A Famous Warhorse.
The following inscription marks the grave of Strathfieldsaye of Wellington's famous charger. Copenhagen, which died in 1835 at the ripe old age of twenty-seven. This charger was buried with military honors:
God's humble instrument, though meaner clay,
Should share the glories of that glorious day
Copenhagen, it might be mentioned, was the grandson of the mighty Eclipse, and Wellington paid £400 for him. His powers of endurance were marvelous "I rode him," said Wellington, "at the battle of Waterloo from 4 in the morning until midnight. If he fed it was in the standing corn and as I sat in the saddle."—London Globe.
