12-The Daily Collegian Thursday, Dec. 11, 1986

Research

Continued from Page 1. changes.'

professor of child and adolescent fa, associate dean of research for the development and co-director of the College of Arts and Architecture. New York Longitudinal Study, also "Research is a word that has directs a longitudinal study of stress emerged with the sciences, and over and coping during the transitions of a period of years, it has come to have early adolescence.

research projects in areas such as manistic inquiry, research is called nutrition and genetics have extended scholarship or, in painting and actthe overall research spectrum of the ing, creative performance... you College of Human Development to have to be sensitive to the distincinclude more scientific realms, said tions." Pattishall.

said, adding that a large portion of very significant meaning." research funding comes from the Not only is funding for research in the University is going on in this alty and religion," he said. college," he said. "We grew out of a "Because the arts are very private, human development.'' print-makers, sculptors, scenic decess to such long-term data is rare signers and composers are also an ... you have to be careful about important part of University regeneralizing because history search. For these people, however, the word "research" often takes on Lerner's husband, Richard Lerner, different meanings, said Harlan Hofa more generic meaning,'' Hoffa In addition to longitudinal studies, said. "When talking about more hu4 million saved by

UNITED NATIONS - Simple, low-cost medical care has saved the lives of 4 million poor children in the last five years and could save almost twice that many each year if used more widely,

More than 14 million children under the age of 5 die every year, but improvements in communications and transportation make it possible for even the poorest countries the capability of reaching half of them with life-

"The time has come for governments and peoples to decide that it is just as unacceptable for so many millions of children to die every year of needless malnutrition and infection as it is for them to die in sudden droughts or

"It should frankly be a matter of national shame" if a country does not begin campaigns for immunization against six killer diseases or fails to encourage the use of oral rehydration therapy to combat often fatal dehydration due to diarrhea, the report said.

Oral rehydration therapy is the use of a simple solution of water

Children can be immunized against measles, tetanus, whoop-ing cough, polio, diphtheria and tuberculosis, and many others can be saved through the spread of basic health education on weaning, Vitamin A and respira-

The UNICEF report, entitled

"State of the World's Children," said use of such simple techniques saved 4 million children in

It said poverty will always be a factor in meeting the health needs of children, ''but even within those limits a new era in child

UNICEF supplied 377 million doses of vaccines to more than 100 developing countries in 1985.

torv diseases.

the past five years,

health can now begin.'' and salts. It costs only pennies.

famines," the report said.

saving treatment, the U.N. Children's Fund said in a report.

UNICEF

By NICK LUDINGTON

Associated Press Writer

UNICEF said yesterday.

"We're in the minority here, and "So much of what we have become some pay little attention to what we is dependent on our genetics, how we do," he said. "The amount of money behave, and what we eat. We're doing involved is peanuts and the scale of a lot of research here in major areas activity is considerably less - yet the of nutritional science," Pattishall arts have had and always will have a National Institute of Health and the within the college low, but so is the National Science Foundation. "Re- desire and ability of artists to write searchers are attempting to deter- proposals and seek support, Hoffa mine what the nutritional risk factors said. "There is a lack of tradition of involved in health and disease are." seeking funds in the arts. Traditional "And most of the genetics research support has always come from roy-college of home economics and we're going out for funds makes it a more now becoming a college of health and public enterprise. People in the college have had little experience writ-In the College of Arts and Architec- ing proposals, but we need to ture, playwrights, art historians, encourage the faculty," Hoffa added.

Professor: Reagan helps aid education spoke on "How to Reform Schools reform, he said. without Half Trying: Secrets of the The nation's two major teachers' Reagan Administration" at last unions oppose the merit pay reform education under the Reagan Administration." Boyd said.

He said Reagan has taken hold of the "bully pulpit," meaning that Reagan has used his great communication abilities to bring about educational reforms.

Reagan convinced state and local governments that it is their responsibility to support incentive for improved teaching in primary education, not the federal government's responsibility, Boyd said.

