TO ENROLL...

Each semester the Center for Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) offers a number of groups. Most of the groups meet weekly for 2 hours. The groups are open only to Penn State students. Enrollment is free and can be made directly through CAPS, 217 Ritenour Health Cent, 863-0395, between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday, through Friday. To participate in the group, you must first make an appointment to see the leaders. All groups have limited enrollment so come by soon if you are interested.

STRESS

Need some assistance in dealing with the pressures of classes, roommates, relationships in general, or life at PSU? This group is designed to teach coping skills which you can employ both here and after graduation. Emphasis on psychosomatic conditions will be dealt with in the group.

LEADER: Marty Marder, Psycologist TIME: TO BE ANNOUNCED

INTERPERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

This is a semi-structured group where group members will explore how their own thoughts, feelings, and behavior influence their satisfaction with relationships. In addition, group members will be encouraged to identify and work on changing one way in which they communicate or cope in relationships.

LEADER: Sharon Hamilton, Psychologist IME: Wednesdays, 2:00-4:00 (starting June 24)

by eating in excess or by starving in order to develop a certain body type. Ten to twenty percent of college-age women binge on large amounts of food and eliminate the food by vomiting, using laxatives, or going on a severe fast. This condition is called "bulimarexia" and there are treatment strategies to help the bulimarectic individual change this problematic way of relating to food and their self-image. If you are interested in being part of a group of women with these concerns, call 863-0395 and schedule an interview with the group leader.
