

Go fly a kite!

Amy Yodanis (sophomore-science) and Michelle Hudock (sophomore-anthropology) prepare to launch a kite one breezy afternoon last week. Students may decide to take up this hobby as the sunny Easter weather should continue through tomorrow.

13th Annual Sigma Pi Open Golf Tournament

For Multiple Sclerosis April 25, 1987

In Cooperation With Leitzinger Imports

₩in Up To $415 In Prize Money
• And A Chance At Winning A 1987 300-ZX Entries Accepted Until 5:00 p.m. April 23rd 238-9949

Extra funds found in temporary jobs

Collegian Staff Writer

summer without taking off work, or if you're just later," he said. be the answer to your job search.

Temporary employment is gaining in popularity flexibility in their work schedule, immediate empast experience. ployment and good wages, as well as some valuble ob experience.

employed in temporary help jobs every day. Businesses often need additional employees you don't want to. during the summer or when regular employees work agencies.

E. College Ave., said the positions most often flexible because of it." available are in secretarial, clerical, construction, Andrea Rasmussen, branch manager of Kelly ployers," Gasparik said.

moving, landscaping and computer work. Services Co. at 270 Walker Drive, said Kelly "Companies are finding more and more that employs 500,000 individuals yearly in its 700 diviwhen they have added work, it doesn't pay them to sions nationwide. If you want to plan a dream vacation this put on permanents that will become unproductive Students registered at the State College Kelly division are automatically registered at all divi-tired of the 9 to 5 rut, temporary employment may be the answer to your job search

At most agencies, applicants are evaluated, sions. Because of this, students can ta interviewed and screened to determine which assignments as they travel, she said. applicants are best suited for the different types of "If you need some extra cash while you're as a profitable alternative for people who need jobs, and pay depends on the applicants' skill and basking in the island sun, just let the Kelly division out set limits in their length. Jobs can range from for Kelly. A recent issue of The Washington Post estimated one or two days to six months or more. that more than 5 million people have chosen to One student, Michele Gasparik (senior-computwork as temporaries and as many as 800,000 are er science), said a major advantage of temporary rary jobs. work is that you don't have to take assignments if "I often turned down work because I had exams are on vacation. They find help through temporary or planned to do some traveling, but when I was temporary work for Clasters Lumber at 1120 free, I could earn money around my schedule." E. College Ave. She averaged $4.25 an hour. Lois Dariguzzi, of Preferred Temps at 502 she said. "They know you're a temp and are sions. Because of this, students can take on work in Hawaii know that your available," Rasmussen The assignments are specific tasks, often with-

> Gasparik used her data entry skills, which she acquired in her major, to help land some tempo-She worked at Centre Community Hospital for three weeks and at the Pennsylvania Holstein Association for nine months, in addition to doing "You get to work on a variety of different jobs in various employment settings with different em-

OTIS: police problems prompt pamphlet

Collegian Staff Writer

Most parties have unwanted knowing what their rights are," said • What type of charges can go on Zahor said OTIS has 3,000 printed blue uniforms and badges and ask to Bureau of Police Services.

Students pamphlet released last week "I just hope the information is cor- After the idea for the pamphlet was that deals with how to react when rect." police knock on your door.

College police crackdown on under-mental for the students to let police raternity Council also had a supportage drinking last semester, in which just walk into their home or aparting role in making the pamphlet. parties could face similar investiga- Knock . . . Who's There, are:

gal in the pamphlet," Zahor said. as police?

their rights." "I have no reservation of people warrant?

guests, but when they're wearing Lt. Jack Orndorf of the State College your permanent record? Organization for Town Independent phlet is appropriate," Orndorf said. the door.

Most students get scared or freeze ton, the University legal assistant, for OTIS President John Zahor said the when confronted by police, Zahor her advice on what might happen in pamphlet is the result of a State said, adding that it may be detri- various scenarios. He said the Intraf-

• Do undercover law enforcement

Even though the pamphlet has been

Zahor said that as far as he knew

Verbatim

DS/DD $12.95

SS/DD $ 9.95

To welcome potential new residents to the city, and dispe

some myths about housing in New York, we have published a book called "Manhattan Moveso"

Big Apple.
"Manhattan Moves®" helps

you set your sights on the right vpe of apartment and location. It takes you on a tour of the city's neighborhoods, introduces you to

The book gives you inside

how to canvas, and how to select the available housing, gives you vital facts about transportation,

It's the ultimate insider's guide to apartment hunting in the

DataLife_®

COMPUTER STORE

"We're just trying let students know • On what occasions can an officer be more valid now because it will enter your home without a search remind students to keep parties in

