Mets talk of dynasty after victory | Red Sox looking

Ry JOHN NELSON AP Baseball Writer

NEW YORK — The champion New York Mets, confident and cocky through 108 regular season victories, the National League playoffs and the World Series, already are talking about doing it again next season. "We will get better," says Manager Davey Johnson, the man who vowed he would try to build a dynasty. "This Series taught us a lot. A lot of our guys will get better from it. Ron Darling.
