sports

Grapplers upend top-ranked lowa 27-15

By MARK S. McWHIRTER Collegian Sports Writer

have already deemed the biggest feat in the not douse. Jim dominated from the outset with on his opponent as he blanked Iowa's Bubba seconds left, Peoples held on to Heffernan's leg history of the program. Last night in front of well-polished maneuvers. After a takedown, Strauss 16-0. With 50 seconds left in the match, and drove until he scored a takedown to ice it. more than 7,500 screaming fans at Rec Hall, and four points for stalling, Penn State's Mar- Flynn had earned six points for the Lions with a Coming into the 167 class, Penn State was up the Lions dethroned the top-ranked Iowa Hawk- tin demonstrated his talents with a reversal technical fall. eyes by an astounding 27-15 margin. With the and three back points. victory. Penn State will undoubtedely assume With 26 seconds to go in the match, the score State's belt, the Lions had enough momentum win over a team that had lost but seven times in collegiate wrestling's No. 1 ranking. Hawkeye Head Coach Dan Gable had been Iowa's Martin for stalling. Jim said that he weight bouts. hinting at a possible upset in the weeks leading achieved his goal of breaking his opponent.

up to the dual meet, and his worst fears soon became reality. "I saw it coming as a coach," Gable said of because near the end, he just didn't try any- two escapes. the drubbing the Hawkeyes had just suffered. more." "And maybe it's a fault that I portrayed it too At 126, Ken Chertow wrestled to a 7-4 deci- strong in the end but fell two points shy of Erik Duus at 4:58 in the 177 pound class, much to my team.

how I felt," he continued. "However, I'm a finish. After being down 1-0 early in the second victory. pretty honest person and maybe that cost me period, Chertow scored a reversal and then a In what was perhaps the most exciting match some coaching psychology. The opening match at 118 between Penn John Regan.

was 14-0 and referee Jim Sterner disqualified to carry them through some critical middle- the last nine years.

sion. Although the final score was relatively knocking off Iowa's top-ranked Jim Heffernan. Mayo's refined skills on top enabled him to "I tried to tell them that that's not exactly close, Chertow was in control from start to Heffernan sealed three team points for his 10-8 strap Duus down for the fall. Mayo's victory takedown in the third period to finish Iowa's of the evening, Duane Peoples pulled off a last-State's Jim Martin and Iowa's Steve Martin lit After a disappointing loss in Mat Town last (Jim's brother) recorded an escape late in the The wrestling team pulled off what some a fire inside the Lions that the Hawkeyes could weekend, co-captain Tim Flynn turned it loose third period to tie it up at four apiece. With just With three matches and 15 points under Penn Lions needed only six more points to seal the > Joe Hadge dropped an 11-4 decision to Iowa's AWN at 158 in preseason, fell victim to Iowa's "I think I really did break him," Jim said. Greg Randall at 142. Hadge managed to stay on Royce Alger, 7-3, at 167. With but one skilled "He quit on me, there was no doubt about it his feet for most of the match as he recorded move by Alger, Elinsky was on his back.

At the 150 pairing, Glenn Koser came on Lions as junior Dan Mayo pinned Hawkeye second victory at 158. Iowa's John Heffernan 18-6 and all of Rec Hall sensed victory. The

All-American Greg Elinsky, top-ranked by The icing was swirled on the cake for the brought the score to 24-9. Please see related story, Page 11

Why is this quarterback smiling? Because college football's highest individual honor most likely won't be going to this man...