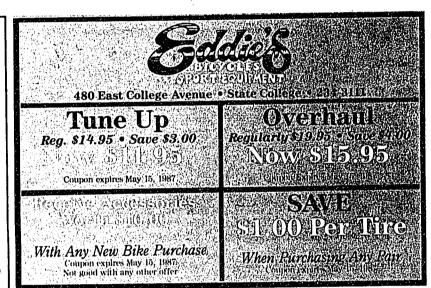

Zahor said the pamphlet originated Zahor and Kent Jute, former presienter your home, do you know what

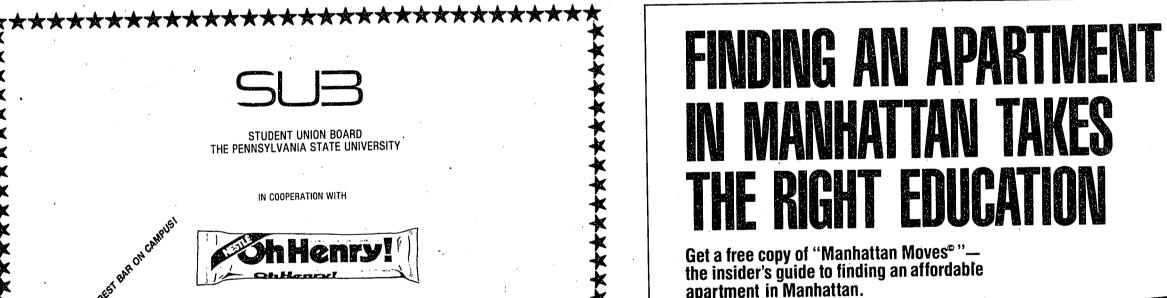

"If the information from the pamwhen OTIS officials realized that no dent of the Association of Residence phlet answers anyone's questions of one at their office was sure what they Hall Students, agreed that the infor-This topic is discussed in a new what their rights are, then the pam- could and couldn't do if police were at mation from the pamphlet applies to people off campus as well as on. brought up, OTIS asked Kim Hamilcause most weekends a lot of resi-

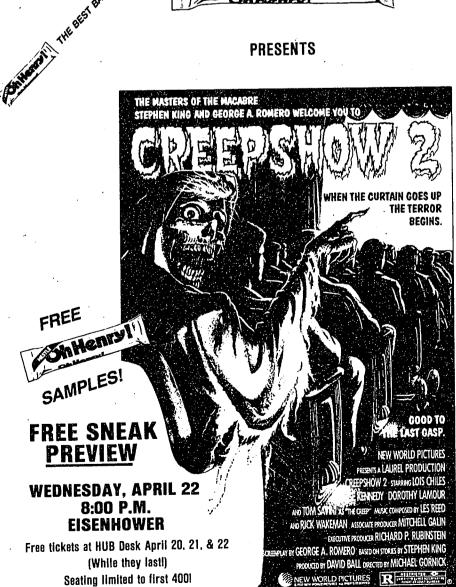

"The pamphlet was meant to come Jute added that most students serving alcohol to minors. Police Some of the questions brought up out last fall, but it was delayed due to move off campus sometime during have since warned that apartment by the pamphlet, called Knock, problems with the printer," Zahor their stay in college and need to know parties, and they may not be sure of

"We're not condoning anything ille- officials have to identify themselves delayed and the situation has died there have been only a few incidents down. Zahor said the pamphlet might of police charging apartment parties.

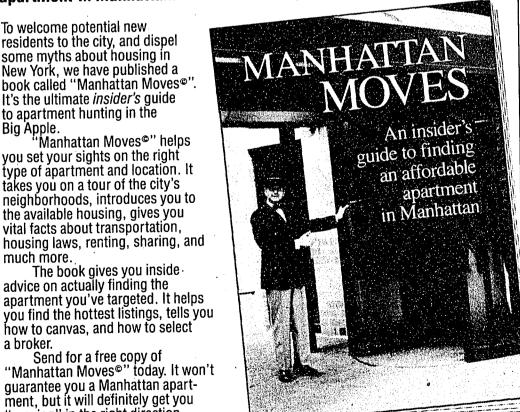

THE BEST BARON CAMPUS

×********

CAPS! - POSTERS!

