

ITALIAN CABINET RESIGNS

Demands of Citizens Force Ur- gent Council of Italian Ministers

LONDON, May 14.—The Italian cabinet has resigned.

"The council of ministers," says Reuter's Rome correspondent, "considering it did not possess the unanimous assent of the constitutional parties regarding its international policy which the gravity of the situation demands, has decided to hand its resignation to the king. An official note to this effect was issued tonight.

"The king has reserved his decision as to whether the resignation will be accepted."

Wilson's Note Has Been Sent To Germany

Safety to Neutrals on the High Seas and for American Vessels, and Reparation Asked—A Favorable Reply is Expected

STRONG LANGUAGE BUT NO ULTIMATUM

WASHINGTON, May 13.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon President Wilson's note to Germany demanding guarantees that attacks on merchantmen carrying non-combatants shall end, and for reparation for violations of American rights in the war zone, had been cleared over the telegraph wires from Washington and was started on its way over the under sea cables. It must go by way of Gibraltar and Malta, and then to Rome and overland lines to Vienna and Berlin. As a courtesy a copy was delivered to Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador.

The note covered seven pages of note paper, about 1500 words, and while couched in no uncertain language, is in no way an ultimatum.

STEAL JEWELRY; ARRESTED; BREAK JAIL

Two Boys Arrested By Blairsville Police, Pick Lock and Escape

DETECTIVE TOO LATE

After being arrested in Blairsville Saturday night on the charge of having stolen some valuable jewelry from the home of Attorney Blair, of this place, John and William Palmer broke out of the town bastille in the municipal building of Blairsville Saturday and escaped.

The dash for freedom was "movie like." The boys picked the lock of their cell a short time after the constable had put them there. After breaking from the cell they deliberately walked out of the building. Later they ran down to the banks of the Conemaugh river and wading across, made a quick disappearance through the timberland on the edge of the water.

A few minutes after the boys made their escape, County Detective Neal arrived to take the prisoners back to Indiana. All of Sunday and Monday the police were searching for the pair, but so far no clue has been found. One of the lads is said to have been recently discharged from Morganza.

Dog Worth $500 Swallows Diamond Ring Worth $250

One bite of meat and a cocker spaniel worth $500, increased in value 50 per cent. Monday when Mrs. William Walker, of 2817 Veteran Avenue, Northside, Pittsburg, was feeding the dog, a diamond ring worth $250 slipped from her finger and disappeared with some meat down the dog's throat. Mr. Walker is wondering whether it will pay to kill his $500 dog to recover the $250 diamond ring.

Paris Editor; Solve United States Problem

PARIS, May 14.—While the press continues to display intense interest in the sinking of the Lusitania, the discussion in its editorial columns is now turning more toward the political side of the tragedy and the probable attitude of President Wilson. Much curiosity is displayed regarding the decision of the Washington government. The Matin believe, the least the United States could do would be to expel the German ambassador.

Aeroplane Fleet Is Driven Off From Paris

PARIS, May 12.—A fleet of German aeroplanes tried to attack Paris today, but were driven off by the French airmen.

Countryside Is Aroused by Bold Daylight Theft

Farmers living in White township are hunting for a gang of thieves who entered the farmhouse of Davison Harrison about 10 o'clock last Saturday morning and after ransacking the house disappeared with some valuables.

The theft was a bold one. The thieves had learned in some way that the Harrisons would not be at home. Mr. Harrison and other members of the family left early for town.

The thieves went to the farm house and breaking open a door, went through every room. Although many were working about their farms nearby, the robbers got away without being seen. The robbery was not discovered until the Harrisons returned home.
