GET INVOLVED WITH YOUR FUTURE!

The Student Affairs Executive Internship Program is open to any undergraduate student with at least third semester standing who wants to make a difference for students at Penn State and earn credits at the same time.
Students implement a project to better campus life, and meet weekly with university administrators to discuss issues of import to each. If YOU want to know how the university works and how decisions are made, pick up an application in 101 HUB.
Applications due by 5:00 PM, Nov. 11, 1998. For more information, call 863-4624, or stop by 101 HUB.

GRIPES, CONCERNS, COMPLAINTS? WE KNOW YA GOT 'EM!

Maybe you have questions regarding the USG President, USG Vice-President, Student Trustee or the UPAC Chair. Now's your chance to ask those questions and get answers right from the source. Every Monday will be your day to talk with Caroline Casagrande, Brian Olivo, Bob Myers, and Keith Magasich. These student leaders will be available on the first floor of the HUB from 3:30 to 5:00 PM to explain what they can do for the students of Penn State.
