Corrections

The Daily Collegian incorrectly identified WKPS-FM in a photo yesterday. WKPS-FM was one of the sponsors of a pool party Saturday at the outdoor pool of McCoy Natatorium.

If you have a news-related correction or complaint, please contact Managing Editor Amy Brosey or Editor in Chief Rachel Hogan at 865-1828.

Police Log

■ Criminal Trespass: An anonymous person reported Sunday two people were swimming in the outdoor pool at McCoy Natatorium when the facility was closed and locked, University Police Services said.
The two students were issued citations and released, police said.

■ Open Lewdness: An anonymous person reported a male exposed his genitals outside of Pennypacker Hall Sunday, University police said.
Officers searched for the person, but he had already fled before their arrival, the police said.

Announcements from Shields

The following information is provided by the Office of Student Aid, the University Registrar, the Bursar's Office, the Office of Housing and Food Service Operations and Undergraduate Admissions.

should contact the Housing Office in Pollock for storage.

■ Male Undergraduate Students: We are no longer accepting requests to cancel 97-98 Academic Year Housing Contracts. Male Undergraduate students with a contract will be responsible for fulfilling the terms of the contract.

■ Female Undergraduate Students (non freshman) and All Graduate Students: We are still accepting requests to cancel the 97/98 Academic Year Housing contracts. You must deliver your request to the Assignment Office in 101 Shields or fax your request to us at 814-863-8364.

■ Direct Room Exchanges: Each student involved in the room change must submit their request in writing to the Assignment Office. Each student must include their name, ID number, their current room assignment, the name and ID number of the other student involved in the change and room number to which they want to be moved. The room change will be made and the new assignment mailed out after the information has been received from both students.

General Building Information:
■ The offices in Shields Building will be open Arrival Weekend, Aug. 23 and 24, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to serve new and returning students. Services will be available from the following offices: the Office of Student Aid, the University Registrar, the Bursar's Office, Undergraduate Admissions and the Office of Housing and Food Service Operations.

■ Students who have enrolled at another college or university to complete course work for summer graduation on Aug. 9, need to forward a final official transcript to the Undergraduate Admissions Office to have these credits added to their Penn State record. Both the Undergraduate Admissions Office and the graduating academic college should be contacted with any special concerns about transferability of credits.

Student Aid:
■ Students can check the status of their Federal Stafford and/or Parent Loan by using the Office of Student Aid's voice response system. To access the system, you must have a PAC number. If you do not have a PAC number, you will be able to create one during the phone call. To access loan processing information, call 814-865-6301. Select menu option 2 (Federal Stafford and Parent Loans), then select option 1 (Status of your Loans).

Assignment Office:
■ Summer Session students currently living on campus may make arrangements to store their personal belongings over the semester break by contacting the Housing Manager in the area of their FALL Semester assignment. Those students assigned to Nittany Apartments/Suites for Fall

Covener could be dismissed

Former Undergraduate Student Government candidate Jason Covener could be denied a place on the ballot in the upcoming State College Borough Council elections, said Joyce McKinley, director of elections for Centre County Voter Registration.

Covener, a Republican, filed his nomination papers as an independent candidate, McKinley said. To run as an independent, one must be registered as nonpartisan at least 30 days prior to the May 20 primary election.
