

Few surprises: Favored college hoops teams win over the weekend

By DICK BRINSTER

While the three-point goal will be the deciding factor in many a college basketball game this season, 13th-ranked Kentucky learned the hard way that the most basic of all shots—the free throw—can't be taken lightly. And the Wildcats need not look beyond Saturday's 71-66 loss to third-ranked Indiana for a blatant demonstration. The Hoosiers made six free throws in the final 42 seconds to stave off Kentucky, which canned five of seven three-point attempts in the game. But the Wildcats made just five of 15 free throws, leaving Coach Eddie Sutton perplexed. "I think when you analyze the game... that hurts," Sutton said of the free-throw shooting. But he promised that Kentucky, which fell to 2-1, would continue to bomb from long range. "We don't have much of an inside game right now, and that's why we used the three-point shot," Sutton said. Steve Alford, Daryl Thomas and Joe Hillman made two free throws each for unbeaten Indiana, which pulled away in the final minute to win its third game. In other games involving ranked teams,

No. 1 North Carolina routed Miami (Fla.) 122-77; No. 4 Purdue took Connecticut 88-70; No. 5 Iowa crushed Loyola (Calif.) 103-80; No. 6 Kansas was shocked by Arkansas 103-86; No. 8 Alabama lost to Florida State 72-71; No. 9 Illinois edged No. 12 Pittsburgh 99-97; No. 11 Oklahoma whipped Texas-Arlington 101-76; No. 14 Western Kentucky topped Southern Cal 82-52; No. 16 Georgetown trounced St. Leo 120-61; No. 17 Syracuse beat No. 19 Northeastern 94-74; No. 18 North Carolina State took Western Carolina 96-75, and No. 20 Arizona was upset by Utah 68-67. Idle were No. 2 Nevada-Las Vegas, No. 7 Auburn, No. 10 Navy and No. 15 Georgia Tech. Kentucky, which closed to within a point three times in the final minutes, had chance to tie the game when Rex Chapman tried to set up for a three-pointer with 33 seconds remaining. But Indiana's Steve Eyl forced Chapman into a double dribble. "I was just supposed to play good team defense and take away the three-point shot," Eyl said. "We were trying to get set up for a three-pointer," said Chapman, who hit three from long range and finished with a career-high 20 points. "James (Blackmon) handed the ball off to me, and I didn't have control of it. So I batted it to the floor. It looked awkward, but I didn't think I walked." Alford, who sat out last year's five-point loss at Kentucky because of an NCAA-ordered suspension for posing for a charity calendar, led Indiana with 25 points. Dean Garrett added 13 points and Thomas finished with 12 for the host Hoosiers. Kentucky got 10 points apiece by Irving Swomas and Derrick Miller. No. 1 N. Carolina 122, Miami 77 Joe Wolf and Ranzino Smith scored 21 points each to lead top-ranked North Carolina to a record-setting victory. The Tar Heels, 4-1, set a record for points in a half with 72 in the first period, eclipsing the 70 points the made against Rice in 1972. Miami, 1-2, got 20 points from Dennis Burns. No. 4 Purdue 88, Connecticut 70 A game-high 24 points by Troy Lewis and 21 by Todd Mitchell, who also had 10 rebounds, led unbeaten Purdue to its third victory. Connecticut, 2-2, was led by forward Jeff King, who collected a career-high 22 points. No. 5 Iowa 102, Loyola-Marymount 90 Iowa, 6-0, won its own Amana-Hawkeye Classic for the fourth time in five on the strength of 31 points by B.J. Armstrong and 20 by Roy Marble. The Hawkeyes forced 15 first-half turn-overs and held Loyola, 3-1, 23 points under its season scoring average. Mike Yeast led the Lions with 22 points, and Chris Nikchevich added 19. Arkansas 102, No. 6 Kansas 86 Tim Scott scored eight of his 24 points in little more than a minute, including two three-point goals, as Arkansas, 4-0, handed Kansas its first loss in four games. Freshman Ron Huey added 19 points the Razorbacks, who had 13 offensive rebounds in the first half. Danny Manning led Kansas with 26 points before fouling out in the final seconds. Florida St. 72, No. 8 Alabama 71 A basket by 6-foot-10 senior Raleigh Choice with two seconds left gave the Seminoles their third victory in as many tries. PeeWee Barber and LaToae Davis scored 20 points apiece for Florida State. Jim Farmer scored a game-high 26 points Alabama, which fell to 2-1. No. 9 Illinois 99, No. 12 Pittsburgh 97 Tony Wysinger and freshman Kendall Gill hit four foul shots each in the final 57 seconds as Illinois held off Pitt. Doug Altgenberger scored 25 points and Ken Norman added 24 for the 4-0 Illini. Curtis Aiken scored 13 of his game-high 29 points in the final 1:23 of play as Pitt came back from a 9-1 deficit. Charles Smith added 27 points for the 2-1 Panthers. No. 11 Oklahoma 101, Texas-Arlington 76 Tim McCallister and Harvey Grant scored 22 points each as the Sooners raised their record to 3-1. Oklahoma outscored Texas-Arlington 19-2 at one point to put the game away in the first half. The Mavericks, 1-3, were led by Guard Danny Wojciak, who scored 16 points. No. 14 W. Kentucky 82, Southern Cal 52 The Hilltoppers, 6-1, got 16 points from Clarence Martin, and won the game with defense by holding the Trojans to 16 first-half points. Southern Cal, 2-2, didn't score for the first eight minutes. Derrick Dowell paced Southern Cal with 18 points. No. 16 Georgetown 125, St. Leo 51 Reggie Williams scored 27 points and Jaren Jackson added 20 as Georgetown, 4-0, record the biggest rout in school history, surpassed a 62-point triumph over Hawaii-Hilo in 1983. The 126 points also exceeded the school scoring record of 120, set against St. Peter's in the 1963-64 season. St. Leo, 3-1, got 14 points from Ron Taylor. No. 17 Syracuse 94, No. 19 Northeastern 74 Forward Howard Triche scored a career-best 31 points and Sherman Douglas added 19 as the Orangemen, 4-0, wore down Northeastern to win its own Carrier Classic.

