

JAIL BREAKERS MURDER AT CAPTURED HEILWOOD

Schefflers Taken by a Posse and Miller Girl Gives Up

SCHEFFLER GUARDED CAPTURE MURDERER

After "enjoying" a week of liberty, during which they underwent many hardships, three of the four prisoners who escaped from the county bastle here a week ago, were captured Monday and brought here.

The trio included Mr. and Mrs. Scheffler and 18 year old Catherine Miller, who claimed she accompanied the others under coercion, being threatened with death if she refused or made an outcry. Chester Frye the other fugitive has not been apprehended at this writing.

The quartette spent the first night within a few miles of Indiana and the only time they were near capture was on Saturday afternoon when the Schefflers and the Miller girl had an encounter with Constable Headrick in the Cambria county woods, at which time Frye deserted them.

The Miller girl left the Schefflers at Josephine Sunday night and was headed toward Indiana when taken into custody by the state police. She said she was coming to Indiana to give herself up. Mrs. Scheffler was taken later in the afternoon near Millwood and locked up at Latrobe. and Scheffler was captured at the home of his wife's parents near Millwood in the early evening after the house had been surrounded by state police. He made no resistance and was lodged in the county jail Monday night, and a special guard was placed over him.

Tuesday morning the Miller girl plead guilty to stealing clothing from the Normal School and was turned over to Mrs. Sue Willard by the court.

Stoker Tried to Save Woman And Her Baby

Details concerning the finding of the bodies of Mrs. James Tierney and her daughter Nina, of Vandergrift, Pa., who were victims of the Lusitania disaster, have reached Mr. Tierney and relatives in Natrona and reveal the heroism displayed by a fireman on the big liner. The bodies of Mrs. Tierney and her daughter were recovered seven hours after the explosion, and were lashed to the body of the fireman, whose name has not been learned. When found Mrs. Tierney showed signs of life, but the fireman and baby were dead. Mrs. Tierney and the child were buried in Queenstown.

The hero fireman, dirty and grimy from his work in the hold, doubtlessly could have saved his own life.

German Losses Estimated at 6,726,000 Men

PARIS, June 18.—The military expert of the "Matin" estimates the total loss of the Teutonic allies at 6,726,000 men. The French general staff computes the German losses alone at 3,290,000 up to March 21. Germany is losing men at the rate of seven a minute.

Louis Cicero, aged 20, was fatally shot through the heart at Heilwood last evening by Dominic Marcelli. Young Cicero had been attending a Sunday School picnic and arrived home just in time to hear the last of a quarrel passing between his brother and Marcelli. Louis took his brother's part as Marcelli had been picking on him frequently. Marcelli quickly turned upon the older brother and in his rage fired four shots, the last one causing instant death.

Marcelli was immediately taken from a house where he had locked himself in and brought to the county jail.

ELDERTON SUICIDE

Would be "Easy Picking"

The members of the Indiana Gun Club held a shoot on Saturday at which some rather poor scores were made. The showing made by the Indiana trappers has convinced the members of the Punxsutawney Gun Club that the Indianaites would be "easy picking" and they are anxious to arrange a shoot with them.—Punxsutawney Spirit. Take back dose crewill woids, for you may have to swallow them.

Patriotic Italian Goes to Hospital

A demonstration of his loyalty to the stars and stripes in the form of a premature Fourth of July celebration by Mike Rhine, aged 30 years, an Italian of Homer City, put the patriotic foreigner in the emergency ward at the Indiana hospital. Rhine is a miner and a boarder with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brillhart. Fellow workmen have been talking war to him, but he declares he is an American at heart and said he would prove it. Buying an American flag and a quantity of mine squibs, he went to his lodging house, called the chil lren of the Brillhart family about him and proceeded to demonstrate. The flag was swung to the breeze from the back of a chair and the mine squibs were about to be fired when a spark from Rhine's pipe fell among them. An explosion followed and Rhine was severely burned about the face and neck.

Greatest Battle of All Time Now Raging

Allies Advancing in Face of Powerful German Counter-Attacks

RUSSIANS RETREATING ON OWN GROUND

PARIS, June 18.—There is intense activity along the French front, the allied forces delivering powerful attacks and the Germans counter attacking furiously. The French have carried several lines of German trenches and are progressing toward Souchez. The Germans at Fond de Buval are almost completely surrounded. Heavy losses are reported on both sides.

SUBSCRIBERS NOTICE

The PATRIOT has been late in getting to out-of-town subscribers for the past three weeks. We wish to state that this has been caused by our being handicapped by the installation of a new five-ton newspaper press and its attendant fixtures.

After this week we hope to be in better shape to serve our patrons, and these added facilities out-of-town subscribers should receive their papers on Saturday.

Found $1,000 in Corn Field

While cultivating corn on his farm above Elkins, W. Va., John Tracy brought to the surface an old iron pot containing $1,000 mostly in gold and some silver, in good state of preservation. The pot had a figure "8" on it and a tree nearby, had a corresponding figure carved on it.

It was supposed some idle boy had cut the figure on the tree for pastime, but now it is believed the person who buried the pot cut the figure to guide him to its location.

LONDON June 18.—Berlin claims that the Russians are retreating over their own frontier toward Tarnograd, about four miles from the Galician border.

This means an invasion of Russian territory at a new point, but, according to military observers here, it may spell ultimate advantage for the Russians in that a general Russian retirement northward into Poland would divert Gen. Linsengen's attempt to crush the Russian center near Zurawna, which would effectively sever the communication of the Russian army in Southeastern Galicia and Bukowina. The military writers say the real danger zone from the Russian standpoint is in the Zurawna district and along the Dniester.

According to Berlin the Austro-German forces have battered through Niemero and advanced toward Jaworow, only 25 miles to the west of the Galician capital.

Three great masses of Austro-German troops are sweeping from the San to the capital city, and what will prove to be the greatest battle of all time is being fought in the vicinity of Grodek.
