TV stress too much for Tammy Faye

NEW YORK - Six weeks of the "Jim J. and Tammy Faye Show" was about all Tammy Faye Messner could take.

The former wife of disgraced evangelist Jim Bakker has quit the syndicated TV show, saying the workload was too much as she deals with the difficulties of her current husband who awaits sentencing for bankruptcy and fraud.

"The rigorous taping schedule and the stress that comes with a national television show is more than I can handle at this personally difficult time," Mrs. Messner said Tuesday in a statement.

Mrs. Messner also said that she wants to spend more time working on an inspirational book.

Mrs. Messner as Jim J. Bullock's co-host.

New plaza named after Soupy Sales

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. Soupy Sales got a plaza in his name instead of a pie in the face.

The comic's hometown named a plaza in front of the city's civic arena in honor of Sales, who gained fame taking many pies in the face on his own TV show in the late 1950s and early '60s.

me because you usually have to be dead before they do something like this," Sales said on Tuesday.

"But I've died in clubs before.'

Ex defense secretary gives million to college

ALEXANDRIA, Va. - James R. Schlesinger, a former secretary of defense and energy, donated $1 million to Northern Virginia Community College to build an arts and cultural center in memory of his wife.

It will be named the Rachel M. Schlesinger Concert Hall & Arts Center.

Mrs. Schlesinger died in October of cancer. Schlesinger announced the gift Tuesday, on what would have been her 66th birthday.

Schlesinger served as defense secretary for Presidents Nixon and Ford in 1973 and 1974.

Burger boy Rippy Ann Abernethy will succeed finally grows up

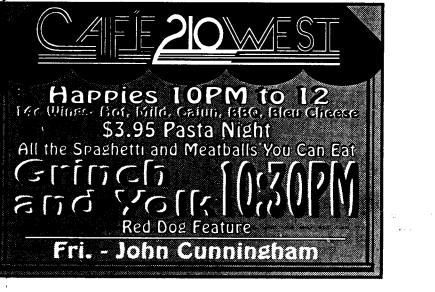

LOS ANGELES — They are TV icons: Mrs. Olson. Mr. Whipple. The Maytag Repairman. The Clapper Lady. And Rodney Allen Rippy.

At 3¹/₂, Rippy conquered America with his adorable, wide-mouth attempt to eat a Jack-in-the-Box Jumbo Jack hamburger.

Twenty-four years later, he's still stuck with the burger image.

"I think people just get a bigger kick out of seeing me. I'll get invited down to auditions and people will say, 'Wow! You "This is very emotional for still look the same.' I have to tell them, 'Forget about that. Just give me the job!" he said. "I still have to prove I can do more than just bite a burger.'