Palmer received 28 first-place votes and 672 points. Michigan quarterback Jim Harbaugh finished third with 25 first-place votes and 458 points. The rest of the top 10 finishers were Oklahoma linebacker Brian Bosworth (9 firsts, 385 points), Holy Cross tailback-defensive back Gordie Lockbaum (32-342), Auburn tailback Brent Fullwood (4-129), Alabama linebacker Cornelius Bennett (3-86), Penn State tailback D.J. Dozier (0-77), Fresno State quarterback Kevin Sweeney (6-73), and Ohio State linebacker Chris Spielman (6-60). Testaverde started playing organized football at the age of 6½ with the Franklin Square (N.Y.) Warriors in a Long Island pee-wee league. The family lives in Elmont, just across the New York City line from the borough of Queens. "He was always one cut above the next player," said Al Testaverde, who was never more than an enthusiastic sandlot player himself. "He was very talented as a youngster. "It (the Heisman) was something he wanted. I think he knew that I wanted it, so I think he tried for it even more." Al Testaverde tried a little post-natal influence on his only son. He put a football alongside the pillow in the bassinet the day Vinny came home from the hospital. "He was five days old," Al recalled. "The football was a couple of years old. It wasn't a regulation football. I think I paid a couple of dollars for it, which in those days was a lot of money." Vinny was the third of Al and Jessie Testaverde's five children — two girls, Vinny, then two more girls. Since no female has ever won the Heisman Trophy, could Al Testaverde have been just a trifle disappointed when his first two offspring were girls? "If I said no I'd be lying," he said. In leading Miami to an 11-0 record — he missed one game with bruises suffered when he fell off his motor scooter — and a berth in the national championship Fiesta Bowl game against runner-up Penn State.
