Collision on E. Park Avenue causes $4,900 total damages

Two cars were moderately damaged in a collision at the intersection of East Park Avenue and Fox Hollow Road Sept. 4, State College Bureau of Police Services said.

An unidentified Bellefonte man was driving his car east on East Park Avenue when he attempted to make a left turn onto Fox Hollow Road and cut off the car driven by Donald Grosser Jr., of Media, who was traveling west on East Park Avenue, police said Police estimated the damage to the Bellefonte man's vehicle at $2,700 and Grosser's at $2,200. No one was injured in the accident, police said.

Two-vehicle accident in town nets damages; no one hurt

Two vehicles were damaged in a two-car accident at 8:12 a.m. Sept. 3 at the intersection of South Atherton Street and West Beaver Avenue, police said.

David LauderBaugh of Delaware was driving his car south on South Atherton Street when he attempted to make a left turn onto West Beaver Avenue and cut into the path of Claire Bishcoff of Michigan. Bischoff was also driving her car south on South Atherton Street but was in the left lane

LauderBaugh's vehicle was moderately damaged and Bishcoff's was slighty damaged in the accident, police said. No injuries were reported. LaudorBough was issued a citation for making an illegal turn, police said.

LOG

Criminal Mischief: A window was smashed with a brick yesterday morning at the South Hills Business School, 480 Waupelani Drive, State College police said.

Criminal Mischief: A dry chemical fire extinguisher was discharged in the first floor of Sackett Building about 9 p.m. Sunday, University Police Services said.

Three male students were discovered in the area and one admitted to discharging the extinguisher, police said. The man was identified and issued a citation, police said.

Criminal Mischief: An elevator in Porter Hall was damaged by an unknown person who pulled a bar loose from inside the elevator, University police said.

The incident was reported to police at 6:52 p.m. Sept. 1, police said. No damage estimate to the elevator was given.

Fire: A fire that broke out in the fourth floor laundry room of Packer Hall sometime between 1:50 p.m. and 2:16 p.m. Sept. 3 was extinguished by University police, police said. The fire probably started when a dryer overheated, police said.

■ Theft: A blue, 10-speed Kent bicycle valued at $200 was taken from a bicycle rack on the southwest side of Stuart Hall sometime between 3:30 p.m. Aug. 31 and 9:40 a.m. Sept. 1, University police said.

Feline friend Paul Bahn (senior-geography) takes a break to keep his furry pal Otto Parts entertained yesterday afternoon on a Fraser Street lawn.

Police said the bicycle belongs to Barry Ritchie, 703 Stuart.

■ Theft: A computer system was taken from 320 Willard Building sometime between Sept. 1 and yesterday, University police said.

A wooden cabinet with the computer inside was broken into but police have not been able to identify what kind of computer was taken or its value, police said.

■ Theft: The locks and change from four vending machines at the Holiday Inn, 1450 S. Atherton St., were taken sometime between Sept. 1 and Sept. 4, State College police said. Police said they do not know how much money was taken.

Theft: A vending machine on the second floor of the Nittany Lion Inn, Park Lane, was broken into sometime between 11:30 p.m. and midnight Sept. 3 and an unknown amount of change and products was taken, University police said.

Police could not specify what type of product the machine contained or estimate damage.

Theft: Two University males alleged removed a fire extinguisher from Cooper Hall early Sept. 3 and were apprehended by officers on the south side of Wolf Hall after they were identified by witnesses, University police said. The men, who are students at the University's Ogontz Campus, were identified, issued citations and released, police said.

-compiled by Terrie Mahoney

