20—The Daily Collegian Wednesday, April 15, 1987

Tall order

A stilt dancer takes to the floor and the ceiling at the Caribbean Experience 1987 in the HUB ballroom.

Renowned author visits PSU

A man many experts call the bestknown novelist of his generation will read some of his work here today.

William Styron, award-winning author of Sophies's Choice, will read at 8 tonight in 112 Kern.

"He is probably the best-known novelist of his generation internationally," said James L.W. West III, professor of English.

Styron, who has spent most of his career writing novels, has been rewarded for his devotion. In 1951, he received the Prix de Rome of the American Academy of Arts and Letters for his first novel, Lie Down in Darkness, followed in 1967 by the Pulitzer Prize for The Confessions of Nat Turner. Most recently, Styron won the National Book Award in 1979 for Sophie's Choice.

Styron will read "Shadrach," a short story that originated from his work on Sophie's Choice.

[2]

ΣAM

A graduate of Duke University, Styron was a Marine during the Korean war. He incorporated experiences from the service in his novella The Long March and the manuscript The Way of the Warrior.

In addition to writing novels, Styron helped establish The Paris Review with writers including George Plimpton, Peter Matthiessen and Donald Hall. Overall, Styron is a "serious thinker and writer about the human condition," West said.

---by Angela Bradley

$\sum_{i=1}^{i} Camma Sig,$

Spring has sprung and so did we Bouncing our way into history. Bounce For Beats has come and gone But our relationship will continue on.

 $\Gamma\Sigma\Sigma$

ΣAM •

ΓΣΣ

Love, The Brothers and Pledges of SAMMY HOMECOMING '87

 $\Sigma AM \bullet \Gamma \Sigma \Sigma \bullet \Sigma AM \bullet \Gamma \Sigma \Sigma \bullet \Sigma AM \bullet \Gamma \Sigma \Sigma \bullet \Sigma AM \bullet \Gamma \Sigma \Sigma \bullet$

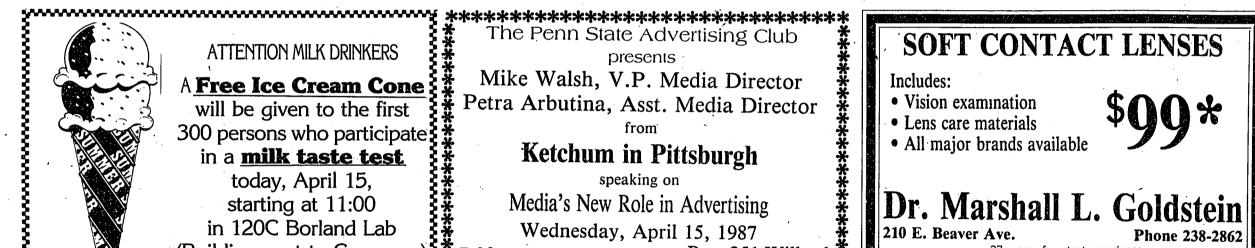

Photo / Timothy Archibald

(Building next to Creamery)

k 7:30 p.m. Rm. 251 Willard

27 years of contact experience Member American Optometric Association

For Only $2.00 You Can Party With 20,000 Penn Staters Cheaper Than The Fiesta Bowl. With Better Music

> Sunday, April 26 Spring good times get serious. And there should be enough sun so that you won't have to wait for summer

> Under the sun at nearby Bald Eagle State Park, the annual Beta Sigma Beta/Sy Barash Regatta brings you live music from 10 to 5. And there is six-player volleyball, two-man canoe races and Tug-of-War, if your team doesn't weigh more than 1000 pounds.

> And $2.00 gets you in. The Regatta tradition as the best concert of the spring means this year it's John Cafferty & The Beaver Brown Band, famous from the movie, "Eddie & The Cruisers." CBS recording artists, Synch, Sammy Atlantic & the Jersey All-Stars all-Springsteen show. And Stolyn Hours, State College's top band.

The Regatta. Sunday, April 26. Only $2.00. Transportation from East Halls for a buck. Buy tickets and register for events at the HUB. For the Cancer Society. Co-Sponsored by Mid-State Bank, Uni-Mart and Alpha Phi Sorority.

ΒΣΒ 'YA GOTTA' REGATTA

