

School Teacher Pays a Fine for Shooting Rabbit Before Season

It seems that school teachers in certain parts of the county are not averse to doing a bit of hunting out of season, along with the training of the young idea how to shoot at something besides "cotton tails" and grey squirrels.

Harry Kelly, who teaches a country district school near Croft postoffice was gathered in a day or so ago by Game Warden Kinter B. Rodgers, of Johnstown, and Constable Enoch Miller, of Ebensburg, for shooting a rabbit out of season.

The two officers collected evidence against the violator and the latter paid his fine, resolving to wait until November 1 before continuing any further operations against the cotton-tufted tribe which gambol about his school house in a most friendly way every evening.

A number of other violators were rounded up—some of them for hunting without a license, and others for killing game out of season.

Johnstown Firm Is Indiana Purchaser

Austin W. Swartz has transferred to the Operators Coal Mining Company of Johnstown, 235 acres and 153 perches in East Wheatfield township. The consideration is not given. This is part of the coal field that is now being developed by the Conemaugh Smokeless Coal Company, near Seward. Another realty deal of importance in this section was the transfer of the W. H. Boreland farm in White township to S. W. Getty for a consideration of $4100.

Becomes Town of 250 Houses in Two Years.

The mining village of Numine, situated about one mile from Rural Valley, has developed with rather astonishing rapidity. Within the last two years a town of 250 houses has come into existence. A nickleodeon and other amusement places are in operation and several first class stores have been established.

The Cowanshannock Coal Company is responsible for the operation and the mines are working steadily.

He was injured about the head, the skull being probably fractured, and Mr. Sutton did not regain consciousness after he was brought to his home for treatment.

Blinded by Headlight.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton spent the evening at Blairsville and were returning to their home when they encountered a trolley car at the Graceton siding. Mr. Sutton was blinded by the headlight of the car and evidently believed he was steering his machine in a direction of safety, but instead turned directly into the car. Mrs. Sutton escaped injury, but her husband was caught in the wreckage. Dr. Paul Reed, of Homer City, went to Graceton and brought the injured man to his home, being in constant attendance until the end came. Mr. Sutton is survived by his mother, Mrs. James McGregor, of Indiana; his widow, a daughter, Jessie; one brother and one sister.

Try to Check Germans With Counter Attacks

Allies Trying to Cut of Enemy's Army in Belgium

FRENCH SHELL LILLE, BUT WITHOUT RESULT.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Furious counter attacks by the allies toward Courtrai, in an attempt to cut off the German forces operating near Nieupoort, Dixmude and Ypres, are reported from the north. High praise is given to the valor of the Belgian forces under King Albert that are fighting along the Yser river.

The fighting is going on night and day with attacks being made by land, sea and air. Thus this mighty conflict, which began on September 12, as the battle of the Aisne, has taken on an aspect and a magnitude hitherto unknown in history.

Villages Are in Ruins.

More than 50 towns and villages have been wiped out entirely or ruined by the fighting, particularly by the artillery fire. Artillery duels have been a stirring feature of the hostilities in the extreme north. In these long range fights with heavy guns many non-combatants have been killed.

There is a confident feeling in French military circles that the English channel expedition of the Germans has failed and that from now on they must act upon the defensive.

It would not come as a surprise to the French and British if the whole northern front of the German army suddenly retired to a new fortified position which already has been prepared.

It is officially claimed by the war office that the advantage has been with the allies during the past 60 hours of fighting. However, the hostilities on the Belgian border are not yet definitely decided.

FOREIGN POETS WILL BE BOYCOTTED IN GERMANY

D'Annunzio and Maeterlinck Are Among Those on List.

London, Oct. 22.—The Berlin "Vorwaerts" announces that a boycott is to be placed on foreign poets. Among the first that will be boycotted are Gabriel d'Annunzio and Maurice Maeterlinck. The Germans, it is said, have concluded that neither the Italian nor Belgian poet is a man of any particular genius, and that boycotting their works will be no great loss to German readers.

Both these writers, since the war began, have showed marked hostility to the Germans, and numerous German journals, "Vorwaerts" says, are recommending that their readers banish d'Annunzio and Maeterlinck from their book shelves.

"One Eye Open." Some years ago in London a Frenchman stepped into a hansom and was asked:

"Where do you wish to go?" "One eye open," he replied. "Right," said cabby, who understood nothing and drove off. After a time, same question, same reply. Finally the driver descended and demanded further information.

"One eye open," still was the answer. Cabby furious. A crowd assembled, a policeman appeared on the scene and demanded the whole story. Then the mystery was solved. The fare wanted to be driven to 1 High Holborn.
