Global Engagement and Leadership Experience October 15-17

Bald Eagle State Park Applications available at

<http://www.global.psu.edu/dgrp/gli/>

The Global Engagement and Leadership Experience (GELE) was designed specifically for Penn State students to explore what it means to "think global" and how to lead and follow in increasingly multi-national settings. The two part program for undergraduate students will begin with a two and a half day mini-conference on global culture and leadership at Bald Eagle State Park October 15-17. GELE brings international and U.S. students together to positively change campus climate and society by inspiring Penn State students - future leaders - to transform themselves into globally engaged and responsible citizens. No previous experience is required, but a desire to explore new perspectives on leadership and international engagement is preferred! For more information and to apply online, visit the University Office of Global Programs at <http://www.global.psu.edu/dgrp/gli/>
