Second straight honor for Penn State's Welsh

PARK RIDGE, Ill. — For the second consecutive week, Penn State freshman Christie Welsh earned Big Ten Player-of-the-Week accolades for women's soccer, conference officials announced on yesterday.

The native of Long Island, N.Y., helped No. 5 Penn State to two Big Ten wins last weekend. In Friday's 4-1 win against Northwestern, the forward notched her second career hat trick. Welsh put Penn State on the scoreboard in the first half for the 1-0 lead at intermission. She netted the game-winning goal in the second half with her second goal. Less than three minutes later, she completed the trio.

In Sunday's 3-0 shut out of Michigan State, Welsh assisted team captain Courtney Lawson on the game-winning tally, giving the Lady Lions at least a share of their second straight Big Ten Championship. Penn State becomes the first school in the six-year history of Big Ten women's soccer to record back-to-back championships.

The win also tied the school record for consecutive wins with nine, while extending the school records for consecutive Big Ten wins — previously at eight — and Big Ten unbeaten streak, which stood at nine games.

Overall, Welsh leads the Lions in scoring with 59 shots, 16 goals, five assists, and 37 points. Among Big Ten players, Welsh stands first in points with 37 and in goals with 16, and tied for sixth in assists with 5.

Jackson's father's killer given 30 years in prison

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — A woman was sentenced to 30 years in prison for stabbing the father of former Philadelphia Eagles wide receiver Kenny Jackson to death after he refused to give her money.

Dawn Wilson, 28, of South River, will not be eligible for parole during her sentence.

She pleaded guilty in August to felony murder for stabbing Robert McBride, 69, of South River on March 24.

Wilson's grandmother is Sarah Jackson, Kenny Jackson's mother and McBride's former companion. Her mother, Glenda Jackson, asked Superior Court Judge Barnett

Hoffman to forgive her daughter on Monday.

"God is forgiving and loving. If he can forgive, we can too," Jackson said.

Prosecutors said that Wilson stabbed McBride 54 times in his bedroom, then stole hundreds of dollars to buy drugs.

Kenny Jackson was the Eagles' top draft pick in 1984 out of Penn State. He also played for the Houston Oilers before retiring from professional football in 1991. He is now a football coach at Penn State.

Steelers to remember 1974 Super Bowl team

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers will recognize the 25th anniversary of their first Super Bowl team with a halftime tribute during Monday night's game against Atlanta.

Former coach Chuck Noll, Hall of Famers Jack Lambert and Jack Ham, plus L.C. Greenwood, Roy Gerela, Andy Russell and John Stallworth are among those scheduled to attend.

The 1974 team won the first of the Steelers' four Super Bowl championships in six years, a streak that remains unmatched. The Steelers beat Minnesota 16-6 in the Super Bowl that season.

"It is hard to believe that 25 years have passed since that memorable moment in New Orleans," team president Dan Rooney said. "What a tremendous time that was for our organization. It will be great to see many of the players and coaches who made that moment possible."