Paul Palmer of Temple. And it probably won't be to this man, Oklahoma's mohawkcoifed, rainbow-colored, human freeway pileup .

inebacker Brian Bosworth. Instead, if all goes as expected, the award will culminate two brilliant seasons and a lifelong dream for a kid from Long Island. If you were Vinny Testaverde, you'd be . . .

un into any interference in his quest for the the Heisman Troph

Dreaming Heisman Trophy dreams

By CHRIS LODER Collegian Sports Write

He is unlike others who have won the greatest award in college football because he was not blessed with God-given talents. Admittedly, he argues that he has had to work for everything he's received and it's no secret that he didn't start at quarterback until his senior year in high school. And he saw enough splinters in his first three seasons at the University of Miami to make a carpenter happy. But late Saturday afternoon, after years of disappointments, all the hard work and perseverance will pay off in enormous proportions for Vinny Testaverde. Unless he falls off another motor scooter, Testaverde will be at the Downtown Athletic Club in New York City to accept the Heisman Trophy. It would give Testaverde two of the nation's premier college football awards. On Tuesday, the Miami star won the Maxwell

If he does win Saturday, Testaverde will be only the third quarterback in 15 years to win the heralded prize. Auburn's Pat Sullivan won the trophy in 1971 while Doug Flutie of Boston College captured the honor two years ago. For Testaverde, it will be like a dream come true. "Winning the Heisman has always been a dream of mine," Testaverde said in a conference call true for him." rom Miami yesterday. "It's very

Testaverde's parents have been his most ardent supporters

One fan who will be attendance is a a college career filled with disap-Testaverde's father, Al. Much has pointments.

"My dad has been a great influ- He sat lonely on the bench for exciting for me and the people around me. It means a great deal." Testaverde finally appears to be enjoying the fruits of success after been publicized about their special The native of Elmont, N.Y., came father-son relationship. The son to the University of Miami with Simply put, Testaverde has had a said winning the Heisman would be high expectations, but in the begin- treme an early Christmas present for his ning, there was no place to play ence on me," he said. "I hope I can three years as Jim Kelly and Bernie make (winning the Heisman) come Kosar starred for the Hurricanes.

Cagers are looking for third road win at R.I. By MARK BRENNAN

Collegian Sports Writer It could be called a jinx, or a spell, or just plain old bad luck. But whatever it is that haunts the men's basketball team whenever the words Rhode and Island are put together, Head Owens, could pose problems. Coach Bruce Parkhill is hoping the Lions can shake it.

lantic 10 opener.

questioned whether or not he was ever going to play and contem-plated transferring.

But surprisingly, his friend Kosar opted for the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League and Testaverde saw a light shining brightly at the end of the long, dark

When he finally did get his shot last year, Testaverde proved to critics that he was perhaps even better than his predecessors. In his first year as a starter. Testaverde led the Hurricanes to a Sugar Bowl

A win would have given the Hurricanes an outside shot at a national championship, but Miami was blown out of the Superdome. The every angle and swamped the Hur-

Volunteers blitzed Testaverde at "That loss still lingers," he said.

dous season. He has completed 175 passes of 276 passes for touchdown passes this year.

2,557 yards yards and a whopping 26

His numbers are even better than

"I don't think that game will ever date with Tennessee ricanes 35-7.

On Feb. 3 in Rec Hall, the Lions fell to the Rams 78-77 in overtime. Things looked better when the Lions once again made the trip to bad luck struck, however, when two important. diehard Penn State fans were in a "They beat us twice last last year from the game. LaSalle and Miami of Florida in the things up a bit. AMI Classic have set the Lions off to their best start in Parkhill's four years at Penn State, he said the team won't be able to let up against the "I really think the Rhode Island game will be as tough as either of the Parkhill said. "It will be as big a intense game.

nce guard who averaged nearly 16 against Massachusetts at Rec Hall.

those of his predecessors, but unlike Kosar led Miami to the national Kosar, who was a dynamo in the In this his final year of eligibility, championship in 1983. Please see Heisman, Page 11 be out of my mind.' What the loss did do, however, was prepare Testaverde and the Hurricanes for this season, and the senior entered the 1986 campaign already touted as the Heisman Tro ohv winner So far, he hasn't let anyone down.

