

Phils' Jackson hurls 10th win, Cubs hold off Expos

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Danny Jackson became the fifth Philadelphia starter to win 10 or more games this season last night, pitching 7 2-3 strong innings to help the Phillies beat the Colorado Rockies 4-2.

The win snapped a three-game losing streak for the Phillies, who have still maintained a big lead over St. Louis in the NL East.

Jackson (10-9) gave up four hits, struck out two and walked one as the Phillies snapped Colorado's five-game winning streak. Mitch Williams got the last three outs for his 36th save, allowing a run.

The 31-year-old Jackson joined Tommy Greene (12-3), Terry Mulholland (11-9), Ben Rivera (11-6) and Curt Schilling (10-6) as Phillies with 10 or more victories. The only other time the Phillies had five starters with 10 or more wins was in 1932.

Jackson had a one-hit shutout through seven innings but was chased in the eighth when the Rockies got three singles, including an RBI hit by Jerald Clark.

Willie Blair (5-10) pitched six innings, allowing six hits, four runs, striking out five and walking two.

The Phillies took a 3-0 lead in the second with the help of a throwing error by third baseman Charlie Hayes.

Pete Incaviglia was safe on the error, advanced to third on Jim Eisenreich's bad-hop single and scored on an RBI single by Kevin Stocker. Eisenreich stopped at second and moved to third on a walk to Jackson loading the bases. Lenny Dykstra drove in a run with a sacrifice fly and Mariano Duncan another on a ground out.

Philadelphia made it 4-0 in the sixth on Eisenreich's RBI grounder.

CUBS 6, EXPOS 5

MONTREAL (AP) — Randy Myers saved his 37th game to tie Bruce Sutter's club record set in 1979 as the Chicago Cubs beat the Montreal Expos 6-5.

Derrick May scored twice, including the go-ahead run, as the Cubs took advantage of a sloppy Montreal defense.

Dan Plesac (1-1), the fourth Chicago pitcher, tossed one inning for the victory. Jose Bautista pitched a scoreless eighth and Myers worked the ninth.

Chicago scored twice in the fifth against starter Ken Hill (7-5) to take a 6-5 lead. The Cubs snapped a three-game losing streak and stopped Montreal's three-game winning streak.

Mark Grace doubled, went to third on Hill's second wild pitch of the game and, after May walked, scored on a sacrifice fly by Rick Wilkins.

Hill allowed six hits in five innings and has not won since July 22. The right-hander is 1-5, with six no-decisions since May 26.

Trailing 4-1 in the third, Chicago scored two runs on a two-out RBI double by May and a fielding error by third baseman Wil Cordero.

In the fourth, Cordero's second error of the game — and 31st of the season — and a balk by Hill tied the score.

Cordero atoned for his costly miscues by doubling off starter Frank Castillo to open the fourth and scoring on a single by Marquis Grissom.

Castillo, winless in five starts in August, allowed eight hits in just four innings.

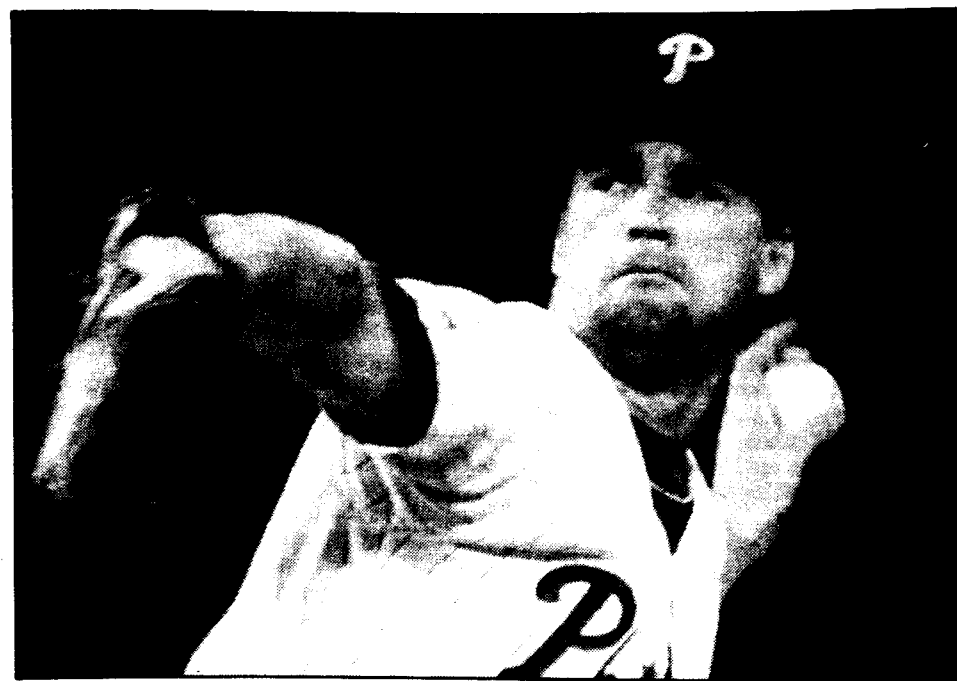

Dwight Smith hit his 11th homer in the Cubs first inning.

METS 5, REDS 4

NEW YORK (AP) — Jeff McKnight hit a pinch triple in the ninth inning and scored the winning run when Cincinnati Reds reliever Kevin Wickander threw a wild pitch to give the New York Mets a 5-4 victory.

The Mets snapped a four-game losing streak despite squandering a two-run lead in the top of the ninth. The Reds have lost 11 of their last 14 games.

winner. Jerry Spradlin (2-1) who started the ninth inning, allowed the triple to McKnight and then was relieved by Wickander.

Mets starter Frank Tanana allowed two runs on three hits while striking out five and walking two in seven innings. Reds Rookie Larry Luebbers gave up four runs and four hits in six innings.

Bobby Bonilla hit a two-run homer for the Mets, his 28th.

The Reds tied it 4-all with two runs in the ninth inning. Reggie Sanders opened with a walk and pinch-hitter Tom Howard was safe on shortstop Kevin Baez's throwing error.

Two outs later, with pinch-hitter Joe Oliver batting, Sanders and Howard stole third and second.

Bonilla's homer came in the first inning on a 3-1 pitch as New York took a 3-0 lead.
