London, Oct. 2—(3:31 a. m.)—A Berlin dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company, by way of Amsterdam, says:

“Official headquarters this evening announces that the heights of Roze and Fresnoy-Le-Grand, northwest of Novon, were taken September 30. South of St. Mihiel French attacks from Toul were repulsed Thursday, with severe losses to the French. The attack on Antwerp continues successfully. The situation in the eastern war theater remains unchanged.

London, Oct. 1—A Paris dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says:

“A fight is proceeding on one part of the allies' left resembling that at Paardeberg in the South African war. Nearly 4,000 Germans are in the same plight as Gen. Cronje was. They are completely surrounded by French troops in some quarries where they are cut off from all hope of rejoining their division and are being shelled.”

The war information bureau made it known today that Indian troops were landed in France last Friday. The point of landing was not revealed, but it is presumed that the troops disembarked at Marseilles.

French Report Advance Northward.

Paris, Oct. 1—(11:05 p. m.)—The following official announcement was issued tonight:

“This evening there is nothing of particular importance to describe except in the region of Roze (on the French left wing), where a violent action has successfully turned in our favor, and in the Argonne, where we have made progress at several new points.

“The general situation remains satisfactory.”

The following chief official communication was given out here this afternoon:

“There has been no modification of the general situation. We have, nevertheless, made progress on our left, to the north of the Somme, and on our right, in the Southern Woevre district.”

WAR BULLETINS.

Another German General Killed.

Berlin, Oct. 1—(via The Hague and London)—The thirty-eighth German casualty list, made public today, contains about 8,000 names. It includes three major generals, one killed and two wounded. Maj. Gen. Scherbening was killed, while Maj. Gen. Emil Henigst was slightly and Maj. Gen. Reuter was dangerously wounded.

Another British Ship Sunk.

Callao, Peru, Oct. 1—The Kosmos steamer Marie arrived here today with the crew of the British steamer Bankfields which was sunk by the German cruiser Leipzig off Eten, Peru. The crew of the Bankfields appealed to the British consul here in the hope of obtaining their liberty. The men said that their ship carried a cargo of sugar valued at $500,000.

Denies Turkey Report.

London, Oct. 1—The foreign office issued a statement tonight, saying that the report published in London today asserting that the situation between Turkey and Great Britain and her allies was critical, was not authorized and did not represent the views of the government.

Germans Sink 27 Steamers

London, Oct. 1—Eighteen steamers of an aggregate tonnage of 29,581 were sunk by German warships during September, according to a Board of Trade report, while nine steamers were destroyed by mines in the North Sea in the same period. 75 lives being lost.

Austria to Pay Italy.

Rome, Italy (by way of London), Oct. 1—The Austrian government has replied to the Italian protest against the floating mines in the Adriatic sea. Austria deplores the sinking of Italian vessels and promises to take measures to remove the menace to shipping and to fully indemnify the families of the victims.

It is reported that Italy demands an indemnity from Austria of $1,000,000.

ROSSITER DOG HAD RABIES

Many Dogs Are Killed and Others in Town Quarantined

The dog that went on a rampage at Rossiter last Friday was suffering from rabies, according to word received from Dr. Rentschler, of Punxsutawney, from the State Health Department, and a quarantine on a dozen dogs that were bitten was straight way established by Dr. Rentschler.

The canine started on its mad dash about town during the night and before its life was ended by a bullet it had bitten many dogs. Fifteen dogs that were known to be in contact with the animal were at once shot and quarantine was established upon a dozen other dogs.

The State Health Department, to which the head of the dog was sent, reports that the test showed a well developed case of rabies. As far as could be ascertained no persons were bitten.

Burned by Carbide.

An employe of a carnival company showing at Lucerne this week was probably fatally burned about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, when a tank of carbide exploded. He was burned about the face, head and hands and it is thought that he inhaled the deadly fumes. He is under the care of a physician who says that his recovery is a matter of extreme doubt.

Blew Off Top of Head.

Frank Straightwell was instantly killed at Knoxdale, near Punxsutawney, at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, when a shot exploded in the coal facing in which he was working, and his head was blown off.

Erie Jury Finds Mollicone "Not Guilty," But He Was Rearrested

Pietro Mollicone, of Ernest, who was arrested in the Indiana Postoffice by an inspector from the Postoffice Department at Washington, while he was lifting a letter not belonging to him, was tried before the Federal Court at Erie last Saturday, under a charge of using the mails to defraud.

The jury returned a verdict late that day of "not guilty." Mollicone was released, but later rearrested on the charge of lifting another letter at the Chambersville postoffice, belonging to G. Monreale, of that place. He was taken to Pittsburg and there last Wednesday was given a hearing before the United States Commissioner where he was found guilty and held for November court.

