

300 WILL GRADUATE

Largest Class in History of Indiana Normal School

PROGRAM FOR WEEK

Commencement week plans at the Indiana Normal school have been completed and new features added to the closing festivities.

The state board began its work Wednesday with hundreds of seniors and juniors taking the annual tests.

Commencement ceremonies proper start Saturday evening with a free concert in the Chapel by the members of the Madrigal club and the graduates from the Conservatory of Music.

Dr. Hinitt, president of Washington and Jefferson college will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the seniors in the Presbyterian church tomorrow at 11 o'clock. There will be vesper services on the campus in the evening at 6:30.

The annual base ball game between the faculty and the seniors will be played on the athletic field Monday afternoon at 3:30 and the commencement concert will be given in the school chapel that evening at 6 o'clock.

Tuesday will be a busy day. The meeting of the Alumni association will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock; and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock the senior pageant will be given on the east campus. This will be one of the most interesting features of the week and as more than 300 persons will take part in it.

Following a procession, events in local history will be portrayed in costume, and following that there will be a series of forest scenes which will prove interesting. The members of the class and other students who take part in this part of the ceremonies have been working hard for several weeks to perfect the entertainment.

The annual alumni banquet and dance will be held Tuesday evening.

Wednesday morning a class of 300 the largest in the history of the school, will be graduated. The ceremonies of the week close with the commencement dinner at 12:30 o'clock.

Members of the classes of '90, '95 and '05 will hold reunions next week.

J. Lytle Smith Honored

J. Lytle Smith, of Leonard, N. D. a brother of the late Samuel A. and Frank M. Smith, editors of the Messenger, has been elected Commander of the Department of North Dakota, Grand army of the Republic, with headquarters at Jamestown, N. D. In his salutatory he says, "The great honor coming to me unexpectedly and unsolicited, I hold in higher appreciation than any other recognition that could have been bestowed. It is an expression that cannot be mistaken and there can be nothing added and I sincerely trust that I may be able during my occupancy of this high office to justify the confidence you have reposed in me."

RIOTS IN LONDON FOLLOW ZEPPELIN ATTACK.

Photo by American Press Association.

There were numerous anti-Teuton riots in London after the Lusitania disaster and the more recent Zeppelin attack over the capital. Women and children are seen here wrecking property of a German shopkeeper.

Thieves Use Drugs In Blacklick Robbery

Cutting a pane of glass from a window in the home of John Kokon, of Blacklick last Saturday night, thieves entered the building, drugged the members of the family and rifled the house and the Kokon store which adjoins the dwelling. They secured $100 in cash and a quantity of clothing, escaping before the members of the family recovered from the effects of the drug administered to them. There is no clue.

This is the second bold robbery in the Blacklick region in the past week and the residents of that vicinity declare they should have police protection. The heads of families are arming themselves and night prowling in that neighborhood has become an unsafe diversion.

KILLED BY A FALLING TREE

Henry Fronk, of Green Township Met Death Monday

Henry Fronk, aged about 21 years unmarried was struck on the head by a falling limb of a tree about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. His skull was crushed and he is believed to have died instantly. The body was found a short time after the accident occurred.

Fronk lived in Lovejoy, but had been employed for some time in the lumber camp of Harvey Engel near this place. He was cutting away a rather large tree and many of the limbs were loose. No one saw the accident.

Coroner Buterbaugh was summoned and examined the body. Death was due to a fractured skull he said.

The remains were shipped to Lovejoy late Monday and the funeral was held on Wednesday.

Name Camp In Honor of Deceased Colonel

The memory a Pittsburg man prominent in national guard circles of the state is to be honored in the selection of the name for the coming encampment of the second brigade, N. G. P., to be held here in August.

The camp will be called Camp Col. Rutledge in honor of Col. Frank Rutledge, a veteran of the Spanish-American war and late commander of the Eighteenth regiment of Pittsburg.

SEVEN GO TO WORK HOUSE

Schefflers Start on New Sentence Harry Will Complete Parole

Seven prisoners were taken to the penitentiary and workhouse last Tuesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Williams and his assistants. Harry Scheffler was sentenced to two years in the Western penitentiary. He has six years yet to serve for breaking his parole on a 10-year sentence for larceny in Allegheny county. Before sentence both he and his wife pleaded guilty to a charge of jail-breaking. When Mrs. Scheffler was sentenced she was frenzied and raved like a mad woman, heaping curses upon Judge Telford and saying that she would "get" him when she got out. Those taken to the workhouse were: Mrs. Harry Scheffler, 4 years; Samuel Galbreath, assault with intent to commit rape, costs, $100 fine and one year in work house

Pete Stanich, carrying concealed weapons; costs, $25 fine and six mo. to the workhouse.

F. Marino charged with selling liquor without a license. Costs, and fine of $500 and three months in the workhouse.

Ceo. Bee and George Mulkosky selling liquor without a license. Each to pay the cost of prosecution, fine of $500 and six months in the work house. On a charge of assault and battery Bee was sentenced to three months in the workhouse; costs and a fine of $25.

Joe Bennett sold liquor without a license and was fined $500 and costs and a side trip to the workhouse for 90 days.

Annual Report of Y. M. C. A.

The annual report of the Young Men's Christian Association for the year just closed shows that it has a membership of 380. The total attendance at all religious meetings was 4,796, while 752 persons attended the educational classes and 9,882 were present at the various entertainments and social functions. The gymnasium classes were attended by 3,745 persons. Nearly 3,000 persons used the swimming pool during the year, while the total attendance of the physical activities within the building was 12,214.