Professor of Education William Boyd Merit pay is the most controversial night's Graduate School lecture se- because it promotes unwanted competition between teachers, and there "Extraordinary changes and re- is dispute on who is qualified to judge forms have been made for primary which teachers deserve more pay, Boyd said.

> Boyd said salary structure is an accepted part of higher education. cause there are rank positions which motivate instructors to move up the ladder, he said.

> Reagan's main fault with higher education is the minimal amount of financial aid the federal government has provided, Boyd said.

-by Megan McKissick

Only $6.95 per person

a la board and Diner's Club plans always welcome

Reservations Are Suggested 865-7623 *due to our Holiday Buffet, Our Regular Menu Will Be Unavailable Dec. 17th-19th.

%	WENS & LADIES WOOLRICH FLEECE SKI JACKETS	our low 69 ⁹⁹ 48 ⁹⁹
%	SUEDE LEATHEF SWEATER JACK ETS
1% F	DELUXE HEAVY WEIGHT FLANNELS	our low 14 ⁹⁹ 9 ⁹⁷
% -	SUEDE LEATHER JACKETS	our low 79 ⁹⁷ 49 ⁹⁷
)%	CLOTH SHELL	our low 29 ⁹⁷ 24 ⁹⁷

sports

By MARK BRENNAN

Collegian Sports Writer

As far as anybody knows, Head the game last night, at which point a team manager stuck his head out of the lockerroom door and told all of Considering the Lions' play in the game, the move was understandable.

After Penn State blew a 13-point second half lead for the teams' third straight loss, Parkhill probably had

Forward Carl Chrabascz's blocked three-point attempt at the buzzer sealed the loss for the Lions (2-3), and typified Penn State's frustration's in Lehigh (3-2) did not actually hold a lead in the game until the 1:41 mark of the second half, when it went up by one point, 68-67, on Mike Polaha's 16-

Chrabascz missed a shot from near the top of the key, and Polaha, who scored 13 of his 20 points in the half, responded at the other end with a driving layup on which he was fouled.

Polaha sank the free throw, giving neers back up by three.

pressure down the stretch."

thing in the first half.

n the first half.

seemed to have trouble handling any-until the 1:41 mark of the game.

afterwards for an hour or two.

the last 10 minutes of the game.

the reporters to go home.

nothing worth saying.

foot jumper.

onds left.

Once again, cagers come from ahead to lose

At a glance

Basketball Coach Bruce Parkhill may still be chewing out the men's Layer 3-3 2-2 9, Queenan 8-16 6-7 basketball team over a 73-70 loss at 22, Polaha 6-10 3-6 18, Cheslock 2the hands of Lehigh last night in Rec 4 0-0 4, Dowling 4-4 1-2 9, Bronner 0-0 0-0 0, Rudman 0-1 0-0 0, Martin He tongue-lashed the team for at 3-6 3-7 9, Gregory 0-1 2-2 2, Breder least one hour and 30 minutes after

0-2 0-0 0. Totals 26-49 17-26 73. PENN STATE (70) Ward 6-15 1-2 14, Jones 2-3 1-2 5, Allen 4-13 0-0 8, Newcomer 6-6 0-0 12, Chrabascz 2-6 0-1 4, luzzolino 0-0 0-0 0, Murphy 2-6 0-0 4, Appleman 0-0 0-0 0, Blake 2-2 1-2 5, Hovasse 1-4 1-1 3, Fogell 5-10 1-2 11, Peapos 2-2 0-0 4. Totals 32-67 5-

Halftime — Penn St. 39. Lehioh Three-point goals - Lehigh 4-6 (Bronner 0-1, Layer 1-1, Polaha 3-4).

Penn St. 1-10 (Murphy 0-2, Ward 1-4, Allen 0-3, Chrabascz 0-1) Fouled Out - Allen. Reounds-Lehigh 38 (Martin 9), Penn St. 31 (Fogell 9). Assists - Lehigh 14 (Polaha 6), Penn St. 16 (Jones 6). Total fouls — Lehigh 16, Penn St.23.