10 The Daily Collegian Thursday, Dec. 4, 1986

Match by match 118 - Jim Martin, Penn State by technical fal over Steve Martin, Iowa, 6:34. 126 — Ken Chertow, Penn State def. Joh Regan, Iowa, 7-4. 134 — Tim Flynn, Penn State by technical fall over Bubba Strauss, Iowa, 6:10. 142 - Greg Randall, Iowa def. Joe Hadge Penn State, 11-4. 150 - Jim Heffernan, Iowa def. Glen Koser, Penn State, 10-8. 158 - Duane Peoples, Penn State def. John Heffernan, Iowa, 6-4, 167 - Royce Alger, Iowa def. Greg Elinsky Penn State, 7-3. 177 - Dan Mayo, Penn State, pinned Erik Duus, Iowa, 4:52. 190 - Andy Volt. Penn State. def. Charlie Sherertz, Iowa, 7-6. Hwt - Brooks Simpson, Iowa won by injun default over John Place, Penn State, 1:01.

Penn State's Brian Allen (with ball), who was named MVP at the AMI Classic in Miami last weekend, will be looking to have another big game tonight as the men's basketball team plays Rhode Island in Kingston, R.I.

> points last season as a sophomore The Rams also depend on sophomore forward John Evans, an A-10 cofreshman of the year last year, and junior guard Tom Garrick. Parkhill said the Rams' depth along with the scoring ability of "They have everybody back." Parkhill said. "And they have Owens Penn State will have an opportunity who I think is one of the best guards to lose the stigma tonight in Kingston, R.I. when the 2-0 Lions take on Rhode period. He is as good as there is in terms of point guards. I also think Island University in both teams' At- their big people well be improved this

The Penn State-Rhode Island sto- Co-captian Carl Chrabascz said the rv is not a pretty one, at least for the Lions will be counting on a another Lions. In the first of three meetings solid defensive performance to stop last season, on Jan. 9, the Lions trav- Owens and the rest of the Rams. The eled to Rhode Island, but lost their Lions hit under 50 percent of their starting point guard to academic shots in both games of the AMI Clasdifficulties and leading scorer to a sic but still came away tournament finger injury all within 24 hours of tip- champions on the strength of good

"We've indicated we can win a staged three furious comebacks, but game just by playing defense," Chrabascz said, "I think that will give us a positive outlook.'

Chrabascz added that the close Kingston on Feb. 25 to face the Rhode games last year will give the Lions a Island in an A-10 playoff game. little bit of an added incentive, but he Things looked good as the Lions beat said getting another road win before the Rams 50-47 for Penn State's first the home opener Sunday against ever post-season A-10 victory. The Loyola of Maryland will be just as serious auto accident on the way back and they were both close game, I know one of them was overtime. Although eye-opening wins over Chrabascz said. "So that should spice "To get another road victory would also help," Chrabascz added. "In past years we've always had probms on the road, so if we can keep this up, that would be good." LION NOTES: Tony Ward and Bri-two games we played in Miami," an Allen (MVP at the AMI Classic) should be the starting guards tonight challenge as going down to Miami with Ed Fogell and Tom Hovasse and winning. I think it will be a real playing forward and Jim Newcomer n the pivot ... Senior center Bill If the Lions hope to put a stop to Pollock will be out for about five their bad luck with the Rams, they weeks with a broken jaw he received will have to start by containing Carl- in practice last week... The Lions ton Owens, Rhode Island's all-confer- next A-10 game is not until Jan. 5

Lions' concentration provides an edge |Lady spikers ready Martin's initial push was followed by a Ken Chertow 7-4 decision over John Regan at 126 and a Ch losses affected his team mentally and made it thought we would upset them somewhere in

The Hawkeyes tried, but never really regained their composure. All-American Greg Randall and Jim Heffernan picked up decisions at 142 and 150, but the Lions captured all but two of the remaining five matches. Penn State clinched the victory with

Dan Mayo's fall over Erik Duus to make the score

Lorenzo said he was pleased with the way his squad handled the pressure and were able to keep didn't crack tonight and they didn't break." he

"What I'm real pleased about is that my guys tough to establish an edge.

happened it was vey difficult for us.'

