Women gymnasts finish fourth in regional

The Penn State women's gymnastics team saw its record-setting season come to an end on Saturday night as it placed fourth at the NCAA South Central Regional in Lincoln, Neb. The fourth-place effort will keep the Nittany Lions out of the 2001 NCAA Championships, marking the first time Penn State failed to qualify as a team since 1994.

Sophomores Katie Rowland and Katie McAvoy each posted first place event efforts enabling the duo to qualify for the NCAA Championships on April 19-21 in Athens, Ga., on an individual basis. Rowland will compete in the national championships in floor exercise after notching a 9.925 and tying for the regional title. McAvoy will advance in vault after posting a 9.875 and finishing in a three-way tie for the regional crown.

Penn State registered an overall team score of 194.775 en route to its fourth-place showing. The Lions tallied team event scores of 49.100 (vault), 48.425 (bars), 48.100 (beam) and 49.150 (floor).

Nebraska claimed the regional title with a score of 196.200 and was followed by Oklahoma, which recorded a second-place score of 195.225. Both the Cornhuskers and Sooners will advance as a team to the 2001 NCAA Championships.

McAvoy was Penn State's top all-around finisher with a fourth-place finish and a career-high score of 39.250. Rowland notched the Lions' top showing on the bars with a score of 9.850 and a fifth-place finish. Maria Taylor was the squad's top performer on beam as she finished tied for second overall at 9.850.

Phillies avoid sweep by defeating Cubs, 3-1

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Robert Person allowed one run in seven innings and helped himself with a three-run double as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Chicago Cubs 3-1 yesterday.

Person (1-0) allowed four hits, struck out five, walked two and became the first Phillies pitcher to last through the sixth inning this season.

Philadelphia avoided getting swept by the Cubs at Veterans Stadium for the second straight year. After sweeping a season-opening, three-game series against the Florida Marlins, the Phillies dropped the first two games to Chicago.

Jon Lieber (0-1) allowed three runs and four hits in eight innings. He struck out six, walked two and hit one batter.

Lieber retired the first 14 hitters before Travis Lee lined a two-out single to left in the fifth. Pat Burrell followed with a single and David Newhan walked to load the bases.

Person, a .120 career hitter before the at-bat, then drilled a bases-clearing double to the gap in left-center, giving the Phillies a 3-1 lead. He had three RBIs in 125 career at-bats before the hit.

Ricky Bottalico pitched a perfect eighth and Jose Mesa pitched the ninth to record his second save in three opportunities.

Ramirez's three homers lead Pirates to win

HOUSTON (AP) — Aramis Ramirez homered three times, leading the Pittsburgh Pirates over the Houston Astros 9-3 yesterday.

Ramirez drove in a career-high six runs. He tied the team record for home runs in a game, becoming the first Pittsburgh player to do it since Darnell Coles against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 20, 1987.

Ramirez, who had three home runs after five innings, only got to the plate one more time in his bid to tie the major league mark for homers in a game. He drew a four-pitch walk from Wayne Franklin in the seventh, then was left on-deck when the Pirates were retired in the ninth. Joe Beimel (1-0) went five innings to win in his major league debut. He gave up two runs on five hits and three walks.

The Pirates won their second in a row at Enron Field after losing their first eight.

Ramirez hit his first homer of the season, a two-run shot off Scott Elarton (1-1) in the first. Ramirez connected for a three-run homer in the third off Elarton that made it 7-1. Ramirez topped off his day with a solo home run in the fifth against reliever Nelson Cruz.
