WESTWARD HO! BY WAGON.

Staten Island Prairie Schooner Is Going to San Francisco.

Driving up to the New York city hall in an old fashioned prairie schooner drawn by two horses, John Urlinger and William Stevens obtained a letter from Mayor Mitchell to deliver to Mayor Rolph of San Francisco.

The odd trip across the continent is being made in the interest of Staten Island business men, who want it advertised that Staten Island is the gateway of the eastern coast, just as San Francisco is supposed to be the gateway of the western.

The schooner was driven about Manhattan, and a trip made through Brooklyn. Charles J. McCormack of Richmond borough started the wagon on its long overland trip to the western city, where it is due to arrive before the Panama exposition ends.

RICHEST TYPIST QUILTS JOB.

Not Because She's Tired, but She Wants to Give Needy Girl Work.

Miss Flora Holt, the nation's richest stenographer, who recently inherited the estate of Vilna McDonald of Escanaba, Mich., daughter of a former lieutenant governor of Michigan and who upon becoming an heiress said she would not quit her job, has at last resigned.

She has quit, not because of a wish to be idle, but because she believes that by remaining at work when she did not need the money she was keeping some needy girl out of a job. The estate which she inherited was nearly $250,000, amassed in the iron mines of upper Michigan. Miss McDonald was her cousin.

EIGHTY THOUSAND WERE EGGS, NOT RUSSIANS.

Commercial Explanation of Canard About Big Force For Scotland.

An explanation of the origin of the canard, which received wide circulation and credence early in the war, to the effect that 80,000 Russian troops had reached Scotland from Archangel, Russia's White sea port, en route to France, appears to be found in a common commercial custom.

Russia exports millions of eggs to England, and in the trade these eggs are known as "Russians," just as the thousands of rabbits sent to England from Belgium are known as "Ostends," as oysters are known as "Marennes" or "Whitstables," or in the United States as "Blue Points" or "Cape Cods."

It may easily have been the case and this is believed by many to be the explanation, that a Russian wholesaler telegraphed to his commission agent in England, "Eighty thousand Russians sent via Archangel," and the message may have been taken by some one through whose hands it passed to refer to troops instead of eggs.

The telegraphic employee may have told a friend and so have started the rumor, which grew until few correspondents could resist giving it credence, even though they had some idea of the difficulties of moving 80,000 men to Archangel and undoubtedly wondered why such forces should be landed in Scotland instead of being carried to a French port.

The New Neutrality

George Washington's birthday this year Had better in silence be passed; He walloped our cousins And licked them by dozens— The day might offend them at last.

The Fourth of July should be dropped, The great Declaration ignored; The date is no success It wouldn't be success To hint how America scored.

The "Star Spangled Banner" should hush, 'Tis really a dangerous screech, For those words were written While fighting Great Britain And might make a terrible breach. —McLanburgh Wilson in New York Sun.