Recreation Hall Overcrowded

Owing to the unusually large attendance at the Normal School, and the crowded condition of Recreation Hall, the authorities of the school feel compelled to announce that only members of the faculty, students in actual attendance at the school, and house guests, can be admitted to the Saturday night dances given in the school, except by special invitation.

Blairsville Is Making Ready For Big Republican Rally

Blairsville, Oct. 1.—One of the greatest rallies ever held in this section will be the Republican gathering to be held in this place on Friday, October 9. Special trains will be run from Indiana, Vandergrift and Latrobe to bring in delegations to hear Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, United States Senator Boies Penrose and other Republicans. Dr. Brumbaugh and Senator Penrose will arrive at this place at 12:51 on the afternoon of Friday, October 9, and will spend the afternoon in a tour of Blairsville and an automobile visit to the Columbia Plate Glass plant.

FORMER INDIANA

BOY WAS KILLED

William M. McPherson, aged 45 years, a native of Canoe township, this county, was almost instantly killed Tuesday morning at 8:00 o'clock when a motorcycle he was learning to ride, skidded and threw him against a pole near Clinton and Locust streets, Johnstown. McPherson died before he reached the Memorial hospital. He had left his home only a few minutes before his wife received the word of the accident.

McPherson was a resident of near Rochester Mills until five years ago, when he removed to Johnstown. He was employed at the No. 4 boiler house of the Cambria Steel Company. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Clara Schultz McPherson, also a native of Canoe township, and one son, Blair Emmett McPherson.

Funeral services were held at the McPherson home on Thursday afternoon and interment was made in Grandview cemetery, Johnstown.

Normal Opens New Ambulatory.

Last Saturday night, with the intonation of the "Spirit of Indiana," the Conservatory orchestra, directed by Prof. H. E. Cogswell, opened the program in connection with the formal dedication of the new ambulatory at the Normal school.

Under the brilliant electric lights a sea of charmingly dressed young ladies were seen dancing. Under the new arcades were distinguished representatives of the city's wealth and fashion.

The once Recreation Hall has changed wonderfully; on each side of the arches, medallions, representing History and Art, were hung.

Many characteristic dances like the "Paul Jones" and "Virginia Reel", took place, and all together it was a joyful event. The dance closed at 10 o'clock.

The trustees of the institution, a few invited guests from Indiana and many from out of town were present.

S. W. Rose Buys Home.

S. F. Warner sold his property on Water street to S. W. Rose for $6,500. Mr. Rose has occupied the property for the past two years.

Women Hurt in Auto Wreck

WERE ON WAY TO CONVENTION.

Two women were injured and others had a narrow escape in an automobile accident near Dixonville Wednesday. The injured are:

Mrs. W. D. Bash, of Indiana, shoulder dislocated.

Mrs. George T. Buchanan, of Indiana, shoulder and face cut and bruised.

The women were members of an automobile party on their way to attend a convention at East Mahoning Baptist church. When a short distance from the church a tire burst, causing the machine to turn suddenly. Mrs. Bash and Mrs. Buchanan were thrown out, Mrs. Bash falling upon her shoulder. She was taken to the Dixonville hospital, where the injury was dressed, and was brought to her home in Indiana on Wednesday night.

AMONG OUR FRIENDS

Miss Laura Myers and Miss Ella Thompson left yesterday for a week's visit in Pittsburg.

Wilmer Brickley, who pitched for Normal last year, returned to Normal this week for the year's work.

Robert Henderson and wife have rented the furnished home of Miss Agnes St. Clair, corner Ninth and Water streets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kleinstub, of Creekside, motored to Punxsutawney last Tuesday to attend the Jewish services.

Fernale' Gaetano, of Ernest, returned from New York City last Wednesday morning, where he spent a week with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Moorhead, of South Seventh street, are attending the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association in Pittsburgh.

Wilbur Laudenslager has returned to Indiana Normal, after a short stay at a preparatory school in Minnesota.

Dan Moore tried the big schools at Valparaiso, Ind., and Evanston, Ills., but decided that Indiana Normal was good enough for him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Campbell, their son, Delos; Mrs. C. B. Clark and Mrs. J. E. Keeler and daughter, Desire, spent Sabbath at the home of Mr. Campbell's mother, Mrs. M. J. Campbell, in Brookville. The trip was made to and from Brookville in the Campbell machine.

Senior Hay Ride

Some 200 members of the Senior class of the Normal went in hay wagons to the Twolick Country Club Monday morning, where they held their annual picnic. The ever-watchful Juniors made their superiors' way as hard as they could by felling several large trees and blockading the road about half a mile from the club.
