RAMADA INN

We're turning the new Ramada Inn into one of the finest hotels in Happy Valley. Shortly to be completed, done over from top to bottom, with a brand new look and a great new attitude that's second to none. Just about the only things we aren't changing are the location, still one of the best and most convenient in State College, and a professional, caring staff that provides the ultimate in service to our guests.

Our meeting space is still available for groups up to 200, and you'll find our staff is well trained in anticipating and handling all of the details. And we guarantee that you'll never find the food, or service, lacking.

When it comes to breakfast, lunch or dinner, or get-togethers after a busy day, our restaurant and lounge still offers a fine atmosphere and great food. At prices that are easy to swallow.

So, stop on by. You'll find there's a whole lot of changes going on besides our name.
