FIVE CENTS

Clearfield, Pa., Feb. 4—Fifty-seven of the 78 retail liquor licenses applied for in Clearfield county were granted by Judge Singleton Bell Monday. Thirteen applicants were refused outright and eight cases have been held over. Ten of the licenses refused were to hotel proprietors who had them last year, while three were new applicants. Judge Bell refused licenses to four applicants for wholesale privileges, one of the four, that of A. J. Harber, of Beccaria, being an old business.

In granting licenses to Clearfield hotels the court prohibited the sale of liquor in bottles or in any other way for consumption outside the premises where bought. DuBois retailers are not permitted to sell liquor in bottles to residents of other counties. It presumably is the intention of the court to guard against the sale of intoxicants in DuBois to residents of Jefferson county, which county has gone dry.

ALL APPLICATIONS IN JEFFERSON CO. WERE REFUSED BY CORBET

Brookville, Pa., Feb. 3—When court convened at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon Judge Charles Corbet refused every one of the 44 retail, wholesale and brewery license applications in the county.

His brief opinion when court opened follows:
In re-license application in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Jefferson county the disposition of each license application, separately heard, considered and decided, has resulted in them being severally refused, from which some might infer the court acted arbitrarily or wilfully, we wish to say such is not the case. Every application was earnestly supported and opposed and warmly contested by numerous and able counsel on both sides, was duly, openly, fully and thoroughly heard, and with all these pertinent facts and circumstances appertaining to it, including wherever applicable such matters as were known to the court, was given due and careful consideration, and decided in accordance with the general principles governing the exercise of judicial discretion.

Even if it might be profitable to write an opinion in each case, which we doubt, it would encroach too much on our time; and with their diversities all cannot be satisfactorily covered, in our judgment, by a single brief opinion, hence we omit the task. Besides the Superior Court has said and repeated it (quoting in part the Supreme Court), when the court has heard and decided its whole duty is performed and the license judge is not required to give reasons for his decision. He is not bound to set out legal reasons; is only bound to have them. Punxsutawney Spirit.

Court Imposes Sentences.

Monday morning the Court sentenced Joe Caesar, of Clymer, to serve three months in the Workhouse. Caesar pleaded guilty last September to violating the liquor laws at Clymer and on account of some family matters had not been sentenced.

Gilbert Thomas pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy and was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine, and serve one year in the Workhouse. Thomas recently married a White township girl and his other wife brought the charge, although he was living in Somerset county at the time of his arrest.

OPERATE ON ROOSTER TO RECOVER DIAMOND

Latrobe, Feb. 4—J. A. Donley, attended the poultry show here Tuesday night and a prize rooster ripped his diamond stud. The stud was valued at $200 and Donley was much peeved when the sparkler disappeared down the rooster's throat.

A veterinarian was called, when the owner of the rooster refused to permit it to be killed. An operation was performed, the craw opened and the diamond recovered.

J. M. Cunningham Dies, Aged 68.

James Milton Cunningham, aged 68 years, a lifelong resident of this place, died suddenly on Wednesday morning at the home of Joseph Brady, of Kittanning, with whom he had been visiting a few days. He was engaged in the livery business here for a number of years and was known among the horsemen throughout western Pennsylvania and Ohio.

He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Indiana. His wife died about three years ago. He leaves three children, a son, J. Leroy Cunningham, of this place, and two daughters Mrs. Edmund Kuhns and Mrs. Brough, of Pittsburg.

I can furnish you men for outside work. Inquire of Joe Melley, or at this office.

BOMB CAUSED BIG CANADIAN FIRE FRIDAY

Ottawa, Feb. 4—A great fire, declared unofficially to have been caused by the explosion of a gas bomb or an infernal machine, is consuming the Canadian Parliament buildings. Two women guests of Madame Sevigny, wife of the speaker of the House, are known to be dead. Others are feared to have been lost. Every member of the House, which was in session when the conflagration was discovered. The Hon. Martin Burrell was badly, but not fatally injured. Several policemen and firemen have been buried by the collapse of one end of the building.

The fire in the great $7,000,000 structure was discovered at 8:50 o'clock. It broke forth in innumerable places. Half an hour later a tremendous explosion shattered the right wing of the buildings.

ITALIAN SHIPS TO CARRY GUNS

All Italian transatlantic liners are being equipped with stern guns for defense, according to the word brought here yesterday for the Caserta from Naples, which had two 3-men guns mounted. She was the fourth Italian liner equipped with guns to arrive here.

The Caserta had a gun crew consisting of a sergeant and six men. During the voyage a target was put over the stern and it was shot to pieces.

The America sailed yesterday afternoon for Naples with her guns, permission for her clearance having been received from Washington.

Italy Holds 30,000 Austrians.

Rome, Feb. 4—An official resume of Italy's entrance and operations in the war was given out here today. This stated that 30,000 Austrian prisoners, 5 guns, 65 machine guns and quantities of rifles and other war materials had so far been captured by the Italians from the Austrian forces.

W. P. GRAFF IS A CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

We are reliably informed that Wilbur P. Graff has consented to become a candidate for State Senator for the thirty-seventh district, comprising the two counties, Indiana and Jefferson. It is unquestionably an indication that clean politics appeals to one's judgment when men like Mr. Graff are willing to lay aside their business to assume the duties of office. He is one of Indiana county's successful business men, and it is surely at more than ordinary sacrifice on his part that he has consented to become a candidate for senator. We therefore congratulate the people of the thirty-seventh district in being so fortunate as to have a man of this character look after their interests at Harrisburg. He is held in high regard by his friends as a business adviser, his judgment being as good as a guarantee.

He has been unusually successful in his various business enterprises and will, if elected, make an able senator.—Leechburg Advance
