Murphy predicts future film success

LOS ANGELES — Don't ask Eddie Murphy how to make a hit.

"I've had movies that I thought, 'Oh! This is it! This is going to be the one! They're going to line up around the block to see this!' Murphy told TV's 'Extra' in an interview for broadcast today.

"And it comes out and I'm like, 'They didn't like that?'"

Murphy has had a string of successes — Beverly Hills Cop and 48 HRS. — as well as some box-office bombs, including Harlem Nights, Boomerang and The Distinguished Gentleman.

He predicts a hit with his remake of the 1963 Jerry Lewis comedy The Nutty Professor, which will be released next summer.

"It's really a funny picture. I can't wait for Jerry Lewis to see this," Murphy said.

Hollywood marriage lasts for half century

RIDGWAY, Colo. — Actor Dennis Weaver and his wife, Gerry, put on that rarest of Hollywood productions: a 50th wedding anniversary celebration.

Half of their 450 guests Saturday were actors and Hollywood friends, including Linda Gray and Ed Begley Jr. The other half included Colorado fans and family, including four grandchildren.

Weaver, whose marriage is even older than his 47-year career, offers simple advice: "Find the sweetest thing

Grant wants to play other British bad boy

LONDON — Actor Hugh Grant wants to play Nick Leeson, the Barings Bank trader who has had his own share of problems with the law.

Leeson faces three charges of forgery and eight charges of fraud in connection with the billion-dollar collapse of Barings. Leeson wiped out the bank's cash reserves by losing some $1.38 billion on Asian futures markets.

Leeson, 28, could earn up to $4.7 million from the proposed $31 million film, the paper said, but he faces 14 years in prison if convicted.

'Beverly Hills' star loves farm animals

LOS ANGELES — "Beverly Hills, 90210" star Jennie Garth's barnyard menagerie isn't in danger of becoming dinner: The actress is a vegetarian.

Garth posed at her ranch home with her goats Marge and Lulu and her chicken Frida to promote the People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals holiday catalog.

The catalog features, among other things, gifts from bath products not tested on animals to faux chinchilla berets created by designer Todd Oldham.

The publication also provides "vacationing with your pet" hints that include a list of animal-friendly hotels.
