

Doug Erney will not play QB in college

MECHANICSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Doug Erney doesn't plan to follow in his brother's footsteps.

Erney is a 5-foot-11, 183-pound senior quarterback at Mechanicsburg High School.

His brother, Scott, is a junior quarterback who has been posting some impressive numbers as the starter for Rutgers University.

Doug Erney knows he won't be throwing the football after this season. He is being recruited as a wide receiver and defensive back.

"Doug is the same kind of athlete his brother was," Mechanicsburg Coach Rich Lichtel said. "He's making a great sacrifice by playing quarterback."

"For two years, Doug was an outstanding receiver and defensive back. We asked him to play quarterback as a senior and he did it for the good of the team."

"He's such a good athlete but he's not a natural quarterback the way Scott was. He's not the passer Scott was."

Lichtel said Doug has the polish of a quarterback who has played for several years.

"He's added a nice dimension to our team," Lichtel said. "Doug is such a smart kid he called a lot of plays on his own."

Although the Erney brothers never got to play on the same high school team, they both had a football background. Their father, Ray Erney, is head football coach at Carlisle High School.

"They used to get together a lot in the summer and work out," Lichtel said. "Doug was an excellent receiver for his brother."

Lichtel said it's tough for Doug to have to live up to the expectations of fans.

"He's done a much better job than people realize," the Mechanicsburg coach said. "We're 5-3 and it's tough on our kids after winning it all last year."

Lichtel said he's not surprised that Scott Erney has become one of the top passers in Rutgers' history.

"We all knew Scott had great talent," Lichtel said.
