Gymmen look to make progress

Collegian Sports Writer

Last season the men's gymnastics team was just looking to make a decent showing. Riddled with injuries, the squad ended the 1986 campaign with a disheartening 10th-place finish at the NCAA championships. This season, however, the theme is progress. "Right now I'm more concerned about the team's progress and remaining injury-free," Head Coach Karl

Schier said. "In this sport it seems that there is never a With a strong showing at the Metro Invitational Tournament behind it, the team will travel this weekend to the