COMPLIMENTS OF NEW WORLD

In New York State: (212) 996-5000

guarantee you a Manhattan apartment, but it will definitely get you "moving" in the right direction. TO: MANHATTAN MOVES® 235 EAST 95TH STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10128 Send me a copy of "Manhattan Moves®", The Insider's Guide to finding an Apartment in Manhattan—free without cost or obligation. Or Call Toll Free 1 (800) 247-4041

FCC restriction may muzzle disc jockeys of the government's attack on sexual- gans." ly explicit broadcasts, but a civil While obscene material will be re-give explicit sexual advice, such as areas. Dr. Ruth Westheimer's show.

discuss sexual topics in any serious or tion's license. artistic way." he said. The Federal Communications Comtested in court. mission last week put broadcasters across the country on notice that it will apply sweeping new restrictions on material radio and television stations can send over the airwayes. "Ninety-nine percent of the broadcasters in this country won't have a problem. Most of the stations are to the Justice Department for possisuper-squeaky clean," said Kent Bur-ble prosecution under obscenity laws, khart, an Atlanta-based broadcasting and issued written warnings to the "But there may be a handful of material, which was upheld by the reports.

No longer will broadcasters escape it.

freely over the balcony. Either they're sleeping or wishing they were outside enjoying the spring weather rather than sitting through another lecture.

the wrath of the FCC by simply The target at the Philadelphia staavoiding use of what comedian tion was morning-show personality George Carlin dubbed the "seven Howard Stern, whose program also dirty words," or by airing indecent airs on WXRK-FM in New York and material after 10 p.m., the FCC said. has been the subject of numerous The agency is now enforcing the complaints. His program mixes liberdefinition of indecent language set al doses of sexual invendo and doubleheart, Anthony Mandia of Philadelsmall stroke last May, doctors rephia, used the Penn State heart for 11 cial procreation. would again transplant the Penn along his chest incision. State heart in another patient who. Faith Cresswell said in October Vastyan said. "He said, 'Yes, we that time surpassed $150,000.

DISCOVER SHRIMP at the Surf Club Tonight! 20¢ each 8 – 12 AM SPECIAL!

Bacardi & Coke 1ºº 'til 12 AM

TROPICAL HAPPY HOURS— Frozen Temptations in a Mug $1.25 Monday - Thursday & Saturday 5 - 7 (Friday Pizza Happy Hours 4 – 7)

NEED SPARE CASH FOR THE REGATTA?

Earn $20-30 a week in 3-4 hours of your spare time by donating plasma. Call or stop by. 120 S. ALLEN ST. (REAR)

8:00 A.M. TO 7:00 P.M. MON. THRU THURS. 8:00 A.M. TO 5:00 P.M. FRIDAY

Sera-Tec Biologicals

Associated Press Writer

material that depicts or describes, in terms patently offensive as measured WASHINGTON. D.C. — Media con- by contemporary community stansultants say few disc jockeys will dards for the broadcast medium, have to change their ways as a result sexual or excretory activities or or-liberties lawyer warns the effects will ferred to the Justice Department for possible prosecution, the FCC will Barry Lynn, legislative counsel for continue to allow stations to broadthe American Civil Liberties Union, cast indecent material during hours predicted the new policy will have when children are least likely to be far-reaching impact and could even listening, but the agency said 10 p.m. affect talk shows and programs that may not be late enough in some

"This ruling has a real chilling up the new policy with sanctions Commissioners said they will back effect on broadcasters in smaller ranging from fines of $2,000 a day for markets who will now be reluctant to each offense to revocation of a sta-

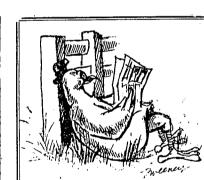

They also expect the policy will be The FCC announced the policy

Thursday as it sanctioned three radio stations it said made indecent broadcasts: KPFK-FM in Los Angeles; KCSB-FM in Santa Barbara Calif.; and WYSP-FM in Philadelphia. The agency referred the Los Angeles case stations that have taken liberties in . The commission said it did not take which some of the performers may harsher action against the stations have used what the commission is because it wanted to alert broadcastreferring to as indecent," he said. ers to its new policy before enforcing

Patient

Howard Peterson, director of the University of the Western Cape, Bellville, South Africa

Professor of Physics University of the Western Cape, Bellville, South Africa MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1987 7:30 P.M.

Brown egg sales are laying at Easter Associated Press Writer BOSTON — Brown just isn't a color shrink-wrap egg decorations. most people like for Easter eggs, "We were trying to sell them to the according to New England producers wrong people in the supermarkets," who have been scrambling for years Bell said last week. "We were used to to crack the white eggs' hold on the dealing with the dairy buyers, but the gland Brown Egg Council. eggstra eggs for dyeing, hiding, roll- still like to see people use the colorful ing and traditional breads that call plastic sleeves that retail for about for hard-boiled eggs baked into them. $1.25 a package.

