INDIANA TO GIVE 500

Western Pennsylvania has pledged the Belgian relief commission 100, 000 barrels of flour, and Indiana has promised as her share, 500 barrels. Two dollars for a baby's life seems pretty cheap, and this great country should feel proud that she can feed, and has the inclination to voluntarily feed, not only the babies but the starving mothers, both of whom are the real martyrs of the war.

If you can not buy a sack, buy a half sack, or give what you can.
