Joe Carter wants wins. not records

TORONTO (AP) — A place in the record book doesn't mean nearly as much to Joe Carter as the Toronto Blue Jays' place in the standings.

The Blue Jays, deadlocked with the New York Yankees atop the American League East standings with less than six weeks to play, wasted a record-breaking performance by Carter in a 9-8 loss to the Cleveland Indians Monday night.

Carter homered three times in a game for the fifth time in his career, breaking a tie with Lou Gehrig for the most three-homer games in AL history.

Only Johnny Mize, who hit three homers six times, has done it more.

"I was aware of the record," Carter said. "I've been aware of it since 1989 when I had my last three-homer game against the Texas Rangers. But I'd trade this one in for a win.

'You've got to win the ball games at home."

Carter sure tried.

He pulled the Blue Jays even at 2-all with a two-run homer on the first pitch he saw from Indians starter Albie Lopez in the first inning. homered again on the first pitch against Lopez in the fifth, and "threepeated" with another solo shot off Jeremy Hernandez on a 3-2 pitch in the eighth.

That homer, Carter's 27th of the season, made it 9-8, and that's how it stayed, leaving the Blue Jays' right fielder feeling bittersweet about taking a place in history.

"We wasted some good hitting tonight," he said. "We play well on the road, but we've got to start playing better here at home. We've got a lot of road games left, but they won't mean too much if we don't win

For Toronto, Carter's outburst bodes well. He'd been struggling until about a week ago, and a hot bat for Carter could prove the difference between another first-place finish for the Blue Jays and also-ran status.

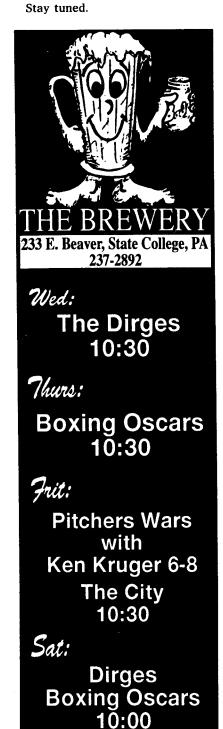

"This is the time of year when the club needs my bat," he said. "I struggled for a while there, but I worked on a couple things with (hitting coach) Larry (Hisle) and we ironed them out. I know if we're going to hold off the Yankees I'm going to have to keep it going.'

Lopez said Carter got it going on good pitches.

"It was down and away and he just stuck his bat on it and sent it out," Lopez said. "I thought I put it where I wanted it."

He did, and then Carter put it where he wanted it.

"He can reach for the outside pitch and take it out of the park," said Blue Jays first baseman John Olerud. "Joe's one of those hitters who, when he gets it going, can hit five or six in a week."
