

Penn State gets split during weekend

By Michael Yoder
COLLEGIAN STAFF WRITER

For the third weekend in a row, the Penn State women's lacrosse team split a series after facing a top ten-ranked opponent.

The No. 16 Lady Lions (4-5) traveled to Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, winning 16-5 against Ohio State (6-4) on Saturday, and lost 15-7 to No. 9 Delaware (8-0) on Sunday.

Penn State came out hard against Ohio State and scored first at the 28:28 mark of the first period with a goal by Julie Tice, assisted by Molly Ford. The Buckeyes would score their own goal eight minutes later by Celeste Cianfrani. After the initial Ohio State goal, the Lions went on to dominate the period with five goals in a row. B.J. Lucey and Jenn Webb scored two goals in the stretch and Colleen O'Hara added another goal of her own. By the end of the first period, Penn State held a commanding 10-4 lead.

The second period turned out to be even more successful for the Lions. Carey Bush scored early, and Molly Ford answered 22 seconds later with a goal of her own. Penn State never looked back and finished with a goal by Brooke Bailey with one second left to give them the 16-5 victory.

In all, Penn State had 10 players post goals including Lucey with three and Webb, Tice, Christine Kenney and Kate Affonsa each adding two scores. Penn State keeper Megan Ames came up with 15 saves on 20 shots to help in the win.

"We just wanted to go out and work well as a team against Ohio State," Affonsa said. "Everything seemed to fall into place for us on Saturday. We wanted to help each other out and be there for each other on the field. For me, it was a great feeling to know the team was out there working together."

The atmosphere in Sunday's contest against Delaware would prove to be less hospitable for Penn State.

The Lions took the early 2-1 lead in the game with two goals by Lucey, but the Blue Hens would go on a tear. Delaware scored five goals in a row to carry a strong 6-2 lead. The Lions would interrupt the streak with a goal by O'Hara, but Delaware would answer with three more goals in a row. Penn State would end the period with goals by Tice and Webb, trailing 9-5. However, the second half would turn into the Sarah Edwards show.

Edwards, the senior midfielder for the Blue Hens, went on a tear by scoring five goals in the half to add to the two she scored in the first period. She single-handedly dismantled the Penn State defense to put Delaware ahead for good.

"In the first half we tried to contain her (Edwards)," Lucey said. "In the second half we kind of lost focus of her and she took it to us. She is a quick, fast girl. We definitely didn't do enough to contain her."

Tice and Kenney would each score, but simply fell short in the 15-7 loss.

The loss is the fifth in five attempts versus top 10 ranked opponents this season. In five games, the Lions have been outscored 84-37 and only surpassed 10 goals in one of the games, an 18-11 shortfall to James Madison on March 11. Although Penn State is below the .500 mark at this point in the season for the first time since 1998, the Lions look at the losses against the tough opponents as a learning experience for the future.

"The only way you'll get better as a team is to play the elite teams in the country," Lucey said. "We've taken something different away from each game and we're slowly coming together as a team."

Penn State's Jennifer Webb races downfield earlier this season during a home contest.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Tuesday, April 4, 2000: You are unusually centered and together this year. You work well independently, expressing a high level of creativity and dynamic energy. You don't take no for an answer very well, and you can create a lot of uproar if you so choose. If you are single, romance blossoms, especially as summer begins. Learn to understand others better. If attached, be more sensitive to your partner. Empathy will be critical to the flow of your relationship. Plan on that special trip together. ARIES encourages you.
