

Iowa crushes Kansas; Syracuse wins

By The Associated Press

Michigan's ninth-ranked basketball team got an icy reception in Alaska, while No. 7 Kansas felt the heat in Hawaii.

No. 17 Arizona beat Michigan 79-64 Saturday in the semifinals of the Great Alaska Shootout. A few thousand miles away, No. 11 Iowa clobbered Kansas 100-81 in the semifinals of the Maui Classic.

Kansas Coach Larry Brown said Iowa's full-court press exploited weaknesses in the Jayhawks' backcourt.

"I think they wanted us to shoot outside and shoot quickly and not get Danny (Manning) involved in the offense," Brown said. "That's just what we did."

Manning, a 6-foot-11 preseason All-America, was held to seven points in the second half after getting 16 in the first half. He fouled out with 4:37 left in the game.

One of Manning's fouls triggered an outburst by Brown that led to a technical foul against the Kansas coach.

"I was upset and I said something about it," Brown said. "But that was not the game. The game was decided when Iowa fought back and got the lead and then we didn't play as a team."

Iowa guard Jeff Moe came off the bench to spark the Hawkeyes with 22 points, including 15 on 3-point shots.

"He's a terrific sixth man," Iowa Coach Tom Davis said. "Coming off the bench, I don't know if there's anybody in the country who's better."

One of the keys to Arizona's victory over Michigan was its 35-28 rebounding edge.

"We knew we had to hit the boards," said Arizona forward Sean Elliot, who had 14 points and eight rebounds. "We're physical and so are they."

Guard Steve Kerr had 14 points and five assists for Arizona.

more confidence in a player than we have in Steve Kerr," Arizona Coach Lute Olson said. "He's the glue."

Michigan Coach Bill Frieder said his team has a lot of room for improvement.

"Our inside defense has to get better," he said, "and we have to do a better job of rebounding. But all those things come with experience."

In other games involving Top Ten teams Saturday, No. 1 Syracuse beat Alabama-Birmingham 79-63 in the semifinals of the Great Alaska Shootout at Anchorage; No. 3 North Carolina beat Richmond 87-76 to win the Central Fidelity Classic; No. 4 Pittsburgh downed Robert Morris 96-70; No. 5 Kentucky defeated Hawaii 86-59 and No. 6 Indiana beat Miami of Ohio 90-65.

In games involving teams in the Second Ten, No. 14 Florida edged Seton Hall 70-68 to win the Big Apple NIT; No. 15 Duke beat Appalachian State 110-74; No. 16 Georgetown beat Hawaii-Loa 92-39; No. 19 Oklahoma defeated Texas A&M 104-80 and Pepperdine upset No. 20 DePaul in overtime, 84-76.

Yesterday Kansas met Illinois for third place at Maui, followed by Iowa against Villanova for the championship. Michigan faced Alabama-Birmingham for third place at Anchorage.

Sherman Douglas scored 24 points to lead Syracuse, which plays Arizona for the Alaska Shootout title tonight, over UAB.

"I think we did a great job using our half-court trap and pressing them both man-to-man and zone," Douglas said. "In the first half, the flow was going to me, and when I get on a roll it's kind of hard to stop."

Despite the victory, Syracuse Coach Jim Boeheim was upset that the Orangemen missed half of their 28 free throws.

"We are not going to beat anybody from the free throw line," he said. "We work at it every day but that's something I have no control over. It's going to cost us but we have no real control over it."

Jeff Lebo scored 21 of his 28 points from 3-point range in leading North Carolina to its third victory of the season. Richmond trailed by only six points with 13 minutes left, but North Carolina scored the next five points to break the game open.

Pittsburgh Coach Paul Evans said he "screamed at my guys for 10 minutes" at halftime, with the Panthers leading by just three points. He was happier in the second half, which Pitt opened with an 18-2 run.

Robert Lock scored 18 points to lead Kentucky, which put visiting Hawaii away with a 17-0 run in the second half.

Dean Garrett scored 25 points and Rick Calloway added 19 as Indiana began defense of its NCAA championship.

Vernon Maxwell hit two free throws with six seconds left to give Florida the Big Apple NIT championship over Seton Hall.
