

ITALY FREE TO ENTER WAR, SAYS NEWSPAPER

Rome, via Paris, Wednesday.—Commenting favorably upon the adjournment of the Chamber of Deputies the Giornale d'Italia says every Deputy is now convinced of the necessity for Italy to act energetically, "facing any sacrifice, even a supreme struggle, to realize Italian aspirations." The newspaper adds:

"With the full liberty of action granted by Parliament the government now is free to choose the way, the means and the hour of using the weapons at its disposal with the firmness and prudence necessary to insure success, while the country, calm and disciplined, is ready for everything."

The Italian government is said to have refused a request made by Germany that a mission sent to Erythrea be permitted to continue its journey through that district into Abyssinia. Italy's refusal is reported to have been based upon the belief that the object of the mission was to incite an attack by Abyssinians upon the British forces in the Sudas.

Erythrea is an Italian protectorate in East Africa bordering on the Red Sea opposite Turkish territory in Arabia.

U. S. SUBMARINE TOMB OF 25 MEN IN OCEAN DEPTHS

Honolulu, March 25—The American submarine F-4 tonight lies at the bottom of the sea two miles from this shore, the tomb of Lieut. Alfred L. Ede, her commander and 25 enlisted men of the United States navy. The F-4 was found as the result of a frantic 12-hour search by other undersea boats instituted at noon today, when the submarine failed to rise to the surface from morning target practice with the rest of the underwater flotilla, stationed here.

It was close to midnight when a submarine searcher located the long dark body of the F-4, motionless at the bottom of the sea. Not the faintest sign of life was seen aboard her and such superficial examination as the finder could make led to the belief that the doomed submarine's tanks had burst, suffocating every man of the crew with sulphuric acid fumes.

Gets Long Prison Term.

A prison term of not less than 12 years nor more than 20 years in the Western penitentiary was the sentence imposed by Judge S. J. Telford on Wasil Schrensky, against whom the jury returned a verdict of second degree murder last Thursday. Schrensky struck Fania Wykosky on the head with a stone, causing fatal injuries, while a number of foreigners were celebrating the Russian Christmas by a prolonged spree at Ernest Jan. 7. The injured man was brought to the Indiana hospital, where his death occurred.

A NEW EYELID FROM HIS ARM

Grafting Operation After Twenty Years Seems Successful.

Wearing a new eyelid, cunningly fashioned from a portion of the skin and flesh of one of his arms, Richard Briggs, of North Adams, Mass., has been discharged from the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, No. 218 Second avenue. The operation, which promises to be successful, was performed by Dr. John E. Weeks.

For twenty years Mr. Briggs has suffered from trouble with one of his eyes, and several weeks ago came to New York for treatment. It was found necessary to remove the lid from the affected eye, and it was replaced by a remarkable process of grafting. Mr. Briggs expects to have the stitches removed from his eye within a few days.

New Jersey Town of 14,000 Population Is Ordered Vaccinated

Millville, N. J., March 26—Thirty-five cases of smallpox have been discovered here, and the board of health, at a meeting tonight, completed preparations for the vaccination of Millville's entire population, number 14,000 people. Mayor Geig urged the board to order closed all moving picture parlors, churches, schools and other places where public gatherings are held, for a period of two weeks. It was decided, however, to defer action on this proposition, pending the arrival of an inspector from the state board of health, who is expected to arrive tomorrow. All of the cases are in mild form. The mayor has issued a ban against the holding of rummage sales, which he says is responsible for the rapid spread of the disease.

PRISONERS JUMP FROM RIG AND MAKE ESCAPE

William McAdoo and Herman Holland, who figured in a spectacular arrest in this county Monday, escaped from a constable here Wednesday night and are now being looked for by the police of every town in Indiana county.

The men were arrested on a charged preferred by a fourteen-year-old girl. When they learned that information had been made against them, it is said, they stole a horse and buggy and attempted to get away. They abandoned the horse in the mountains and when the animal returned to the stables alone a hunt for the fugitives was started in earnest.

The youths were arrested by a railroad detective near Punxsutawney and they were brought to Indiana. The hearing was fixed for Tuesday night and the prisoners were taken to the office of the justice of the peace in a rig. The office is some distance in the country.

The justice held the men for court and when the constable was bringing them back to jail, they jumped from the rig and escaped. The prisoners had been handcuffed together, but Holland, being very small, managed to wiggle his hand free.

YOUNG ELOPERS ARE NOW SEEKING DIVORCE

When John Thomas Morgan, a wealthy young law student in Denver university, eloped with Miss Jean Johnson of this place, last June, "just for the novelty of it," he did not think he would be facing a divorce suit with alimony in less than a year. Miss Johnson, who is aged 20 and pretty, left Indiana early last year to visit her father, J. H. Johnson, a broker in Denver. Morgan met her in June and eloped with her to Golden, Col., where they were married on June 25, after an acquaintance of two weeks. They lived together for several months, and, according to the bridegroom's father, his son "stopped his wild ways, led an exemplary life and was a good husband." The young bride evidently thought otherwise, for she filed a suit in divorce 10 days ago, alleging "extreme cruelty." Morgan says he will not contest the suit; that he eloped "just for the novelty of it," and that he has had enough. He has arranged for the payment of alimony outside of the court.

Jean Johnson formerly resided in Blairsville. Her parents were divorced several years ago, her father locating in Denver. Her mother was remarried to Earl Raymond. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond and Miss Johnson came to this place some years ago. Miss Johnson has much talent as an amateur actress. She won local fame at a business men's carnival given by the New Century Club of Indiana in February, 1911, with her "Stingy Kid" and "Honey Time" songs, rendered when she was attired as a boy.