But white eggs normally win out the heavy sales period, so the council helped develop and market plastic general merchandise buyer handles

"Everybody has a surplus of brown Easter egg dye." eggs at Easter," said William Bell, After a year, the council dropped secretary-treasurer of the New En- out of the decoration business, he

At Easter, there's a market for But brown egg producers would Elm trees will be sprayed tonight and/or tommorrow at: The Mall and the Henderson Mall, the areas around Electrical Engineering Buildings East and West, Mitchell Lane and University House.

Correction

Due to an editing error, Thursday's Collegian incorrectly said diabetics inject insulin into their veins. They inject it into fat tissues and surrounding cells, so that it is absorbed and used by the body.

in Italian in his Easter message.

very beginning, the unrenounceable dignity that is may live according to the only way worthy of him.

John Paul also told the Easter crowd, "love is this month, some people began throwing rocks.

"Grant that, in harmony with the divine plan, he

Several students sit back casually in Schwab Auditorium letting their feet hang | Due to a source error, the Collegian also said circumcision is rare in Moslem countries. The practice is almost universal in Moslem countries.

for a look at the 66-year-old pope, who wore a tall, "The death of Christ is a new beginning. The two-peaked gold miter, or bishop's hat, and a beginning of life which has no end," the pope said Dressing up the steps of St. Peter's were bursts "In God, the life of the human being has its

After the Mass, when the pope climbed a stair- "May reverent wonder for the mystery of love greeting in Latin, the traditional tongue of the act which from the very beginning God willed as a

Pope gets over cold, celebrates Easter mass

white robe striped gold down the middle.

By FRANCES D'EMILIO

VATICAN CITY — His voice tempered by a cold, Pope John Paul II celebrated Easter Sunday Mass of spring colors in the form of potted orange-red eternal source in a unique way, the human being for some 150,000 people at a sun-drenched altar tulips, yellow daffodils, pink azaleas and pale whom he himself fashions in his own image when forth in its 1976 order on the Carlin entendre with news, music and traffic adorned with tens of thousands of spring flowers purple and white hyacinths and rhododendron. he quickens in the mother's womb," the pope said. on the gray stone steps of St. Peter's Basilica. In his traditional Easter message "Urbi et Orbi" case and appeared on the central balcony of the that surrounds his coming into the world not die (Latin for to the city of Rome and the world), the basilica, shouts of "Viva il papa!" (Long live the out in contemporary man," he said. pope linked the Christian belief in the resurrection pope) resounded from the crowd, which over- John Paul prayed that God may "grant that the of the crucified Christ — the basis of Easter — to flowed from the Bernini-designed square to the man of the technological age may not reduce respect for all forms of life and appeared to be side streets of this 108.7-acre independent city himself to a mere object, but may respect, from its reiterating a recent church condemnation of artifistate.

peatedly said they've been pleased days before receiving a human heart Romans came on bicycle and foot, in car, bus Orbi' speech in Italian and then delighted the transplant. About two weeks after the and taxi to the service, and crowded, elbow-to-crowd by wishing the world peace and joy in 51 Vastvan said Rohrer told the press second operation, Mandia died of elbow, in St. Peter's Square along with tourists languages, including a lengthy salutation to the the way of giving, from person to person, in a Friday afternoon that physicians complications linked to an infection who arrived thanks to the help of tour guides or Roman Catholic church in his native Poland and a context of love expressed through the flesh in an tattered city maps. Spring seemed to have finally arrived in Rome, that a trust fund established in Hunt- which in recent weeks had seen rain alternate with ngdon was helping finance her hus-sunshine, and thousands of people stopped on the and his voice wasn't as powerful as it often is band's medical expenses, which at way to the Vatican to have a mid-morning espres- during his speeches. But it was markedly better so at cafes which set tables and chairs on side-than during Vatican services last week commem-walks and narrow streets.

orating Jesus' passion and crucifixion. Then, John a rioting crowd in Santiago, Chile, on April 3. The heart performed flawles- University hospital, said last month Men took off suit jackets and many put on hats to Paul's voice was hoarse, and his cold kept him During his Mass at a park in the Chilean capital that Cresswell's direct medical costs shield themselves from the strong hazy sun as they from reaching the high notes during the sung during his two-week visit to South America earlier stood in St. Peter's Square and craned their necks ceremonies

TO AN INFORMAL DISCUSSION DR. HENRY P. ABDOLL Head, Liaison Department

YOU ARE INVITED

DR. MERLIN C. MEHL

Paul Robeson Cultural Center

fast delivery

231-0231

*Prices are different than in-store prices

Present this coupon to get a large 1-item pizza and four Pepsi's for $7.50! Expires 4/25/87 Customer pays all applicable sales tax. One coupon per pizza.