A Feminine Mistake.
A woman who thinks she has met the ideal man merely thinks so. There is no such person.—Albany Journal.

Traps in French.
A frequent trap in French for the unwary is the difference of meaning in similar phrases. For example, "faire feu" means to fire a gun, while "faire du feu" means to light a fire; "tomber par terre" conveys the idea of falling to the ground from one's own height, whereas "tomber a terre" means to fall from any height—in other words, to tumble down and to tumble off. In the same way "traiter de fat" means to call a man a fop and "traiter en roi" to treat him like a king.
The English bore may be expressed in two ways—"un raseur" gives the idea of an active bore and "une bassinoire" of a passive bore.—London Saturday Review.

GROUND-FOR-RAGE.

I see some scientists think there are no mad
dogs; do you
think there are?
Any mad dogs?
Why, now, there must be millions of 'em! Think of the sausage jokes
they've had to stand for!

THOSE DEAR
GIRLS.

I've had over a dozen proposals
so far this summer.
How persistent
a summer acquaintance can be.

IMPOSSIBLE.

You say your sister remembered the moment she saw
me?
Yep. She said
she couldn't forget dat meg in a hundred years.

VOTE FOR

HARRY A BOGGS

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primary, Tuesday, September 21 1915, 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

DO IT NOW.

Decision never becomes easier by postponement, while habit grows stronger every day. Common sense as well as conscience says, "Choose this day."

No Chicken.

Lady (recently married) — Do you know I find it quite hard to remember my new name?
Her Friend—Naturally, dear. You had the old one so long, you know.—De-trot Free Press.

His Occupation.

"What does your father do?"
"Whatever mother tells him."
"I mean what's his occupation?"
"Oh, his occupation! Pa's a confusion ejector; puts out fires, you know."—Boston Transcript.

The Popular Craze.

"My" said the young man, "I want to marry your daughter."
"Yes, do, but what have you got to offer?"
"Wealth, which includes a fair education, a good state of health, a reasonable amount of ambition, a creditable appearance, a modest salary and a strong desire to come into your office and get useful."
The older man shook his head.
"Not enough. Times are too hard. I can't afford a wedding."
The young man smiled.
"Now for my trump card," he said.
"Everybody is sleeping. We will sleep and save the expense."
The old man caught his head.
"She's yours, son; she's yours!"—
Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Vegetable Chat.

"I see that some college professor has been saying that he believes that vegetables can see and hear while growing in the garden."
"Is that so?"
"Yes; not only that, but he believes that ages hence they will be able to converse with one another."
"Oh, that's old!"
"What's old?"
"Vegetables conversing. I've often heard Jack and the Beans-talk!"

Small Anvils.

The anvil that rings to the sturdy blacksmith's sledge may weigh 200, 300 or 400 pounds, but there are anvils whose weight is counted in ounces.
These are used by jewelers, silver smiths and various other workers.
Counting shapes, sizes, styles of finish, and so on, these little anvils are made in scores of varieties, ranging in weight from fifteen ounces up to a number of pounds each. All the little anvils are of the finest steel. They are all trimly finished, often nickel plated, and those surfaces that are brought into use are made as smooth as glass.

Pittsburgher Finds War

Like Gridiron Contest

Fighting on the long battle front in France and Flanders impressed Walter H. Pfell, of 301 Kingsboro street, South Side, as resembling a great football contest. He has just returned with his father, William C. Pfell, from a tour of four months in Germany and other countries in the war zone.

Pfell says that in many respects the firing line is like a gridiron, the charges like the rushes of eager pigskin chasers. Gains are made by yards, not miles, as in other wars, and the 'line' of both forces seems to be holding well.

Hit Him Both Ways.

A man was charged with picking a pocket and pleaded guilty.
The case went to the jury, however,
and the verdict was not guilty.
And the court spoke as follows: "You don't leave this court without a strain on your character. By your own confession you are a thief. By the verdict of the jury you are a liar!"—London Tit-Bits.
