right now, I can't tell you what it does to our position for its next three possessions, but it still didn't spirit," he said. "It hurts right now and it's going to be hard to hounce back ' way, but it's frustrating. There's times when you want

"You try to give it all you got when you get in there."

And lest we forget Dozier, who has established down as he passed Matt Suhey for third place on the Penn State all-time rushing list. Dozier now has 2,836

"It's nice to get in there and run the ball so many times." Dozier said. "Whatever I can do to help the with slow motion waves and fast forward exits. That being the case, it is probably a relief that Alabama is next on the schedule.

"Two weeks ago, people began to ask about Alabama and say we're going to beat Alabama," saftey Ray Isom said, "and it got hard to focus on Alabama when we had don't want to get to the point where know why it should be a big probvou relax and let down and lose a lem for us. The Alabama team will get to practice for Alabama. This is what we're waiting for." Indeed, the Crimson Tide cornerback Duffy Cobbs said of the keeping it to itself. veighed at least as heavily on the jinx. "It's a tough place to play. Lions' minds as Syracuse after the That and West Virginia are probagame. Maybe even before the bly the two toughest places we have to play. I don't think we'll approach it any differently, national championship aspirations did so before halftime. All told of its own (at 1-4 going in, Syracuse Alabama overran Tennessee 56-28 didn't). The Lions will play a team in a game that rivaled the Lions' they have never beaten on its home 42-3 rout for producing the fewest thrills for your ticket-buying dol-Rarely at a loss for words, Paterno at least anticipated the ineviseparating the two teams at its table Tuscaloosa jinx question. The others are cause for worry. "You have to go down and play it (barely) beat Alabama on that the game," he said. "It's not any count. Especially since Crimson different than any place else. It will Tide fans could watch it for free on (teams) standing ahead of us. You be noisy, We've been there. I don't national television. And even then

And why not? For the first time this season,

Penn State fans had to pay, earnkey game. So now that it's here, we be a problem for us, but not where ing the University thousands of dollars in ticket revenue and the thanks of a grateful nation for "It's in the back of your mind," Next week should be a different team that's 6-0," Paterno said, record. "I'm comfortable, but Penn State will play a ranked team Like Penn State, the Crimson we've got to play a lot better than (Alabama is No. 2 right now). It Tide broke the 40-point barrier we did today because Alabama is will, for once, play a team that has Saturday. Unlike Penn State, they awfully tough.

to his first quarter interception. The Syracuse defense stymied the air.

wide left for 24 yards.

Dozier's touchdown came late in the first half as he leaped over Syracuse defenders for the score. "It was a sweep designed to cut inside off tackle," "I didn't know if he was going to run out of gas," Dozier explained. "I heard John Shaffer yell 'jump, Paterno said. "I thought he was in. He's got good jump.' I jumped and scored." Dozier credited the offensive line, which controlled Thomas said D.J. Dozier and David Clark had the the line of scrimmage throughout the game, for the

"The offensive line took off and took control of the game," Dozier said. "I think they should get most of said. "I saw running room to the outside and then went the credit. Others in the family saw action as well. There was Steve Smith, the beefy fullback who rambled for 34 yards and a touchdown, and Clark, the often-overlooked-yet-talented tailback who tallied 25 yards.

had his best game of his Penn State career as he rushed them sophomore Odell Wilson, the third-string safety. for 96 yards and two touchdowns. Manoa ripped Wilson rushed for 47 yards on only four carries, through the Syracuse defense, pounding defenders who including a 31-yard touchdown run late in the fourth crossed his path. The burly fullback scored the first of quarter Sean Redman contributed nine yards and Sean and his score early in the second half put the game out Barowski added two yards.

The children also saw playing time — chief among Indeed, the running backs have knitted into a family, "I think I needed this game to show that I can run, and the whole clan must get ready for their trip to not just block," Manoa said. "I'm more confident this Alabama next week. After Saturday's performance, year. I know what I'm doing and I'm not making they said they are ready for the Crimson Tide. "We just have to take it in stride and work this hard Although he was satisfied with his effort, Manoa was against Alabama," Thomas said. "It's a big game and a little disappointed that he did not reach the 100-yard everybody's going to be up for them."

"I think we feel pretty good," Dozier said. "We "I wanted to get in there a little bit more," he said. haven't seen films and we really don't know how "It's good (that we have a lot of running backs) in a Alabama is. After a week of practice, I'll tell you."

Penn State's offense in the early Shaffer attributed much of Penn going holding the Lions to just seven State's ineffectiveness through the Heller with 241 tackles. points for all but four seconds of the air to the play of the Orange defense. D.J. Dozier capped a nine-play, 72- the pass to a great extent and that yard drive by catapulting into the end opened up the run," Shaffer said. " zone from one-yard out to give Penn don't know if that's because we've State a 14-0 lead just moments before thrown the ball well in previous intermission. Massimo Manca split games or whatever but I think they the uprights on his point after at-definitely overplayed the pass." tempt to capture the team record for "We kind of hurt ourselves to the most consecutive extra points certain extent because we were throwing into their coverage, throw-The Lions continued to build mo- ing into their strength and it took us a mentum in the second half raising half to figure out what they were their lead to 21 points on a three-yard trying to do," he added. run by Manoa to open the third quar- 'Although Paterno agreed with ter. The 227-pound fullback had Shaffer's argument, he said the Lions moved Penn State into scoring posi- will need to improve their passing tion one play earlier when he ran game before they meet No. 2 Ala-Smith's one-yard touchdown run "We've got to throw the ball better increased the Lions' lead to 28-0 with than we did today to be really good," 1:47 remaining in the third quarter he said. "We just got completely out and Thomas's 38-yard rush followed of throwing the football but we're in the fourth giving Penn State a 35-3 working on it. "Obviously we're not going to run Wilson closed the scoring with a 31- the football against Alabama like vard touchdown run down the right that," he added. "We're going to have sideline with 3:21 remaining in the to have a much more balanced attack and that's got me concerned." The Orangemen's sole field goal LION NOTES: Former quarcame just :19 into the fourth quarter terback Richie Lucas was honored at as Tim Vesling split the uprights halftime as the 11th PennState player elected to the College Football Hall of The Lions' passing game proved to Fame. . . Dozier surpassed Matt Su-day as John Shaffer and Matt Knizner ons' all-time rushing list with 2,836 combined for just 88 yards through yards...Conlan moved into third olace on Penn State's career tacklel-

> Syracuse 0 0 0 3— 3 Penn State 7 7 14 14-42 PSU-Manoa 11 run (Manca kick) PSII-Manoa 3 run (Manca kick) PSU-Smith 1 run (Manca kick PSU-Thomas 38 run (Manca kick

Passing yards 11-38 8-40 Time of Possession

NDIVIDUAL STATISTICS herson 15-26, Gayden 12-21, Moseley 1-12 Drummond 1-1, Kmetz 1-0. Penn State, Thor s 3,132 Manna 12-96 Dozier 19-84 Wilson 17, Smith 10-32, Clark 7-25, Roundtree 1-1 edman 2-9, Barowski 2-2, Shaffer 7-(minus 4 PASSING-Syracuse, McPherson 12-23

8, Kmetz 6-10-1-68. Penn State, Shaffer 6-13 1-68. Knizner 1-3-0-20. Schwezes 3-13, Kelly 3-34, Johnston 3-12 Davis 2-22, Pennyfeather 1-12, Moseley 3-35 Nelson 1-18, Penn State, Dozier 1-10, Smith 2 19, Mrosko 2-21, Roundtree 1-18, Jákob 1-20