

Lady spikers get by Purdue, Northwestern

By JAMES REESER
Collegian Sports Writer

When the Purdue Boilermakers stepped onto the floor Saturday night to face the Lady Lion volleyball team, they knew they would have their hands full. They also knew they would have to play an almost perfect match to beat the No. 9 Lady Lions.

Despite playing a hard-fought match, Purdue couldn't handle the Lady Lions who swept the Boilermakers in three games by scores of 15-5, 15-2 and 15-6. The Lady Lions defeated Northwestern Friday night in three games, 15-7, 15-1 and 15-3.

"We came here with a goal to compete," first-year Purdue Coach Joey Vrazel said. "We have tremendous respect for Penn State. I have a locker room full of really upset players who felt like they played their heart out. I'm very proud of the effort we brought out tonight. It's so hard to see so much hard work not result in anymore points."

Early in game one, Purdue (6-18 overall, 4-12 Big Ten) knotted the score at four before Penn State (25-4, 13-3) went on an 8-0 run. In game two the Boilermakers scored early, but would fail to score again until they Lady Lions had a 7-1 advantage.

The Boilermakers didn't quit as they capitalized on a slow Penn State start in game three. At one point in the game the score was tied at five — however the Lady Lions would prevail in the end.

"I thought we played well," Lady Lion Coach Russ Rose said. "Purdue never really had the opportunity to get on track."

The Lady Lions played well all around. As a team, the Lady Lions hit 33 percent with only eight errors and no return errors. In the first two games Penn State had only four hitting errors.

On the other side of the net Purdue hit in the negative (-0.025) and had 31 hitting errors. Junior middle blocker Brooke White, the Big Ten Player of the Week, was the only starter to finish with a positive hitting percentage — 25 percent. On the night she had 10 kills and eight digs.

"I think it was a really good match the first two games," said sophomore middle hitter Terri Zemaitis, who had 24 kills on the weekend. "We just had too many hitting errors in the third game. We should've just put them away right away in the third game, but they came out competitive."

Junior outside hitter Kammer led the Lady Lions with 11 kills and eight digs. Senior outside hitter Zeynep Top had 10 kills and 10 digs.

On Friday night the Lady Lions proved to be too much for the kitten-like Wildcats.

"I thought we were OK," Rose said. "I think Northwestern was a bigger problem for Northwestern than Penn State was for Northwestern."

The Wildcats (5-20, 1-14) hit 4.9 percent as a team with 23 errors. Sophomore middle blocker Sharon Fisk led the Wildcats with seven kills. Freshman Jessica Holloway, who averaged 3.13 kills per game heading into Friday's match, managed only two kills on the night.

Slumping Rottinghaus sparkles in weekend wins

By GEOFF MOSHER

Lady Lion outside hitter Heidi Rottinghaus never led the team in hitting percentage for a match this year. Over the weekend, she proved there is a first for everything.

In Penn State's two victories over Northwestern and Purdue, Rottinghaus came out of a recent slump to revive a Lady Lion team that has struggled in the past few matches.

"Heidi played much better tonight than she has played in the past couple of matches," Penn State Coach Russ Rose said.

Rottinghaus led the team in hitting efficiency both nights. She hit .455 against Northwestern and .500 against Purdue, well above her .178 season average. Rottinghaus also contributed on defense, her known specialty. Rottinghaus is the Big Ten's dig leader with 237.

"I had a good defensive weekend."

"I had a good defensive weekend which usually is what I'm supposed to do," she said. "That's why it was a good weekend for me. It was a good weekend for the team in general because we've been in a slump."

Rottinghaus owns the Lady Lion three-game dig record with 25. She averages 5.04 digs per game in 14 conference matches and is known for being the team's best leaper.

Before this game, her slump was solely an offensive one. The digs were present, but she was hitting poorly.

Now that Rottinghaus has turned around her offensive play, she looks forward to battling the conference's top team Michigan State next Friday. When the Lady Lions lost to the Spartans on Oct. 21, Rottinghaus registered a career-high 26 digs. She said the team is unified and can beat the Spartans.

"This is a big match for us," the junior said. "We know we can do it, especially now that we're playing well."

Today's HOROSCOPES

By Jacqueline Bigar ©1995 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Monday, Nov. 13, 1995:
This is a special year when you solve problems because of your ability to adapt and grow. You will start to view the unpredictable as good and workable. You will fall into many odd opportunities, and you will transform situations with your personality and commitment. If you are single, romance comes in the most unanticipated ways. Don't expect it to be a long-term romance, and it will succeed. If attached, make time for your significant other. LEO can trigger you in many ways.

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) ★★★★★ Unusual occurrences force you to be more progressive in your ideas. You are pushed to perform on your highest level; be committed to excellence. Keep a sense of humor as you handle unexpected developments. One-to-one relating is highlighted. Tonight: You flirt.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) ★★ Deal with personal matters directly. There is no substitute for your touch. Be willing to make your mark. Unexpected news may jolt and surprise you. Be grounded, yet maintain a lightness when talking. Tonight: Homeward bound.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) ★★★★★ Be sensitive to others' perspectives. You deal with an unanticipated jolt. You clearly state your choices and needs, and you communicate your limits in a nice way. Examine your priorities. Your fun-loving nature makes the day sparkle. Tonight: Hang out.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) ★★ Financial and emotional changes mark the day. Understanding your limitations. Brainstorming helps your finances and makes things happen. Go for what you need. You have to pull teeth, but in the long run, you get what you want. Tonight: Pay bills.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) ★★★★★ Your biggest challenge is your own energy levels. Be willing to state your limits. Your dynamic personality helps you clear barriers. Others are clearly drawn to you, and you weasel your way to success. Honor changes. Tonight: You call the shots.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) ★★ Pull back, and do some soul searching. A child or loved one may be having an overly strong reaction. Do a better job of listening and caring. You easily handle your moods and someone else's criticism. Slow but steady puts you in the winner's circle. Tonight: Get needed rest.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) ★★★★★ Extremes punctuate the next few days. Be willing to manage a situation with adroitness and creativity. Be yourself. Handle finances clearly. The unexpected occurs, and you deal well with a business partner. Be imaginative. Tonight: Focus on what you want.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) ★★★★★ Stay on top of a situation — you are in control of a problem if you just stop reacting. Choose your responses with care. Associations with a boss or concerning a career matter are important. Be more, in sync with your long-term goals. Tonight: Burn the midnight oil.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) ★★★★★ Reach out to someone who is at a distance. Be aware of your financial limitations. You deal well with change. Investigate choices carefully. You know more than you think. Consult an expert if you must. You are more in sync than you know. Tonight: Go to the movies.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) ★★ You create a lot of upheaval where there needs to be calmness. Stay in touch with your limits and those of a partner. You do a great job of evaluating your direction. Being direct helps others understand your goals and ideas. Question your choices. Tonight: Go for closeness.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) ★★★★★ Defer to someone, and make the most of an associate's offer. You feel better than you have and make a difference with your jovial style and ways. Be open to the unusual. Touch base with what is going on within. Your wilder side comes out. Tonight: Say yes to an offer.
PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) ★★★★★ You get a lot done quickly because of your ability to analyze and resolve problems. Upheaval may disturb others, but you do well handling the immediate upset. See through the confusion and know what is important to you. You are aiming high. Tonight: Get some exercise.
BORN TODAY
Actress-comedian Whoopi Goldberg (1949), producer Garry Marshall (1934), actor Richard Mulligan (1932).
