

Be more...

Employers aren't just looking for the right majors.
They're looking for the right people.

Be yourself.

What's Happening Today...

Technical Full-Time Recruiting

1:00 - 6:00 pm

Bryce Jordan Center, enter through Gates A or B

Wear...

professional dress comfortable shoes

Bring...

your student ID
lots of resumes

www.fairs.sa.psu.edu/fall

list of employers • workshops • resume advice • fair tips • contests

Sponsored by:

Visit us at Booth # CON-096
on Thursday
September 20.

2 Ways to Win...

12 Chances to Win!

details online

Across

- Fall Career Days is held at the Bryce Jordan Center.
- To sign up at your college go to www.fairs.sa.psu.edu.
- Attending Fall Career Days is part of your job search.
- Networking reception on Monday at 1:00 pm.
- PSU ID is used to get into the Bryce Jordan Center.
- Setting a price for a message on the fair board gives you a chance to win an iPod.
- Fun zones available for undergraduate students.
- This day is designated for full-time technical career areas.
- Students can enter at this location.
- The building to go to for information on Science on a Chip.
- Some organizations will be conducting these during the week of the fair.
- The building to go to for information on Communications Internship.
- Program when employer representatives bring resumes.
- Career Services will contain the 2007 resume interview for session.
- Employment information on the fair board is available on the fair board.
- Information on the fair board is available on the fair board.
- The building to go to for information on engineering internships and job.
- Bring multiple copies of your resume to the fair.
- Best transportation to get to the BJC.

Down

- These students may search the database of employers to determine when they are sponsoring their work.
- Offered online for students to chat LIVE with employers from the convenience of their rooms.
- Students from which academic majors should attend.
- One prep program is designed to help you dress to do this.
- Resume sharing allows you to submit your resume to employers in before the fair.
- When you meet an employer at the fair you need to be ready to go this for yourself.
- A suit is considered professional when the jacket and trousers are the same color.
- Positions available for graduating students.
- Sessions held by employers to educate students about the organization are called these type of sessions.
- Programs designed to get you ready feature these guest speakers.
- Employment information on the fair board is available on the fair board.
- This day is designated for full-time non-technical career areas.
- The building to go to for information and on all career areas.
- The fair board is available on the fair board.
- The building to go to for information on future internships and job.
- Information on the fair board is available on the fair board.
- Wednesday morning is a special time for these students to meet with employers.
- To take a break at the fair be sure to visit this lounge.
- The best place to go for comprehensive information about the fair.
- Educational experiences available for underclass students.

Submit your completed crossword to the Bank of America Career Services Center. Details online.

Fall Career Days 2007
September 17-21
www.fairs.sa.psu.edu/fall

Write this message on a chalkboard and win!