Big wins:

Giants, Colts get much-needed victories

AP Sports Writer

The New York Giants moved into position to play at home for the next month, including all of heir NFL playoff games, and the Indianapolis Colts moved into the winner's circle for the first

The Giants, led by a big play defense that intercepted six Jay Schroeder passes and sacked the Washington quarterback four times, won the NFC East showdown with a 24-14 victory over the Redskins. It was Washington's first loss at home this season, dropping it to 11-3, one game behind the Giants. New York has won seven consecutive games, it longest winning streak since 1962, and needs to beat either St. Louis or Green Bay — who are a combined 6-21-1 — at Giants Stadium to clinch its first title in 23 years.

And the Giants now are the only unbeaten home team in the league. The Colts were winless everywhere until, in their first game under Coach Ron Meyer. Eugene Daniel returned a blocked punt 13 yards for a touchdown with 20 seconds remaining for a 28-23

Maryland came into Happy Valley with a lofty 11-1-1 record, 7-1-1 in the Southern Collegiate Hockey League that includes North Carolina State, Duke, Georgia Tech and Tennessee. After thrashing the Terns by a combined 17-3 score, one couldn't help but wonder if they play the same brand of hockey south of the Mason-Dixon

Line as they do in the northeast. The Icers began the weekend scoring binge with a five-goal second period explosion Friday night to take a 7-1 lead over the Terps. Pat McQuillan, Steve Westfall and Lynn Sipe all scored a pair of goals in the opener, while Mike Cardonick dished out three assists.

Things got worse instead of better on Saturday for Maryland as a change of goalie didn't do much good.