Attendance - 2,010.

Lehigh a 71-67 lead and what Murphy hit a layup with six minutes amounted to the game with 42 sec- left. But Queenan and Polaha opened up for Lehigh and the Engineers Forward Bruce Blake hit the front closed the gap to 39-30 at the end of end of a one-and-one and guard Brian the half.

Allen hit a baseline jumper to draw Ward finished the half with nine the Lions within one, 71-70, with 22 points for the Lions and Newcomer second left, but Lehigh's Scott Layer added eight with four-for-four shootmade both ends of a one-and-one ing from the field. Queenan, being three seconds later to put the Engi- touted by Lehigh as a team leader and All-American candidate, paced Penn State tried several unsuccess- the Engineers with 10.

the Engineers walked off of the court the lead back up to 13, 48-35, with with the biggest win of second-year 15:42 left on a three-point jumper by coach Fran McCaffery's career. Ward. Ward's three-pointer was one "To beat a good Altantic 10 team on of only 10 attempts by the Lions that the road, you have to be very excit- went in during the game.

'Especially the way we handled the a three-pointer of his own the next trip up the court to cut the lead to 10, Although the Engineers handled and the roof slowly began to fall in on the pressure down the stretch, they Penn State The Engineers chipped the lead away, again on the scoring strength Allen kicked off the scoring in the of Queenan and Polaha, to tie the game with a 16-foot jumper that gave game, 56-56, with 10 minutes left in Penn State a lead it would not give up the game. Penn State built the lead back up to five, 62-57, over the next Center Jim Newcomer scored six three minutes, but from there on out points inside and guard Tony Ward it was a case of bad shots and blown scored nine to give the Lions an eight- opportunities for the Lions.

point lead, 21-13, with 10 minutes to go Lehigh set the tempo for the rest of the game, not allowing the Lions to Meanwhile a 1-3-1 trapping defense get the ball inside, and thus shutting was shutting down Lehigh's one-two down Penn State's offense. scoring punch of Daren Queenan, Ward paced the Lions with 14 (22.8 ppg coming in) and Polaha (20 points, although it was Newcomer who shined, hitting for 12 on six-for-The Lions opened up their biggest six shooting in the game. Queenan led lead of the half, 33-20, when Paul Lehigh with 22 and Polaha added 20.

leaving us to judge for ourselves what nours after the final buzzer had gruntled, there's no denying that. It the lucky ones. Most of them got to Lion Head Coach Bruce Parkhill job of a coach. leave as soon as the game was over. refused to talk to reporters last night, Even if he'd come out and just blood pressure to go down before he utes to play and Parkhill kept the the future.

evasively answered one or two basic launched into another tirade. Parkhill had a right to be dis- a game that bordered on the obscene. trying to drive their way inside for Parkhill knows he needs the media's benefit a club he said was "tired."

was taking a few minutes to allow his The game took 1 hour and 40 min- will it do to keep it from happening in and emotionless performance from a if Parkhill would ever come out. supposed to be on the way up. squad that started off with two Finally, we stood outside the locker- The family and friends also had to perfect example of someone biting

Defenseman John D'Aloisio's goal 7:47 into the third period snapped a 3-3 deadlock last night as the ice hockey team won its seventh straight game with a 6-3 International Collegiate Hockey League victory over Erie Community College in a penalty-filled game at the Ice Pavilion. With the win, the Lions raised their record to the holidays with a weekend series at Niagara-Welland in Ontario, Canada on Jan. 9-10. D'Aloisio put the Lions ahead for good with a Paul Coffey-like end-to-end rush that started at the Penn State blueline and ended when the 5foot-9, 175-pound junior blasted a wicked slap shot that sailed over the glove of the Kats' backup goalie Mike Galanti and landed in the top right hand corner of the net. Galanti had replaced starter Gary Bass at the 10:46 mark of the second nents in a goalmouth pile-up.

