The Change of a Name.
How family names change in the course of many years is illustrated by the conversion of "Botville" into "Thynne." An English deed bearing date in the closing days of the fifteenth century shows three brothers then flourishing—John Botville and Thomas and William Botville. The trio are distinguished from all other Botvilles by the explanation "of the Inne," or family residence, the "tle to which had come to their joint possession. John's grandson was known as Ralph Botville-of-the-Inne, from which the transition to Ralph Thynne is easy. His descendants have been Thynnes ever since.