24-9 with two matches remaining.

technical fall in the final minute for Tim Flynn at at each home match, was awarded to the entire

By ANN GARRETT Collegian Sports Writer

Going into last night's showdown against No. 1 ranked Iowa, Penn State Head Coach Rich Lorenzo and his squad knew that to beat the next-toperfect Hawkeyes, they would first have to beat them in another contest — that of concentration. With a standing room only crowd behind them. the Lions set to work. Little by little, they broke down a team that has dominated the Big 10 for nine consecutive years. After two technical falls and a decision. Penn State came out to an early 15-0 lead on its way to a 27-15 win over a squad that has haunted it for years in its quest for a national championship

Jim Martin's technical fall in the last 30 seconds of the 118-pound bout got the ball rolling for Penn State. Lorenzo said Iowa's Steve Martin may have lost some of his concentration in the excitement of the first match.

Martin agreed that the Hawkeves were not quite themselves last night. "They're known to be pushers and make other people quit, but it was a little different tonight."

Heisman

Continued from Page 10 classroom, Testaverde found the we've said before, the winner of the with Testaverde at the helm. classroom not to his liking. Critics game's premier award should dis- Last Tuesday, Testaverde sufhave argued that Testaverde should not win the Heisman Trophy because of reports that he will not graduate this year.

In picking Penn State's Shane Conlan over the Miami star, Sports Illustrated said last week, "We just couldn't bring ourselves to vote him first because of his disdain for the academic side of his college life . . After an opening day loss against said he will begin practicing within We know Coach Johnson is going to ing a degree as well." Harsh words, indeed, but that its lead.

hasn't stopped the Downtown Athletic Club before. While Testaverde has been criticized for his lack of participation in the classroom, no one can criticize his athletic ability.

No. 1 pick on NFL draft day. But, as consecutive regular-season games canes prepare for their matchup his left arm and leg. "I hit my head pretty hard and I it wasn't serious.

Despite the scare, Testaverde

Penn State team. Iowa Head Coach Dan Gable said the three quick Lorenzo is always looking to March and the national championship, where it ramians to be seen if Iowa will lose the crown it has worn for nine vears. For now, he was satisfied with the Lions' the first three matches." Gable said. "Once that winning effort. "Our concentration was very keen tonight, and our intensity was real good," he said. "To me that's very, very rewarding because that we hope keeps improving so that it pays dividends come March.' Gable knows his squad has a lot of work to do before meeting up with the Lions in Maryland at the NCAA tournament. "We've got a lot of things to learn," he said. "We got pushed around the mat a lot, they were more ntense than us, they rode us a lot.

"It's a one-on-one sport, and you've got to have a said. "They believed in themselves and they went lot of desire, a lot of heart, you've got to be real out and earned it. They took it away from Iowa confident in yourself, and I don't think my kids were that at all tonight."

with No. 2 Penn State Jan. 2. OTHER COMMENTS: On the play an interest in books and earn- fered an freak accident on his mo- Penn State defense: "From what tor scooter. He suffered lesions on I've seen of them all year and in the past, they're very disciplined." On the report that Miami Head was pretty dazed," Testaverde Coach Jimmy Johnson is leaving said. "I knew I was scraped up. I Miami at the end of the year to take was able to move around, so I knew the head coaching job at the University of Texas "It hasn't had any effect on us Nice guy, great athlete, a lock to be Florida last year, Miami has won 21 the next couple of days as the Hurri-stay."

