Backup goalie makes five saves as lady laxers win

By MICHAEL MATVEY
 Collegian Sports Writer

Despite not having its starting goalie, the women's lacrosse team took a 5-0 lead and went on to defeated Dartmouth, 7-5, yesterday in Hanover, N.H. Kay Young was injured in practice Friday when she bent down to get a shot and could not get back up. She was helped off the field and it was thought she would not play yesterday. Coach Julie Williams said although Young was capable of playing, she decided to rest her and start Stephanie Polvino.

"I think it was the better choice to go with Stephanie right from the beginning of the game rather than to risk anything with Kay," Williams said. Kay was a little stiff today so it was the right choice. I hope she'll be playing by Thursday."

The strategy worked as Polvino made five saves.

Young's injury was not the only problem for the Lady Lions yesterday. With four seconds left in the game, Megan Smith twisted her ankle and will miss tomorrow's game against Lafayette. Diane Whipple and Karen Hoysted each scored two goals as the Lady Lions raised their record to 8-2.

Penn State took the lead when Deanna Blood scored off a Smith assist, the only goal of the first half.

"I pulled the players together before the game and said, 'It's up to you to support and encourage (Stephanie),' Williams said. "Be confident in each other and in Stephanie."

The Lady Lions came out strong in the second half and scored the first four goals. Whipple scored first at 27:20 followed by Lori Fitzgerald from Faith Sweeney at 30:30. Whipple then netted her second goal of the game from Smith, and then Hoysted scored again from Smith.

Dartmouth finally got on the board with the next three goals. Judy Parrish netted two and teammate Stacy Howton scored between the two Parrish goals to make the score 5-3.

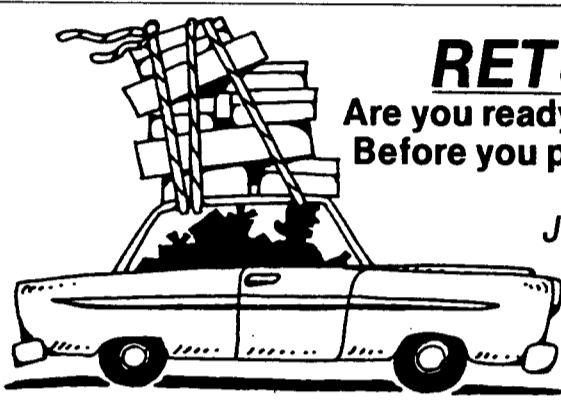

Penn State came back when Fitzgerald scored at 42:15 but Dartmouth's Margaret Field returned the favor at 46:48 to make the score 6-4.

Hoysted and Field exchanged goals to make the final 7-5.

"We had control of the game the whole time in the attack end we weren't looking for the high percentage shot," Williams said. "We were taking low angle shots and were a little anxious."

Penn State now will play Lafayette at home tomorrow and at Maryland on Thursday.

"It's going to be a tough week with two more injuries but I think they can cope with it," Williams said.