Rochester Mills Couple Married 56 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Calderwood, residing near Rochester Mills, celebrated the 56th anniversary of their marriage at their home Wednesday. A large number of relatives and friends took part in the event.

Mr. Calderwood is one of the best known farmers in the county. He was a son of Andrew Calderwood, deceased and was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, Jan. 15, 1834. The family came to America in 1848, and made their way to the forests of this county a few years later. The parents were healthy and industrious and soon had a fertile plot cleared from the woods in Canoe township. Samuel, the youngest son remained under the parental roof until his marriage June 23, 1859, with Elizabeth Shields, daughter of George Shields. She is a native of the county and was born in Canoe township April 26, 1842. They are the parents of eight children, three of whom are living and were at the celebration Wednesday. They are William W., Robert Timeon and Walter Scott Calderwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Calderwood are members of the Rockbridge Presbyterian church and have worshipped with that congregation for many years.

No Pardon for Helen Boyle

The board of pardons has refused to grant a pardon for Helen Boyle, who assisted in the kidnapping of Willie Whitla from his home in Sharon in 1908 and is serving a 25-year sentence in the Western penitentiary, her husband getting a life sentence.

Lieutenant Gov. Frank B. McClain said that the board was weary of being burdened with criminal cases involving more points of law than reason for invoking the high power of clemency invested in that tribunal. "We are not going to be a board of general delivery for confirmed criminals. That may as well be understood here and now," he declared.

Fire Near Marian Center

Fire totally destroyed the dwelling of J. Scott Lightcap, near Marion Center on Friday. The building was insured for $800 in the Patrons' Mutual.

Lemberg Conquerers Begin Warsaw Drive

Berlin Clamors for Another Dash on the French Capital

Warsaw First; Then Paris

LONDON, June 24.—The Russians are still retreating in the east; the Austro-Germans are firmly established at Lemberg and have shown no sign of ceasing their offensive. The battle of the Dniester, to the south of the city, is not yet over, but, according to Berlin, Gen. Linsingen has crossed the river, a fact which presages another Russian defeat.

No Liquor Allowed in the N. G. P. Camps

Captains of the various companies of the N. G. P. have received copies of the general camp orders from Adj. Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, Harrisburg, in which it is announced that the use or sale in camp of intoxicating and malt liquors is prohibited except for medicinal purposes, and the fullest co-operation on the part of all officers is expected in the enforcement of the camp regulation.

The anti-saloon order applies to every camp in the state. Arrangements for the Second brigade camp which will be held here Aug. 7 to 14 are also given in detail.

Nineteen Graduate from Model

A class of nineteen was graduated from the Model School Friday afternoon. The exercises were held in the Normal Chapel, all of the grades participating.

The first part of the program by the primary department consisted of attractive songs, dances and an interesting dramatization, "Mistress Mary's Rosebush."

Later the Ninth grade, assisted by the Intermediate department presented "The Golden Goose," a folk lore tale in dramatic form. This very attractive little play was given with excellent effect. The program ended with the presentation of diplomas and several groups of beautiful songs.

One of the interested spectators was Mrs. Horace Carmalt, a member of the Board of Education, Pittsburg and a former instructor at the Normal.

The Fourth at Heilwood

The fourth of July will be celebrated at Heilwood with a big picnic on the 3d and 5th in the Penn Mary park. Dancing, baseball, lawn tennis, merry-go-round and other games and amusements will be provided for both young and old, and the usual good time will be enjoyed by all who attend.

Governor Cuts Indiana Hospital Appropriation

The appropriation for the Indiana hospital which was recommended by the joint legislative committee at $14,000 has been cut $1,000 by Governor Brumbaugh in his effort to keep within the limits.

A dispatch to the Central News says that the Germans, following their victory in Galicia have already made preparations for another attempt to capture Warsaw.

Wild rejoicing is going on in Berlin over the victory and the people are asking for another campaign to the City of Paris.

Britain Predicts Fall of Paris

NEW YORK, June 24.—Wade Chance, a British banker arrived today on the Adriatic to purchase war supplies for the British army.

"Paris will be besieged by mid-summer," said Mr. Chance, "and I would not be surprised to see it fall before winter is on. The United States should wake up before the Kaiser is beyond control and hammering at the gates here. Germany has maintained a reserve of 4,000,000 cannon shells all during the war."

Going to Central America

Andrew Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stewart, of Pasadena Cal., who recently completed his senior year at Princeton University, is a guest at the Harry Wilson home on Church street. He leaves shortly for New York City, from which place he will sail with a friend for points in Central America.

Killed in Ernest Mine

Sam Marisco was struck by a motor in the Ernest mine Monday morning and fatally injured. The man was brought to Indiana but died before he reached the hospital. He was crushed between a motor and a mine car about 11 o'clock. Coroner H. B. Buterbaugh conducted an investigation, the verdict being that he came to his death by accident. He leaves his parents and seven brothers and sisters. He was 18 years old.

Indiana's New Industry

The new local industry, the McCreey Tire and Rubber Company is ready for business, and their product is already being marketed and bids fair to take its place with the big tire producers.

Samples of the product are being shown in the windows of the Indiana Hardware Co. and are attracting much attention.

FOR SALE—Corner lot in Chevy Chase, 65x150, for further information, apply at this office.