$25⁹⁵ WEEKENDS

100 miles per day included. Additional mileage 20¢ per mil

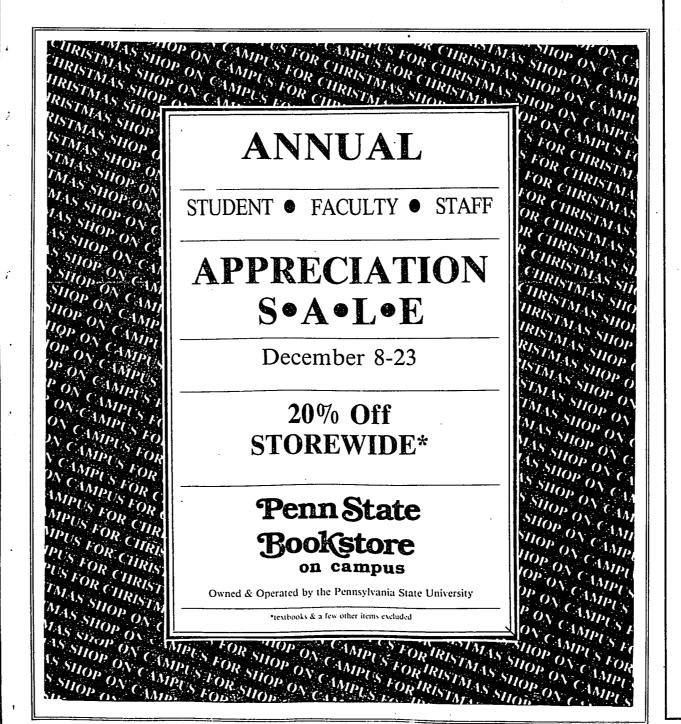

Christmas Break Rate

Make your break in a car from National. You can rent a car if you're 18 or older, have a valid driver's license, current student I.D. and a cash deposit. Stop by and fill out a short cash qualification form at least 24-hours in advance.

You pay for gas used and return car to renting location. Most major credit cards accepted. Non-discountable rate applies to Chevy Chevette or similar-size car and is subject to change without notice. Rates slightly lower for drivers over 25. Specific cars subject to atsuitability. Certain daily minimums apply. Werkend rate available from noon Thursdau

National Car Rental. You deserve National attention.®

> Sheraton Inn (36th and Chestnut Sts.) 382-6504

BA

The Daily Collegian Thursday, Dec. 4, 1986-11

By MARK S. MCWHIRTER

Collegian Sports Writer

contrast, Head Coach Russ Rose and and UC-Santa Barbara. the NCAA tournament.

have had trouble getting past the first around 16 for the rest of the year. its history.

round of the NCAA tournament to- to the Lady Bulldogs. night at 7 p.m. in Rec Hall and this From then on, the Lady Lions that from the standpoint that they are wick, New Jersey. going to have to play better than we With two matches to go in the are to win."

to teams that are going to be in the lar season at 37-4. tournament. Rose sees that as a pos- Now, Rose feels it is time for his sible advantage for Wyoming.

Conference has a lot more balance." Lions.

As for the Lady Lions, their seaso has gone in spurts. Penn State got off to a good start by winning its first five It was business as usual for the matches. Then the team got a whiff of women's volleyball team this season the Maxwell House and dropped two as it collected its fourth Atlantic 10 of its next three matches, losing to Championship in as many years. By West Coast powers San Jose State his Lady Lions hope to break another Penn State then regrouped ar one of their post-season traditions - came on strong in late September and being eliminated in the first round of throughout October. The Lady Lions enjoyed 25 straight victories, earning In recent years, the Lady Lions them a national ranking that hovered round of the 'grand finale' of colle- Then in early November, the team giate women's volleyball. This year, went south to take on two Atlantic however, there is reason to believe Coast Conference squads, Georgia Rose's team can turn a new page in and Florida. Upon returning to Happy Valley, the Lady Lions were a few Penn State, ranked 17th in the coun- shades tanner, but one loss poorer. try, will host Wyoming in the first Penn State dropped a four game bout time the Lady Lions are the favorite. picked up the pieces and raced to "The pressure is more on Wyoming another A-10 title in a decisive manthan it is on Penn State," Rose said. ner. It took all but six games and "We're playing at home and we're about two hours to secure the conferthe higher ranked team so I look at ence championship in New Brunsregular season, Penn State stumbled Rose said Wyoming finished 19-13 over the Thanksgiving holiday weekon the season, giving them second end, losing its fourth match of the place in the High Country Confer- season. The Lady Lions added a win ence. But of those 13 losses, nine were that same weekend to finish the reguteam to bear down and play the type "I think that's an indication that of volleyball it is capable of playing. they have probably played a tougher Rose has said along that if each team schedule than we have during the member plays to her potential, few year," Rose said. "The High Country teams will be able to beat the Lady

No purchase required. Last day to enter sweepstakes: 12/14/86 At participating restaurants only. See official rules for details