D'Aloisio's rocket put the Lions in control and Penn State goalie Tim Leon Guerrero made the when Mike Cardonick (power play tally) and initial save on Jon Gross, but the puck trickled up Lynn Sipe (empty net) scored later in the third his catching glove and rolled into the net before frame, Penn State went into the semester break he could swipe it out with his stick.

in impressive fashion. D'Aloisio, who also dished out three assists, State defenseman Steve Sanchez at the left point, said after the game that Galanti may have given spun behind the net and stuffed the puck past him too much room to shoot. "Their goalie was way to far to his right, and penalty." D'Aloisio was referring to the fact that officials Dave Kosick and Bob Secor whistled 29 penalties on the night, good for 102 minutes (only 38 to Penn State) including 47 in the first period.

The Penn State winning streak appeared to be tively.

Erie's John Anderson reaches for the puck in the Kats' 6-3 loss to Penn State last night at the Ice Pavilion

Rec Hall last night was ugly, you State players and the media were the dropped out since then, and the Lions heard him screaming. And, from the driven at least an hour to watch their case the pens and microphones that should have tried hanging around unlucky ones. They were the ones have a 2-3 record as they prepare for sounds of it, throwing things as the sons play and it's safe to assume they bring fans to the games. afterwards for an hour or two. that thought they were going to get a The men's basketball team self-de- than to talk to the players and the men's basketball team self-de- that to talk to the players and the strong to build a str structed for the second time in four coaches after the contest. Maybe the prevent the media from doing its job cold. days and dropped a 73-70 decision to family and friends finally got the properly. I know they say that if you The managers were even afraid to a coach who could spend the same scene. Lehigh in front of 2,010 disbelieving chance, but members of the print and don't have something nice to say go inside, despite periodic bursts of amount of time at as it took to play Now the question is: What will the Sounds of silence not exactly golden (or quiet) at Rec Hall them. They also had to wonder about image in the area and on the national spectators. The fans, however, were broadcast media weren't so lucky. don't say anything, but that's not the silence. One suggested that Parkhill the game yelling at their children. team learn from the loss and what team in the lockerroom for at least After Sunday's loss to Lovola o we saw on the court. The fourth-year questions it wouldn't have been as One is left to wonder what Parkhill that long afterwards. And it was Maryland, Parkhill was deeply disapcoach certainly wasn't at a loss for bad as the situation was last night. If could have been saying to his club for obvious they weren't already watchwords — he was still screaming pro-fanities at his players one-and-a-half excused himself, the media would was beyond description at times as have left satisfied that we'd tried our the forwards were taking shots from ristic of a coach that's always done to dwell on the loss. He also told a best to get some type of insight about the perimeter and the guards were his best to cooperate with the media. reporter he hoped the day off would Instead, all we got was frustrated, layups. All in all, it wasn't what you'd help in order to build support for his If Parkhill said he was distressed was the second straight lackluster sitting in a small room and wondering expect from a program that was program and that made last night's by his club's lack of intensity against

Please see SILENCE, Page 13

Guerrero to give the Kats a 2-0 lead. Sandwiched between the two first period goals that gave me the whole side to shoot at," he said. was a display of tempers when Penn State's Jim 12-3 (3-1 in the ICHL) and will resume play after "Ken (Fatur) took the defenseman out of the way Yablecki ran over top of Bass at 12:18, sending and I had the room to go in. I don't know how he the Erie goalkeeper back into the net while it did it without them (the officials) calling a became dislodged from its mooring. Yablecki was then mauled by a pack of angry Kats behind the net.

Paul Gross, Jon's brother, went around Penn

After a 10-minute delay, the officials sorted things out and tossed out Erie defenseman Kevin Hinterberger 'for being the third man in the altercation in serious jeopardy when ECC jumped out to a 2-0 Early in the second period, Steve Westfall lead in the first period on goals by Jon and Paul scooped up a loose puck at the Erie blueline and period when Bass suffered sprained knee liga- Gross at the 6:31 mark and 13:02 mark respec- walked in alone on Bass. The hulking 6-2, 200-Please see ICERS, Page 13.