COMMANDS TEUTONS ON SALONIKA FRONT

GENERAL VON MACKENSEN

A GENERAL SURVEY OF THE WAR

According to an unofficial report from Amsterdam, Turkey has admitted that one of her submarines was responsible for the sinking of the Persia in the Mediterranean last month.

Should it prove to be correct, the United States undoubtedly will send to the Ottoman government one of the sharpest notes dispatched from Washington to a foreign power since the European war began. In the opinion of many persons it would be to all intents and purposes an ultimatum, demanding of Turkey under threat of an immediate severance of diplomatic relations, a prompt disavowal, punishment of the commander responsible, reparation and assurances for the future.

Through the good offices of the United States the German, Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian consuls in Salonika, who have been held under arrest by the allies on board a French warship in the harbor, are to be released.

King Nicholas has fled from Montenegro and has landed in Italy on his way to Lyons. The defense of the country has been left entirely to Prince Mirko, General Voukotchitch, the former premier, and General Martinovitch.

Austro-Hungarian troops have occupied the important town of Scutari, in northern Albania, according to a Stefani News agency dispatch from Athens.

Austrian occupation of Montenegro virtually was completed with the taking of the Adriatic coast towns of Antivari and Duloigno. In the interior, the disarming of Montenegrin soldiers is proceeding, according to advices from Teutonk sources.

The compulsory service bill of the ministry was presented in the British house of lords after having passed its third reading in the house of commons by a vote of 383 to 36.

French air squadrons made important raids on Monastir and Gjevelli, according to a dispatch from Salonika to Reuter's Telegram company.

Taking advantage of the bright moonlight, a hostile aeroplane swept over the east coast of Kent. After dropping nine incendiary bombs in rapid succession the aeroplane disappeared over the North sea.

One man was killed and two men, a woman and three children were injured.

A second attack, this time by two hostile seaplanes, was made on the Kent coast later. No casualties have been reported. The raiders escaped.

Heavy fighting occurred on Friday and Saturday between the British army that is attempting to reach Kut-el-Amara in Mesopotamia and the Turks. The battle took place at Essin, seven miles from Kut-el-Amara. The British were unable to drive the Turk from their positions.

The Russians who originally fought the Turks on a limited area in the Caucasus have inflicted several crushing defeats upon the Turks since Grand Duke Nicholas took the chief command. They have transferred the momentum of their offensive over the Caucasian border into Armenia, where they are now attacking Erzerum, an important city in the interior.

Russian columns operating in Persia have occupied the town of Sultanabad, 150 miles southwest of Teheran and about an equal distance northwest of Ispahan. The garrison and the German consul have fled to Bouroudjir, fifty miles west of Sultanabad.

News reaching Rome is to the effect that the Germans have concentrated 8,000 automobiles in Constantinople which are destined for rapid transportation of a Turco-German expedition to Bagdad.

Capture by the Germans of an allied position 250 yards long to the north of Arras was announced by the German war office.

The Austrians have occupied the Adriatic seaports of Antivari and Duloigno.

The urgent necessity of speeding up the supply of munitions has determined Great Britain to put into force immediately plans for the dilution of skilled labor with semi-skilled, unskilled and female workers in all controlled establishments.

OPPORTUNITY.

Every day brings to our door something that is good to do and that it never will come our way to do again. If we are blind and do not see it and then insist that our days are featureless, whose fault is it? Opportunity does its part, and we must likewise do our part.

A Very Old Rule.

The oldest mathematic book in the world is believed to be the "Papyrus Rhind" in the British museum, professed to have been written by Ahmes, a scribe of King Ra-nus, about the period between 2000 and 1700 B. C. This "Papyrus Rhind" was translated by Eisenlohr of Leipzig, and it was found to contain a rule for making a square equal in area to a given circle. It was not put forth as an original discovery, but as the transcript of a treatise 500 years older still, which sends us back to approximately 2500 B. C., when Egyptian mathematicians solved, or thought they had solved, the problem of squaring the circle.

The Great Eastern.

The dimensions of the one time world famous Great Eastern were as follows: Length, 692 feet; width, 83 feet; depth, 60 feet; tonnage, 24,000 tons; draft when unloaded, 20 feet; when loaded, 30 feet. She had paddle wheels fifty-six feet in diameter and was also provided with a four bladed screw propeller of twenty-four feet diameter. She had accommodations for 800 first class, 2,000 second class and 1,200 third class passengers, 4,000 in all. Her speed was about eighteen miles an hour. The Great Eastern was finally broken up for old iron in the year 1889 after a checkered career of some thirty-one years.

All Wrong.

The popular actor had become a soldier. In a hotly contested skirmish he distinguished himself by his courage and gallantry.

"Well, well," said he at the end of the action, "what do you think of that? Not a soul's applauding."—New York Post.

Head For Business.

"Has your boy Josh a head for business?" "Yep," replied Farmer Cornosse. "He's always talkin' about makin' money. I kind o' wish his hands was as good for work as his head is for business."—Washington Star.

The Hungarian Crown.

The Hungarian crown worn at their accession by the emperors of Austria as kings of Hungary is the identical one made for Stephen and used at his coronation over 800 years ago. The whole is of pure gold, except the settings, and weighs almost exactly fourteen pounds. The settings above alluded to consist of fifty-three sapphires, fifty rubies, one emerald and 338 pearls. It will be noticed that there are no diamonds among these precious adornments. This is accounted for by the oft quoted story of Stephen's aversion to such gems because he considered them "unlucky."

A False Alarm.

"I know something, I do, about a member of this family," said little Bobby Slithers triumphantly to his older sister, Maud.

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed Miss Slithers. "Half a dollar is all I have, Bobby. Will you promise not to tell if I give you that?"

"Sure, I will," answered Bobby in surprise. "But it ain't nothin' on you, sis. It was the cook and the iceman."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Nothing New.

"I see," said Dilkins, "that a French scientist has discovered a method for staying off old age."

"Well, what of it?" demanded Wilkins. "There's nothing new in that. A man can stave off old age by jumping off the Eiffel tower, or dropping a lighted match in a powder barrel while sitting on it, or by rocking the boat when he's out in the water, or by riding over Niagara falls sitting astride of a log. Those French scientists make me tired with their hullabaloo over nothing."—Harper's Weekly.

Too Deep For Him.

A Britisher was announcing his views on things in general and summed up his own position by the statement, "Well, I've seen life." "But," said his American friend, "one of your own bright poets has said, 'Life's a joke.'" The Britisher is still exploring the remark.—New York Times.

Charles Freeman Suffers Loss by Rise of Thieves.

While Charles Freeman of Monessen, Pa., a wealthy theatrical man with a chain of show houses in the valley towns, was away from home his house was plundered under the guise of a "movie house burglary."

In the absence of Freeman and his family, when but one servant remained at the house, a big van was driven up to the house and three men alighted, one carrying with him a movie camera. Presenting an order purporting to be signed by Mr. Freeman to the servant, the pseudo movie man began work. Everything of value excepting the furniture and carpets was taken.
