$20 Million Granted To College by State

The Pennsylvania State College received a $20¼ million slice of $41¼ million appropriated to state-aided schools in the recent session of the Pennsylvania legislature.

The allocation, signed Aug. 20 by Gov. John S. Fine, provides a $3 million increase for the College during the current biennium, but fell $1 million short of the increase requested by the Board of Trustees. The total state budget amounted to $820 million.

Of the total $20¼ million, the biggest share, was for maintenance. The remainder went to the College research units.

The general appropriations bill carried a 10 per cent salary increase for the state's 50,000 workers. This included employees at the College.

Expansion, Pay Hike Apparently Killed

By BILL JAFFE

University expansion and faculty salary raises were apparently killed yesterday when Gov. David L. Lawrence cut the University's budget request by $10 million.

A deeply disappointed President Eric A. Walker immediately said he would personally carry the University's fight for increased appropriations to the State Legislature.

The University requested nearly $44 million for the 1959-61 biennium but Gov. Lawrence recommended only $34 million.

Puzzler makes good

Mike Shenk, who prepared crossword puzzles daily for the Collegian in the late seventies, submitted a fresh puzzle for this issue.

Shenk, who is an associate editor of Games magazine in New York City, says of his Collegian experience, "... it was constructing crosswords for the Collegian that taught me the fine points of puzzle-making."

"Chances are, if I hadn't done the daily puzzle when I was a student, I wouldn't be work for Games now," Shenk wrote to the Collegian.

His puzzles amused Collegian readers and kept them thinking.
